Love Caused Murder.

Says the Scranton Times-The cause of the murder for which Alfreda Cassalanovo is on trial for his life sits beside him at the defendants table in court, in the person of his eighteen year old wife. Anthony Verano was a suitor for her hand it is illeged, and when Cassalanovo won her it marked the beginning of a feud which ended in the killing on Jan. 27, on the street at Bulls Head.

This Cassalanova was the Italian prisoner who was caught at Bernice and placed in the county jail, and who later after escaping from the Sheriff and being recaptured, was taken to Scranton by members of the state constabulary.
