Changes at the Court House cials took the oath of office and assumed the duties of their offices last Monday.

George Broschart organized by appointing J. H. Cronin, solicitor at the court house Monday and entered upon the duties of his office.

He has appointed Ira Coot as his deputy.

Albert F. Hess, who was re-elected Prothonotary, again took the oath of office. There is not a better qualified man in Sullivan county for the office than Mr. Hess, always courteous and obliging he has won the respect and confidence of his fellow citizens.

County Treasurer Helsman has appointed his son Alfred as his deputy and he is now at the county seat.

The new Associate judges are Dennis Keefe and James P. Miller.

Congressman McHenry.

John G. McHenry of Pennsylvania—one of the really big men on the Democratic side of the House—is the subject of one of the leading articles in the December number of the National Magazine.

In this article Mr. McHenry is pictured as the Democrats in Congress know him—a man of unusual ability as a statesman and therefore a man of much influence in Washington. It is because of Mr.
McHenry's quiet diplomacy and good sound judgement that he is so frequently consulted by the Democratic leaders in matters of public policy and because of his position on the all-important Appropriations committee that he able to represent the people of the Sixteenth District of Pennsylvania to such good advantage.

"Out in the Sixteenth District of Pennsylvania," says the National Magazine, "lives John Geiser Mc-Henry". He was born in Benton township, and his ancestors represent the sturdy type of pioneer which has developed the country's best brain and brawn. Mr. Mc-Henry was educated in the rural public schools of Pennsylvania, and drove a lumber team in his early youth, dreaming of the time when he could hang out his shingle as a lawyer. He was a practical dreamer and realized that the first thing to do was to get started in business and await an opportunity to study law. After a course at the Orangeville Academy, he launched into a business career.
As farmer, manufacturer, banker, and politician, Congressman Mc-Henry is a type of Pennsylvania thrift.

"He was elected to the Sixtieth Congress by a handsome majority, which has been greatly increased in the two succeeding terms. A member of the Appropriations committee, Congressman Mc-Henry's judgement is always sought on weighty matters, and whatever McHenry advises goes a long way, because he does think out things.

"On his farm home at Benton he is at his best, for if there ever was a man who loved a farm it is John G. McHenry. His farms are under the personal supervision of Prof. H. E. Chubbuck, a graduate in agricultural science from the Agricultural Department of State College, State College, Pa.
On these farms experimental and demonstrating work is being carried on not only for the benefit of his community, but for the entire country. Mr. McHenry's belief is that the first important step toward the solution of the high cost of living must be found in an increased production of our soil. His bill now pending in Congress, asking for the appointment of an agricultural scientist to be located in every Congressional District where agriculture is the leading industry is said to be a measure of perhaps greater economic importance to the country than any other measure offered or acted upon in our national legislature in recent years.

"A man of high ideas and purposes, relentless in his energy and enthusiasm to accomplish the things that he sets out to do, Congressman McHenry is deservedly strong in the affections of his constituents. You won't find many in the Sixteenth Pennsylvania district who don't approve of their Congressman's agricultural bill."

Snyder---Swank.

Emery E. Snyder of Elk Grove, Pa., and Miss Amelia Swank of Union Springs, N. Y., were united in marriage at Muncy Valley December 23, 1911, by Frank W.
Buck, J. P. The bride is a daughter of Charles W. Swank, formerly of North Mountain, Davidson township. Congratulations and best wishes.

Republican News Item's Sensational Offer.

We want to increase our circulation. We want to place the News Item into every home in Sullivan county. How are going to do it? We are going to do it by making one of the most sensational offers ever known in the newspaper world. We are going to give you an opportunity to secure the Republican News Item three years, one copy of flashlights on the Underworld, Map of Pennsylvania and one hundred envelopes, all for $1.50.

Now read carefully, here is our plan: The first ten persons to pay us $1.50 will receive the News Item three years, Flashlights, Map, and one hundred envelopes. The next 75 persons to pay us $1.50 will receive the News Item three years, Map and 100 envelopes.
All other persons paying us $1.50 on or before Jan. 15 will receive the News Item three years and 100 envelopes.

This exceptional offer postively closed Monday, Jan. 15, 1912.
All persons wishing to take advantage of it must do so on or before that date. Don't be one of the last ones, don't wait until the last day, but be one of the first ten if possible and secure a copy of Flashlights on the Under World.

is cloth bound and contains 123 pages. It was written by an ex-convict and pictures the wrongs of our present system of treating the tramps and criminals. The introduction was written 1903 by Hon. E. M. Dunham, Ex-President Judge of this District.

Map of Pennsylvania is 28 x 41 inches in size, it gives all of the town, all of the railroads, and a feature that you will find on no other map—the distance from one town to the other.

The one hundred envelopes will have your name and return request neatly printed in the corner.

And as a special inducement we are going to give each person who takes advantage of the above offer, three years subscription to Park's Floral Magazine and ten packets of choice seeds, either flower or vegetable.

Now what are going to do about it? Are you going to stand idly by and allow Jan. 15, to come and pass without your taking advantage of this exceptional opportunity to secure $8.00 worth for only $1.50. Be one of the first ten, all you will have to do is HUSTLE.

QUALITY

When people realize that it is not the quantity for the money, so much as the quality that counts, then they will patronize the store which does business in good pure goods.
Cut prices often mean cut qualities. Our prices are as low as good goods will allow.
Our goods are not of the cheap mail-order variety. When comparing prices do not forget to compare qualities. If you find the prices lower than ours, then you will find the qualities inferior—generally "bargain house" job lots.

Ask us to show you why our stock is superior.
