R. J. Hongen Pleads Guilty And Paid Fine.

R. J. Hongen of Weissport, Carbon county, president of the Dushore Water company, on Monday of this week before Alderman Frank B. Brown of Wilkes-Barre, pleaded guilty to buying brook trout contrary to section 12 of the Act of May 1, 1909, and was fined $20 and the costs amounting to $15.85, making a total of $35.85. Mr. Hongen paid the amount reluctantly, expressing the belief that he could win out should he carry the case to the higher courts.

Mr. Hongen, it will be remembered, was coming to Dushore on the evening train over the Bowman's Creek branch. He had six pounds of nice trout, which he proudly showed Fishwarden Shoemaker, who happened to be on the train. The officer was informed that the trout had been purchased at a commercial hatchery, and then Mr. Shoemaker asked to see the bill of sale or invoice which the law states in so many words must accompany fish and be shown upon demand.

Mr. Hongen had no invoice, and so Mr. Shoemaker took possession of the fish and told Mr. Hongen that he would be summoned to appear before a justice.

The matter was taken up with the Department of Fisheries and much squabbling resulted, but Commissioner Meehan would not give in a peg, and told Fishwarden Shoemaker to fight the case until the end. But the end has come sooner than expected and as the fine and costs have been paid this celebrated case of a few days ends.—Towanda Daily Review.

Chas. W. Sones was nominated on the Democratic ticket for State Senator by a majority of 68 votes over Wm. T. Creasy. It is intimated that friends of Creasy will make charges of fraud in Sullivan county.

Ten Thousand Attend World's S. S. Convention.

Washington Thronged for Most Cosmopolitan Gathering ever held on Continent—Big Procession—Taft Makes Speech—Spectacular Features.

Unprecedented for its cosmopolitanism, unequalled in the magnitude of its constituency, and unsurpassed as a spectacle, the World's Sixth Sunday School Convention in Washington, D. C., May 19-24, marks an event in religious history.

President Taft was not alone in expressing amazement over the size and character of the Convention. He looked out over a sea of six thousand faces on the opening night, while outside the Convention Hall a still large number of persons congregated, unable to enter. Nearly twenty-five hundred of the official delegates wore red ribbon badges with the legend "North America." Some five hundred others wore blue badges bearing the names of more than fifty different nations, as remote as China and South America, Turkey and Australia. In addition to these three thousand official and representative delegates from every State and province in the United States and Canada and from foreign lands, there were about seven thousand unofficial delegates or visitors. Sometimes three and four simultaneous Convention sessions were inadequate to hold the throngs.

It was a spectacular Convention. The great Men's Bible Class Parade on the afternoon of May 20 opened the eyes of Washington to the virility and masculinity of modern religion. In order that some members of Congress might march in the parade, as they did, and that others might witness it, Congress adjourned early on the day of the demonstration. Torrential rains immediately preceded and followed the parade, largely reducing the ranks; nevertheless five thousand men in a bannered procession a mile long marched down Pennsylvania Avenue, and were reviewed at the Capitol by a throng of ten thousand persons.

All these marching men belong to the Sunday School, and the thought uppermost in the minds of many of the spectators who lined the sidewalks was expressed on one banner, "Where the men lead the boys will follow." A huge mass-meeting for men, with ringing speeches by Rev. Dr. Homer C. Stuntz and Rev. Dr. S. Parkes Cadman, followed the parade. At the same time two big meetings of the women delegates were in session.

Another spectacular feature of the Convention was a great open-air gathering on the east steps of the Capitol, when a multitude of people joined in the singing of Christian hymns.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. More, Mrs. Harriet Brown, S. P. Shoemaker, Mrs. S. S. Vroman and Mrs. Dell Brown attended the funeral of their aunt, Mrs. Abram Shoemaker, at Windfall last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Rush Rogers and little son Lawrence visited at C. B. Wheatley's on Sunday.

Esquire Bird and Mrs. Cope Bird have been on the sick list but are some better at present.

Bitten by New Dog.

Rush Rogers of Estella, purchased a shepherd dog of parties in Hoytville, Pa., and the animal arrived at the New Albany express station Tuesday. Rogers called and claimed the dog, and just as he was ready to start for home, the animal bit him on the hand, making a very painful injury. Dr. Harshberger assisted by Druggist Ray Wilcox, attended to the injury, and Mr. Rogers went home, taking the dog with him. The canine will be chained and kept under close watch for a number of days.—Towanda Review.

Special Meetings U. S. W. P.

The United Spanish War Veterans Association was organized to promote the feelings of comradeship among the survivors of the war with Spain and the memories of a service to our country the results of which in National reputation and extension of our national domain were of great magnitude.

This order inculcates patriotism, charity and fraternity and stands for the groing soldiers interests in state and national legislation as the G. A. R. has so worthily stood for the interests of the veterans of the Civil War. The thinning lines of the G. A. R. reminds us that in a few years their place will be only in history, and our living veterans those of '98-'02.

The U. S. W. V. grew out of the union of many veteran associations that sprang up after the war with Spain and is now of truly national proportions, having Camps in every state and territory, in Porto Rico, Cuba, and in the Philippines even has enough Camps for a department. It welcomes regulars and volunteers, soldiers, sailors, and marines who served Old Glory at any time from the Declaration of war against Spain to the proclamation of peace in the Philippines on July 4, 1902.

Charles F. Moore Camp No. 6, U. S. W. V., is the only camp in our section. It was chartered to meet at Towanda, in 1901, as No. 208 of the Spanish American War Veterans and in 1904 was rechartered as No. 6, Dept. of Pa. U. S. W. V. in August 1907. Charles T. Moore Camp was moved to Sayre where it now meets on the 2nd and 4th Wednesdays of each month in City Hall at 8:00 p. m.. On its rolls it has men who have served in more than twenty-five regiments and veterans of nearly every branch of the U. S. military service.

Many of the young veterans have failed as yet to join any Camp, but will have an opportunity to do so at once on most favorable terms as Charles F. Moore Camp on the special meetings of June 8, and 29, and July 13, and 27, offers to receive recruits for $1.50, half of the regular rate for muster fee. There ought to be "lively doings" at these meetings with recruits from Bradford, Sullivan and Wyoming counties and from over the line in York state.

Fan Needs A North American Book To Score Ball Games.

Learn how to score a baseball game accurately and scientifically if you want to increase your knowledge and enjoyment of the national game.

George Graham, sporting editor of The North American, has lately prepared a complete scoring system, which tells in detail how every play should be recorded, giving illustrations making clear the various symbols, and is arranged so simply and concisely as to come within the understanding of all.

Ten cents and coupon which appears every Sunday in The North American will bring a copy of this valuable book, which includes also blanks enough to score the season's games.

The Philadelphia National League club has adopted Mr. Graham's system at official, and uses it daily in the score-card sold on the grounds. It has the indorsement of Charles Carpenter, president of the Tristate League, and has been praised all over the country as the most complete exposition of the science of scoring since Harry Wright invented the first system, three decades ago.

Get a copy of next Sunday's North American, and send along the coupon and 10 cents. The North American pays the postage.
