Pastors' Congress At Altoona.

A unique feature of the coming State Sabbath School Convention to be held in Altoona, October 12, 13, and 14, will be a Pastors' Congress. The call has gone out to every pastor in the State inviting him to attend this Congress. There are about eight thousand ministers serving churches in Pennsylvania. The Congress in Altoona will bring together ministers representing all denominations. The theme of the Congress will be "Pastoral Leadership in Sunday School Evangelism".

The Sunday School of to-day is looked upon as the greatest evangelizing agency in the Church, and greater attention must be given in securing proper conditions under which the Sunday School can do its work. Conservation of effort as well as results is a Sunday school problem of vital interest to all ministers.

W. G. Landes, with headquarters in the Witherspoon Building, Philadelphia, is the General Secretary of the State organization; and Mr. Alexander Findley, of Altoona, has charge of the local arrangements for the Congress.

The Sunday School platform brings all denominations together, and this Congress for pastors will no doubt be largely attended. Prominent clergymen from this State will address the Congress.

Miss Laura Boice, who has been the guest of Miss Fanny Meylert for the past month, has returned to her home in Philadelphia.

A very pleasant party was given at the home of W. C. Mason on Monday evening. The following people were present: Mrs. J. W. Murrelle, Mrs. E. A. Heim, Miss Helen Phillips, Miss Olive Barrows, Mrs. J. L. Smyth, Mrs. F. Meylert, Mr. and Mrs. F. H. Ingham, Mrs. Wm. Cheney, Miss Jessie Wrede, Mrs. Wm. Rogers, Mrs. Henry Stepp, and daughter Eliza.

THE REPUBLICAN PERIL. A Bull Run Defeat in Maine

The truth is always better than a lie. The Republican party has sustained an overwhelming defeat in Maine and there is no use trying to deny it. The Democrats have elected their candidate for governor and their whole state ticket, with two of the four Congressmen and a large majority in both branches of the legislature, which will give them a United States senator in place of Eugene Hale, the present Republican incumbent.

It is said the defeat was produced by local causes—that the liquor interest, which violates the laws behind closed doors, voted solidly for the Democratic candidates. It is generally supposed that it has always done so; but local causes never produce such enormous changes. It is also said that the Republican revolt was against the leadership of Mr. Hale, who has been prominent in politics, and a congressman for thirty years.

There may be something in this. We have seen the spirit of jealousy and anger at the "bosses" exhibited in our own state more than once. Mr. Hale could not possibly supply all the applicants for the limited patronage at his disposal. Some had to be favored and some others disappointed and chagrined. Probably the number of disappointed and cross Republicans in Maine increased from year to year until there were enough to sink the ship in order to get rid of the obnoxious captain.

If this supposition be true these malcontents have committed an act of folly seldom equaled. They can expect no favors from the Democratic party, and will get none. They have put their own party in the minority where it is unable to aid them after Mr. Hale is out of the way.

The Republicans of Pennsylvania should not follow their example; and we believe will not. The state convention was harmonious and the policy of President Taft's administration is satisfactory to the people of Pennsylvania.

Paris Fashions For Americans.

The American woman has now reached the pass where she never buys her outfit for the season without first being sure what Paris has decided upon as the fashionable thing.

Following its usual custom, inaugurated several years ago. The North American on, Sunday, September 18, issue its special Paris fashion number, it being an eight-page section in connection with its regular Sunday paper.

The styles representative makers of fashionable garments. After seeing them the woman can form her own idea and make her own choice of the American goods that are offered. She can make sure that she is getting up-to-date garments. There is always a big demand for the North American's special fashion numbers. It is advisable to order of the agent or newsdealer well in advance.

An account handed in reports a "Kelly's Fricassee Hallelujah Corn Roast" held at Lake Mokoma on Friday evening by the junior class of the High School. Herbert Keeler acted as toast-master and Nelson Lawrenson made the opening address. There is something slightly vague as to what was said but Kelly seems to have played an important part. Copies of the toast and address can be obtained of Miss Ida Hartung who took them in short-hand in short order. Those present were Misses Olive Keeler, Hattie Traugh, Esther Vough, Ida Lovelace, Ida Hartung and Messrs. Orr and Nelson Lawrenson, Rex Eddy, Samuel Kennedy, Herbert Keeler, also the members of the Senior class who however were not recognized as guests and were forced to hold a Blind-eared corn roast with no fricassee.

GREAT CROWDS GREET TENER

Candidate For Governor Gets Fine Ovations.

MAKES BIG HIT WITH VOTERS

Republican Standard Bearer Frankly
Meets Live Issues and is Assured of Splendid Victory.

