ELECTION NEWS.

Tener Elected Governor By a Fair Majority.

As a result of Tuesday's election the full Republican State ticket is elected, John K Tener winning for Governor by a majority of twenty-five thousand votes.

Sullivan County to the Front

The Republicans of the County stuck by their colors in a commendable manner giving Tener a majority of 175 and Reeser a majority of 229. Berry and Grim ran very closely, the latter having polled but nine votes more than the Keystone candidate.

The County Total.

Following is given the total number of votes polled in the County for the principal candidate:

GOVERNOR: Tener, R. and W., 634; Grim, D, 468; Larkin, pro., 68; Berry, Key., 459.

LIEUTENANT GOV.: Reynolds, R. and W., 639; Greevy, D., 529.

SEC. INT. AFFAIRS: Houck, R., 656; Blakeslee, D., 529; Huntington, Pro., 89; Casey, Key., 276.

CONGRESS: McHenry, R. and D., 1,221; Hart, Pro., 121; Harter, Key., 260.

STATE SENATOR: Yetter, R. 624; Sones, D., 745; Reese, Pro., 113.

REPRESENTATIVE: Reeser, R and Key., 870; O'Neill, D., 641; Bown, Pro., 118.

With a handsome majority for Tener and a large majority for Reeser, the Republicans of Sullivan County may well feel content.

Pennsylvania still maintains its integrity. When other states falter and fail in blind excitement, Pennsylvania stands firm as the great Keystone of our National integrity and business prosperity.

We have good reasons to be proud of our State and proud of our County.

Joseph Litzelswope of Cherry Township was a Laporte caller Wednesday.

M. J. Devaney of Emmons was transacting business in the county seat Thursday.

Preaching by pastor Dixon in the Eagles Mere M. E. church Sunday morning at 11 o'clock. Subject: "The Fruit of Long Suffering?"

Otis Rose shot a bear about one-half mile west of Laporte Monday. The wounded animal was then chased to a short distance of Eagles Mere where the trail was lost.

The special revival services at Nordmont, which were postponed on account of bad roads, and the pastor's illness, will begin on Tuesday evening, Nov. 15. We hope that all may find it convenient to attend these services. We expect visiting pastors to assist us in the meetings.

Rev. D. L. Dixon.
