

ALMOST HELPLESS.
Made Well By Curing The Weakened Kidneys.
 Mrs. J. W. Figgers, 49 Rose St., Clifton Forge, Va., says: "Kidney trouble had gradually gotten the better of me until I was almost helpless. Rheumatic pains in my loins, limbs and back nearly drove me distracted and my head ached so intensely I could hardly see. After doctors had failed to help me, I began using Doan's Kidney Pills. Imagine my delight at receiving almost instant relief. I am now as free from kidney trouble as if I had never had it and shall never cease to be thankful to Doan's Kidney Pills."

Harold Knows the Signs.
 Five-year-old Harold's older sister was in the habit of making a good many demands on him. Generally her requests for favors, usually the running of errands around the house, were prefaced by what she considered subtle flattery.
 "Now, Harold," she began one day, "you're a dear, sweet little boy, and you know I love you—" but Harold cut her short.
 "Well, Ethel," he said, earnestly, "if it's upstairs, I won't go."—Lippincott's Magazine.

MUNYON'S PAW-PAW PILLS

TRADE MARK

A trial package of Munyon's Paw Paw Pills will be sent free to anyone on request. Address Professor Munyon, 53d & Jefferson Sts., Philadelphia, Pa. If you are in need of medical advice, do not fail to write Professor Munyon. Your communication will be treated in strict confidence, and your case will be diagnosed as carefully as though you had a personal interview.

Munyon's Paw Paw Pills are unlike all other laxatives or cathartics. They coax the liver into activity by gentle methods. They do not scour, they do not gripe, they do not weaken, but they do start all the secretions of the liver and stomach in a way that soon puts these organs in a healthy condition and corrects constipation. In my opinion constipation is responsible for most ailments. There are 20 feet of human bowels, which is really a sewer pipe. When this pipe becomes clogged the whole system becomes poisoned, causing biliousness, indigestion and impure blood, which often produce rheumatism and kidney ailments. No woman who suffers with constipation or any liver ailment can expect to have a clear complexion or enjoy good health. If I had my way I would prohibit the sale of nine-tenths of the cathartics that are now being sold for the reason that they re-act to act unless forced by strong purgatives.

Munyon's Paw Paw Pills are a tonic to the stomach, liver and nerves. They invigorate instead of weaken; they enrich the blood instead of impoverish it; they enable the stomach to get all the nourishment from food that is put into it.

These pills contain no calomel, no dope; they are soothing, healing and stimulating. They school the bowels to act without physie.

Regular size bottle, containing 45 pills, 25 cents. Munyon's Laboratory, 53d & Jefferson Sts., Philadelphia.

Helen Is Coming Home

"Dearest mother," wrote Helen, "it seems too good to be true that school really closes next Wednesday. If it weren't for my chemistry exam tomorrow, which scares me to pieces, and that awful test lesson we are going to have in French verbs Friday—I just know I'll fall—I'd be in the seventh heaven, for I am perfectly delighted at the thought of seeing you and dad and little Ned.
 "That reminds me, I hope you aren't letting Ned use the tennis racket I left at home. The one I have here got wet. I left it on the courts one day and it rained very unexpectedly and of course it's ruined. So don't let Ned play with my other one, for he is so careless that something would be sure to happen to it if he took it. I don't want to have to go to the expense of buying a new racket this season, for I know it costs dad a lot to keep me at school and I do so want to come back next fall, for I like it better than I did the first year.
 "Did I tell you that we have become acquainted with some of the tech boys? They are great. The dean chaperoned five of us to the tech junior promenade. She's such an old dear. She slept nearly all the evening in her chair and we had the loveliest time. I wore my pink marquisette with a maline snood. All the girls said it was awfully fetching—the maline in my hair, I mean. The dress is a little passe. I must have more evening frocks next year.
 "Anita, the girl I've told you so much about, and I have picked out our rooms for next year. By paying only $25 more each we can have the loveliest little suite of two bedrooms and a study. I do hope you'll let me take one of the big oriental rugs out of the library. Then if dad will let me buy some madras curtains it will be the best looking study in our hall. I am just crazy over it already and I wish dad would send a check right away, so I can make a deposit to hold the suite.
 "If anybody should ask, mother darling, what I want for my birthday, just say that I want a handsome percolator. Anita and I are going to have kaffee-kitsches two or three times a week next year. It will be lots more chic than the everlasting afternoon teas the other girls have. Anita has the darriest set of Turkish coffee cups you ever saw.
 "You say in your last letter that you're glad you had my wardrobe put in such good order during the spring vacation, so there won't be any sewing to do when I get home this time. Why, mother, precious, how can you think my clothes stay in order? I am perfectly destitute. My tailor suit is just awful. You know the jacket is entirely too long for this season and the collar never did set right. My blue messaline evening gown is terribly tight. I don't see how I got so fat, doing gym every day, too. Isn't it a shame? And the chiffon on it is dreadfully mussy.
 "My tan crepe is all right, but so soiled that I wouldn't even wear it to a freshman frolic, and my foulard is just as bad. That blue and white gingham you sent me is my heart's delight. All the girls think it's so good looking. I've worn it almost every day and yesterday I accumulated it in chemistry lab. It's a sight now, with all the color out of the front breadth. My old white sailor suit is so short that I look a perfect fright in it.
 "My pink marquisette is in pretty good condition, but you know, mother dear, it's not this year's model, and I couldn't possibly wear it to Than Howard's dance. I have just received an invitation to his coming of age party, which will be the Tuesday after I get home, so please have a dressmaker in the house when I arrive Thursday, so we can get right to work on a party frock. Do you think an embroidered white vollee would be pretty? There's a senator who has one which her aunt sent from Paris. It's a perfect love, and as she won't be here next year it will be all right to copy her dress."
 "Give dad and Ned a bushel of hugs and kisses for me. I can hardly wait to see you. Fifteen of us girls have engaged berths in one sleeper. I guess we'll be going some when we start home. But don't worry, mother; you know I never cut up much on the train.
 "Oh, yes, do you care if I travel in my pongee? I really must. It's the only decent thing I have and my panama hat goes so well with it.
 "Well, I think I've told you all the news except about our spread and track meet. I'll tell you all about those when I see you.
 "The girls call me 'Muffin.' I simply must bant this summer—after I've had some good fill-ups on Molly's cake and cherry pie, and those delicious waffles. I can hardly wait to get home."
 A Slip.
 Toffer—Have a cigar, old boy. I'm afraid, though, these are not very good. In fact, they may be worse than those I gave you last.
 Friend (in a burst of politeness)—Impossible, my dear boy; impossible.—Exchange.

