SUGAR POINT.

The Episcopal Mission Chapel named "Mount Olivet" of which Glen Peterman took the contract is completed. It is a very pretty chapel, plastered and finished with light blue on the ceiling with a dark brown border and the walls of lighter brown. The wainscoting is varnished and the floor is oiled. Rev. Dupac of Laporte has sent for the seats and expects to hold the opening service Oct., 1st. All are cordially invited to attend.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Jones have returned to Williamsport after spending their honeymoon at this place. Harry Hunter who has been working at Ricketts, has returned home.

The Stork visited this place last week and brought with him two big baby boys, one to Mr. and Mrs. Glen Peterman, the other to Mr. and Mrs. Emory Diltz.

W. & N. B. Employees' Outing

The annual outing of the employees of the W. & N. B. Railroad Company was held at Lake Mokoma last Sunday. The jubilee singers from Picture Rocks well pleased their audience. A fine lecture was delivered in the afternoon by the Rev. E. W. Heim. It was a fine day for a picnic and the large crowd thoroughly enjoyed themselves on the rippling waters and in the cool shady nooks of Lake Mokoma.

Are You A Keystoner?

Says the Towanda Bradford Star in part: "If you voted the ticket headed by Wm. H. Berry, or for four of the candidates thereon, you voted the Keystone ticket, and must ask for a Keystone primary ballot. To procure any other ballot or by false statement procure and vote another ticket, you would be guilty of a crime and liable to fine and imprisonment."

Street Lights.

The street corners of Laporte are radiant with light these dark nights, the ladies of the V. I. S. having erected an oil lamp on all of the principal corners, which will greatly aid the belated traveler in guiding his foot steps homeward.

Card Of Thanks.

William Bogart and family wish to extend their sincere thanks to the friends and neighbors who so kindly assisted during the illness and death of their wife and mother.

Stackhouse--Stagger.

Frank Stackhouse and Miss Virgie Stager both of Ricketts were married by Justice of the Peace, James C. Caven of Laporte, Sept., 23, 1911. Mr. Stackhouse has a position in the stove factory at Ricketts and newly wedded couple will reside at that place. The News Item extends congratulations and best wishes.

QUALITY

When people realize that it is not the quantity for the money, so much as the quality that counts, then they will patronize the store which does business in good pure goods. Cut prices often mean cut qualities. Our prices are as low as good goods will allow. Our goods are not of the cheap mail-order variety. When comparing prices do not forget to compare qualities. If you find the prices lower than ours, then you will find the qualities inferior--generally "bargain house" job lots. Ask us to show you why our stock is superior.
