People in the smaller towns generally have ample time to do their Christmas shopping in the two or three days preceding that day, however it might be well to begin to select in your mind the gifts you wish to bestow, also to start hinting about what you wish to receive.

The children of the primary grade of the Laporte schools, assisted by some of the young ladies of the High School, will give a musicale on Monday evening, Nov. 21, in the school auditorium, at 8 o'clock p. m. Admission 10 cents. Proceeds well go toward getting "The Children's Hour", a set of books for grade reading.

This year is the first in a century in which no county officers were elected on the first Tuesday in November in Pennsylvania. This was because of the adoption of the constitutional amendments last fall which provides for the election of state officers in even numbered years and county officers in odd numbered years. Next year will be an odd number.

The pupils of the third, fourth and fifth grades of the Laporte school procured ballots and on the afternoon of election day voted. Twenty voted and out of that number eighteen were straight Democratic. They were all very familiar with the ticket and its meaning and needed no assistance in making it. The rest of the other party seemed to think that the man from "Blue Point Bay" has a good chance for some work in Laporte.

Social Dance.

A social dance and oyster supper will be held at Boudman's Sonestown Hotel on Wednesday evening Nov. 23. Don't forget, Thanksgiving eve. Everybody invited. Good music and good order always. Smith Boudman, Prop.

The silver loving cup awarded to the Laporte primary school at the County fair, by the Sullivan County Agricultural Society, arrived this week and is displayed in the front window of the First National Bank. While the cup itself is a valuable and beautiful ornament, it is really the effort and persistent work of teacher and scholars—the source of its bestowal, that makes the true worth of this award. The fathers and mothers of Laporte may be justly proud of their youngsters.
