Rules of Boudman's Hotel.

Smith Boudman of the Sonestown Hotel recently adopted the following rules and wishes that patrons of his hotel would please observe same:

In order to prevent the guests from carrying fruit from the table, there will be no fruit.

Married men without baggage will leave their wives in the office.

Old and feeble gentlemen will be not allowed to play in the halls.

Guests will not be allowed to use Indian clubs or dumbbells in their rooms. If they want exercise they can go in the kitchen and beat the steak.

Guests will not be allowed to tip the waiters, as it is liable to cause them to break the dishes.

Guests at this hotel wishing fine board, will please call for saw dust. Biscuits found riveted together can be opened with a chisel furnished by the waiter. The use of dynamite is positively prohibited.

Guests needn't mind paying their board, as the hotel is supported by a good foundation.

Guests on retiring at night will leave their money with the night clerk, for he will get it anyhow.

If you want the bell boy, wring a towel.

If you get hungry during the night, take a roll in bed.

Base-ball players wanting exercise will find a pitcher on the table.

If you want to write take the sheet off the bed.

If you find the bed a little buggy and you have a nightmare, just hitch the mare to the buggy and drive off.

Don't forget our Sensational Offer.

Margaret Murray of Scranton and Mrs. Joseph McDermott of Mildred spent Wednesday and Thursday with Miss Frances Moran.

Sonestown Department.

Containing the latest news from that thriving village.

Personals.

Robert Simmon, shopman for the W. & N. B. R. R. Co., wife and two nephews spent Christmas in Williamsport.

Brady Hodge was up from Picture Rocks last Friday.

Robert Simmons finished his butchering last Thursday by killing a very nice porker.

Emory Worthing of Muncy Valley was a business man in town Thursday of last week.

Our schools closed for a two weeks vacation last Friday.

Tell your neighbor about our Sensational offer, they will thank you for it.

Griffith Phillips left last Friday for a visit to his son Harry at Clearfield.

Born to Mr. and Mrs. Asher Chrisman Thursday, Dec. 28, 1911, a son.

The light snow-fall of week ago Sunday evening caused a couple of young men to be roped off a steep grade, but both landed safely at the bottom. If one of them had not been such a tall guy the rope would have missed him, it just caught him on top of the head. I tell you it made him guy in English.

Appeal Notice.

To the taxpayers of the several boroughs and townships of Sullivan county:

Take notice that the county commissioners will hold an appeal in their office at Laporte, Pa., February 14, 1912, at 10 o'clock a. m., to hear such as may feel themselves aggrieved by the late assessment and to make such charges as may seem to them just and proper.

CO. COMMISSIONERS.

Commissioners' Office, Dec. 30, 1911.

Wig Dressing.

Not everybody who can dress a head of real hair becomingly can comb a wig with equal success. There is a special knack in wig dressing. In some shops where wax figures abound one or two of the employees are trained in the art of wig dressing and combine that with their other duties at a slight increase of salary, but in most places the entire business is intrusted to professional wig dressers.

Fire Alarm.

An accident that might have resulted in a disastrous fire occurred last Thursday evening on the farm of A. T. Armstrong below town. Mr. Armstrong was feeding his cattle by lantern light when the lantern upset and exploded causing fire to fly all around Mr. Armstrong, singeing his eyebrows and mustache and one side of his face looks as though he had been playing a juice harp for six months without intermission. His hand and arms were badly burned and blistered. He extinguished the fire by smothering it with his coat. (Doth hang it.)

Daffodils.

If all the Shoemakers were dead but Bill would he go barefooted?

If C. W. Sones gave the Bloomsburg hospital 1000, would Ben Speary any?

If someone should fall off John Converse's foot-walk would John Converse with him?

If Wolf Socks should steal a sheep and try to sell it to the people of Laporte for all wool would they believe him?

We don't need as much fire protection in Sonestown as we do rope, ask Guy in English.

THE JOYS WE MISS.

How small a portion of our life it is that we really enjoy! In youth we are looking forward to things that are to come; in old age we are looking backward to things that are gone past; in manhood, although we appear indeed to be more occupied in things that are present, yet even that is too often absorbed in vague determinations to be vastly happy on some future day when we have time.—Colton.

Highest Cathedral Tower.
The highest cathedral tower in the world is that of Ulm, in Austria. It is taller than the Washington monument and the pyramid of Khufu, at Gizeh. The Eiffel tower is the only modern construction which surpasses it in height.