50,000 NEEDED TO HARVEST WESTERN CANADA'S CROP
 Will Take 160,000 Altogether to Take Care of Yield of Prairie Provinces.

One hundred and sixty-two thousand farm hands will be required this year to harvest the grain crops of Manitoba, Saskatchewan and Alberta. Of this number the local help will provide about 112,000, which will leave about 50,000 extra farm hands. There is, therefore, a great demand for this class of laborers in all parts of Western Canada. In order to meet the requirements it has been arranged to grant very low railway rates from all boundary points reached by Canadian railways. In order to secure these rates it will be necessary for you to call on one of the following authorized agents of the Canadian government: M. V. McInnes, 176 Jefferson Avenue, Detroit, Michigan; C. A. Laurier, Marquette, Michigan; J. S. Crawford, Syracuse, N. Y.; Thos. Hetherington, Room 202, 73 Tremont Street, Boston, Mass.; H. M. Williams, 413 Gardner Bldg., Toledo, Ohio; Geo. Aird, 216 Traction-Terminal Bldg., Indianapolis, Indiana; C. J. Broughton, Room 412 Merchants' Loan & Trust Bldg., Chicago, Ill.; Geo. A. Hall, 2nd Floor, 125 Second Street, Milwaukee, Wis.; E. T. Holmes, 315 Jackson Street, St. Paul, Minn.; Chas. Pilling, Clifford Block, Grand Forks, N. D.; J. M. MacLachlan, Box 197, Watertown, S. D.; W. V. Bennett, Room 4, Bee Bldg., Omaha, Neb.; W. H. Rogers, 125 West 9th Street, Kansas City, Mo.; Benj. Davies, Room 6, Dunn Block, Great Falls, Montana; J. B. Carbonneau, Jr., 217 Main Street, Biddeford, Me.; J. N. Grieve, Auditorium Building, Spokane, Wash.

This will give to intending harvest laborers a splendid opportunity to look over the magnificent wheat fields of Western Canada and will give them the best evidence that can be secured of the splendid character of that country from the farmer's standpoint. There will be at least 200,000,000 bushels of wheat harvested within the area of the three provinces above named this year and it is expected that the yield will run from 15 to 25 bushels per acre. Many farmers, this year, will net, as a result of their labors, as much as $8 to $10 per acre and many of them will deposit as profits as much as $8,000 to $10,000.

The wide publicity that has been given to the excellent crop that is being raised in central Alberta and southern Alberta, central Saskatchewan and southern Saskatchewan, and also in Manitoba, will increase the price of lands in these three provinces from $3 to $5 per acre and the man who was fortunate enough to secure lands at from $12 to $20 per acre will have reason for gratification that he exercised sufficient forethought to invest, while the man who was fortunate enough to secure a homestead of 160 acres free will also have a greater reason to feel pleased.

Notwithstanding the great addition to the acreage this year over last and the large crop that will be ready for harvest there is no reason to become alarmed that the harvest will not be reaped successfully. There will be a great demand for these low rates during the next couple of months; be sure to make your application to any of the agents above mentioned that may be in your territory at as early a date as possible. Harvesting will commence about the 25th of July and continue for five or six weeks, when threshing will begin and there will be plenty of work until November.

