FOSS ELECTED GOVERNOR
Democratic Gubernatorial Candidate
Wins by 24,000 Plurality.
Boston, Nov. 9.—Congressman Eugene N. Foss was elected governor of Massachusetts by a plurality of 24,000. The remainder of the Republican ticket went into office.
The defeat of Governor Eben S. Draper, the Republican nominee, is due to the agitation over the increased cost of necessities and the outcry that the Payne-Aldrich tariff bill is one of the chief causes.
The incoming legislature will show large Democratic gains, but there are still enough Republicans to insure the re-election of Senator Lodge, even should there be a fusion of Democrats and what few anti-Lodge Republicans who may have crept in.

Rhode Island Elects Republicans.
Providence, R. I., Nov. 9.—The re-election of Republican congressmen, Republican governor and state ticket and a Republican mayor of Providence is indicated. For governor, Lewis A. Waterman, the Democratic candidate, has reduced over 1000 Governor Pothier's figures of last year, when Pothier had a plurality of nearly 12,000. In spite of this inward showing Republicans claim Pothier's re-election by at least 5000 plurality and the election of the rest of the state ticket is conceded.

Result in North Carolina.
Raleigh, N. C., Nov. 9.—Steadman Dem., for congress in the Fifth district, polled heavier majority than was anticipated. May reach 2500, defeating Blair, Rep., for seat now held by Moorehead, Rep. Cowles, Rep., in the Eighth, is re-elected by reduced majority. It is impossible to tell at present whether Grant, Rep., is re-elected in the Tenth. Majority will not be over 500 either way. McIntosh, Rep., polled a heavy vote in the Ninth, but Webb, Dem., is re-elected. The state went Democratic by 30,000.

Republicans Lose in Illinois.
Chicago, Nov. 9.—The Republican state committee claims the sure election of only six out of the twenty-five congressmen from Illinois. It was conceded that eight were still in doubt, with the probability that most of the Republicans would be defeated, and the other eleven districts were conceded to the Democrats. The Democrats have but six members in the present Illinois delegation.

Three Canton youngsters were arrested for having Halloween "fun". They were taken to the town hall and held until about midnight when, on promise to go home to their mothers they were released.

An exchange says: "Col. Roosevelt was 52 years old on Thursday (Oct. 27) but some folks will continue to call him Teddy." Yes, we had a birthday on that date too, and some people still call us down occasionally.

Arrangements are being made to make the new postal savings banks the depositories of small sums of money for children, and to facilitate this saving the post office department will soon place on sale at all post offices a special post card and special stamps. The card will represent the initial sum of ten cents and will contain spaces for affixing nine stamps each of the denomination of ten cents. When the card is full and represents one dollar it is to be filled out and mailed to a postal savings bank where it becomes a deposit in Uncle Sam's bank.

If winter has come for keeps, and expects to stay with us until the April sun chases him off, as some are inclined to think, he has not selected a very opportune time for his arrival. The heavy fall of snow which covered the earth on Friday and Saturday of last week came as a surprise to the builders, painters and farmers many of whom have unfinished work which they were forced to abandon. In many places apples are still on the trees and garden truck is for a great part resting in its summer home.

We recently heard a man complaining because an opportunity to bid on a certain job of work was lost for the reason that he had not known of it. Bids for this job were advertised in the News Item. Upon investigation it was found that he was one of the few who, although once subscribers do not now take the home paper, and thus, by neglecting to again subscribe, for reasons known to himself he has possibly let many times the price of subscription slip through his hands. Moral—Again throw in your hook; there are more fish in the brook.

Idaho Elects Republican.
Boise, Idaho, Nov. 9.—Returns indicate the election of the entire Republican ticket, headed by Brady for governor, but by reduced majorities. French, an insurgent, seems certain of election to congress. The legislature will be Republican, but there is no United States senator to elect. The only issue is submission of a state wide prohibition amendment.

Light Vote in Kentucky.
Louisville, Ky., Nov. 9.—While a light vote was cast over Kentucky, the Democrats carried the following districts: First, Ollie M. James, Dem., no opposition; Second, A. O. Stanley, Dem.; Third, Thomas, Dem., district normally Republican; Fourth, Johnson, Dem.; Fifth, Sherley, Dem. All of the above congressmen were re-elected.

Caleb Powers Goes to Congress.
Louisville, Ky., Nov. 9.—Caleb Powers, in the Eleventh district, is the only Republican congressman elected. He won by 3000.

Editor Newell of the Canton Sentinel, gives some timely and sensible advice to husbands in the following: Don't kick because you have to button your wife's waist. Be glad your wife has a waist and doubly glad you have a wife to button a waist for; some men's wives have no waists to button. Some men's wives' waists have no buttons on to button. Some men's wives who have waists with buttons on to button don't care a continental whether they are buttoned or not. Some men don't have any wives with waists with buttons on to button any more than a rabbit.