John K. Tener and his associates on the Republican state ticket are being given splendid receptions and ovations on their trip through the state.

The meetings have in almost every instance been even larger than those witnessed in the triumphal tour of Edwin S. Stuart four years ago.

Keen interest in the success of the campaign and enthusiasm for the nominees, manifested in every county that has been visited, must foreshadow a great victory in November.

Pennsylvania Republicans are harmonious and aggressive, and with the Democracy divided between Grim and Berry, the indications are that the majority for John K. Tener for governor will be the largest given to any nominee for that office in this state in recent years.

Believes In Education.

For his clean-cut, manly and frank discussions of the issues of the campaign, Candidate Tener has been commended upon every hand. He does not hesitate to express himself freely upon all questions and is taking the people into his confidence as he goes from place to place, meeting the voters face to face, and grasping them by the hand and impressing all with his candor and sincerity.

In chatting with a well known educator the other day, Mr. Tener said: "I firmly believe that education, coupled with good sound common sense, will do more to obliterate the thought of anticipated and imaginary dangers in the future than any other agency that can be invoked. I am a firm and everlasting believer in the cause of education. It has served where modern equipment in the hands of a well-drilled militant force would have been without avail and has done more to make the United States the wonderful nation that she is than anything we have ever known.

"Build school houses, have competent instructors, interest the youthful minds, and happiness and clean, godly lives can be the only result."

At Home Among Wage Earners.
During the course of an address to coal miners of Schuylkill county, Mr. Tener said:

"It has been my misfortune that I have never visited this section of Pennsylvania before, and while I am not a stranger in a community of this kind, because I come from the soft coal region of the Monongahela river. I live with and associate with men who work in the mines and in the shops of that great industrial district. On the river that flows past my door more than 9,000,000 tons of coal are floated every year, so that in coming here and seeing you, the same kind of people that we have at home, in the same line of work, I feel quite at home. I know that your lives and your thoughts and your aims are very much like ours at home and your political belief ought to be like ours at home. We are Republicans there because we believe that through the Republican party we receive the greatest benefit.

"My neighbors are the workmen of the United Mine Workers' Union, and out there every man that works in the mine is a union man. The United Mine Workers' Union has set a high standard for themselves and for all union labor, in my opinion, because whenever they sign a contract with the operators they see to it that it is kept, so that we live in harmony and peace."

The farmers of the state know they have a friend in John K. Tener.

While a member of congress he was a stout champion of every measure that came before that body designed to advance the interests of the farmer and dairyman.

Party Organization Essential.

Candidate Tener's firm belief in the importance of maintaining a party organization through which to promote policies and fix responsibilities of government has been expressed on more than one occasion since the canvass was inaugurated.

Upon this question a few days ago he said:

"I believe in government in this country by political parties. I believe that the best results are secured when there are two great parties divided on civic and economic questions.

"I have not in the past nor do I now believe that any permanent good can be accomplished by those spasmodic movements resulting in the organization of additional parties, whose careers are but temporary and which have signally failed to accomplish the purposes for which they were ostensibly brought into existence.

"I do not only believe in government by political parties, but I believe in party regularity. Each voter should take an active interest in the management of his own party, in the selection of a ticket and in the writing of the platform. Should conditions arise within his party which do not appeal to him he should earnestly strive to have them eliminated."

THE FORKSVILLE FAIR.

The annual fair of the Sullivan County Agricultural Society will be held on the grounds at Forks-ville on October 4, 5, 6, and 7. This fair promises to be better than any of previous years and a much larger attendance than ever before is expected.

Among the attractions there will be athletic events on Wednesday and base-ball on Thursday and Friday. These features alone are worth much more than the price of admission as Sullivan County can boast of some fine athletes and ball players who have the ability to put up an interesting exhibition of the various sports.

The merry-go-round will also be there to delight both young and old. Many other new and up-to-date attractions will be open for the fair goers.

A new stock barn much superior to the old one has been erected by the Society. Increased premiums will be paid this year for exhibits.

For premium list address O. N. Molyneux, Secretary, Dushore, Pa.

A Good Position.

can be had by ambitious young men and ladies in the field of "Wireless" or Railway telegraphy. Since the 8-hour law became effective, and since the Wireless companies are establishing stations throughout the country there is a great shortage of telegraphers. Positions pay beginners from $70 to $90 per month, with good chance of advancement. The National Telegraph Institute operates six official institutes in America, under supervision of R. R. and Wireless officials and places all graduates into positions. It will pay you to write them for full details at Cincinnati, O., or Philadelphia, Pa.