FURNITURE AND LOVE

"This is one of the most beautiful spots I have ever visited," said Grace, as she rocked idly in her chair. "The man who conceived the idea of building a hotel here should have a monument raised to his memory."
 "Rather say that he should be permitted to live here forever," suggested Smithsonian lazily. "Why put him under the sod so quickly?"
 "I meant when he dies, of course," amended Miss Hargreaves. She smiled brightly into the other's eyes, and, for the hundredth time that afternoon, Smithsonian caught himself wondering why he had never realized before what a charming girl Grace Hargreaves was.
 He had known her for years but it was not until they found themselves among the first guests of the new hotel in the Restigouche region of New Brunswick that he had had his attention particularly drawn to her. The hotel had only been open two weeks, and guests were still few.
 "How did you find the place?" he suddenly demanded.
 "Mother wanted a new place," she explained. "Some men who hunted through here last year told her about the hotel that was being built and she insisted upon coming."
 "I am here for old furniture," he volunteered. "There are all sorts of odd pieces to be picked up for a song. Their beauty lies in their genuineness; old bits brought out generations ago and used by the present owners who cast longing glances at the painted woods in the shops at Dalhousie."
 Grace gave a little scream of delight. "Do you mean to say that there are really places where you can still pick up old furniture?" she asked gravely. "If I had only known! I shall have to telegraph for more money. Old furniture is a passion with me."
 "Suppose we pool issues?" he suggested. "In that way we shall not bid against each other and raise the prices. I'll buy it all up and when we get back to town in the fall we will have a division."
 Smithsonian hired a team for a month and daily the three fared forth in search of treasure trove. The others at the hotel wondered at the long drives upon which Mrs. Hargreaves and her daughter went under Smithsonian's guidance, but none of the furniture they picked up was brought to the hotel and the nine day wonder soon dropped.
 Smithsonian picked up some wonderful bargains and had them all shipped to his town house. Before his vacation time was over he had skinned the cream of the colonial collections in a ten-mile radius but even the anticipation of unpacking his treasures did not console him for the fact that Mrs. Hargreaves had elected to remain for another month.
 The long delightful drives behind the fast team had deepened companionship into love as he cleaned and polished his purchases with the painstaking care of a true enthusiast, each piece was a reminder of some little happening of the vacation.
 He did not fully realize this until some weeks later when at last Mrs. Hargreaves returned to town and Grace came to claim some of the spoil.
 "I should like that old desk," she said, as she pointed to one of the acquisitions. Smithsonian's face clouded.
 "I was hoping that you would not want that," he said. "That is a souvenir of our first drive."
 "We got a lot of things that first day," she reminded, then blushed as she remembered that moment when Smithsonian's hand had unconsciously dropped upon her own upon the desk. It had been only an instant but it had stamped itself indelibly upon her brain.
 She could not tell him that that was why she wanted it herself, and she wondered if that was also the reason why he wished to keep it. She passed on to other things but each one had some association, and his forlorn expression as she made her choices touched her.
 "I really hate to take any of these things away," she said at last. "There are no duplicates and they make such a complete whole that it would be a shame to spoil it all by breaking the collection."
 "That might be avoided," he said bitterly. "If I had given less time to the collection and more to the promptings of my heart. It is not selfishness that makes me want to keep these things. It is because each has some association with that happy time. I look at that table and remember our lunch of bread and milk we made off its surface. Each piece reminds me of you and I am loath to give up even one tiny souvenir of that time."
 "Is it really necessary to break the set?" she asked.
 "You mean that—that you care for me?" he asked.
 Grace nodded.
 "No one but a stupid man would have needed to ask that question," she said softly, as she patted the desk affectionately.
 "We can make a very lovely home with these—and you, sweetheart," he whispered. "And to think that all this time I thought your interest was only the love of a collector!"
 "The love for a collector," she corrected softly, as she yielded to the arm that slipped about her waist.

PIMPLES SO DISFIGURING HE SHUNNED FRIENDS

"I was bothered with pimples and blackheads in the worst way for over four years. My face and arms were completely covered with them. The pimples would come out on my face and fester all up. They would scab over, and make my face sore, besides being so disfiguring that I shunned my friends. I tried facial cream balms and benzoin with no effect.
 "One night I asked a friend what was good for pimples, and he advised me to try Cuticura Soap and Cuticura Ointment which I did. I would wash my face first with hot water and Cuticura Soap, and then put on some Cuticura Ointment, let it stay on five minutes, and then wash my face again with the Cuticura Soap. It would draw the blackheads out as nice, and the pimples, oh say, it was one grand relief to go among my friends and be jolly again. After using two cakes of Cuticura Soap and two boxes of Cuticura Ointment, my face is as smooth as if there never had been a pimple on it. I cannot speak too highly of the Cuticura Soap and Ointment, and I hope others will profit by them as much as I have. I know they will after giving them just one trial."
 (Signed) Arthur E. Caswell, R. F. D. No. 2, Portsmouth, N. H., May 6, 1911.
 Although Cuticura Soap and Ointment are sold by druggists and dealers everywhere, a sample of each, with 22-page book, will be mailed free on application to "Cuticura," Dept. 8 K, Boston.
