

VERY TRUE.

The Man—Society is a funny thing. The Maid—How so? The Man—A girl is not "in it" until she has "come out."

SCALES ALL OVER HER BODY

"Allow me to say a few words in praise of the Cuticura Remedies. About three years ago, I was affected by white scales on my knees and elbows. I consulted a doctor who treated me for ringworm. I saw no change and consulted a specialist and he claimed I had psoriasis. I continued treatment under him for about six months until I saw scales breaking out all over my body save my face. My scalp was affected, and my hair began to fall. I then changed doctors to no avail. I went to two hospitals and each wanted to make a study of the case and seemed unable to cure it or assure me of a cure. I tried several patent medicines and was finally advised by a friend who has used Cuticura on her children since their birth, to purchase the Cuticura Remedies. I purchased a cake of Soap, the Ointment and the Resolvent. After the first application, the itching was allayed.

"I am still using the Soap and Ointment and now feel that none other is good enough for my skin. The psoriasis has disappeared and I everywhere feel better. My hands were so disfigured before using the Cuticura Remedies that I had to wear gloves all the time. Now my body and hands are looking fine." (Signed) Miss Sara Burnett, 2135 Fitzwater St., Philadelphia, Pa., Sept. 30, 1910. Although Cuticura Soap and Ointment are sold by druggists and dealers everywhere, a sample of each, with 32-page book, will be mailed free on application to "Cuticura," Dept. L, Boston.

Flattery.

Edward D. Easton, one of the biggest manufacturers of talking machines in the world, has an idea that everybody is as much interested in grand opera as he is. He gives weekly concerts at his home and makes all his servants, who represent various nationalities, listen to them. Once a Swedish housemaid gave signs of intense satisfaction at the hearing of a particularly loud and shrill record by the great soprano, Lina Cavalieri. "So, you like that?" asked Mr. Easton, all puffed up because his grand opera had made such a hit. "Ay 'tink it bane grand," replied Alma. "It sound to me just lak de way de Ireesh cook she cry las, when hossban' die."—Popular Magazine.

He Was the One.

A small boy with a rather lost and lonesome appearance walked into the county clerk's office at the courthouse. He gazed about him for a time and finally approached Deputy Henry Smiley.

"Please, sir," the lad said timidly, "have you seen anything of a lady around here?"

"Why, yes, sonny," answered Smiley, "I've seen several."

"Well, have you seen any without a little boy?" the lad asked anxiously. "Yes," replied Smiley.

"Well," said the little chap, as a relieved look crossed his face, "I'm the little boy. Where's the lady?"—Denver Times.

The New Wife.

Hubby—My dear, won't you sew on a button for me before you go out? His New Wife—The cook may possibly do it for you. But please bear in mind you married a typewriter, not a sewing machine.

After sympathizing with people who are in trouble many a man begins to feel like a hypocrite.

GOOD JOKES

PRESENCE OF MIND.

There are symptoms of panic in the theater.

A big man in the front row arises. "Sit down!" he roars. "There is no danger! Sit down!"

The stampeding audience stops, turns, and faces him.

"Sit down!" he orders. The people obediently sit down.

"I will go to the entrance and show you there is no danger whatever," the big man says.

He strolls along the aisle, reaches the exit, and rushes out.

"That's what I call presence of mind," he tells himself. "I never could have got out of there if I hadn't stopped that panic."

Poets Without Honor.

"Look here: How did these rhymes about Washington get in the paper?"

"Do you mean the poem by William Cullen Bryant?"

"That's the one. Didn't I distinctly tell you not to use any more of the amateur stuff?"

"Yes. Have you read it?"

"Me! Read it! What for? And, look here, if there's anything to pay this man Bryant for the dope it's got to come out of your pocket, mind that!"

"That's all right. I'll stand it."

And the wheels resumed revolving.

Making Use of Him.

Rufon Wratz (in box car)—Naw! I didn't git half a night's sleep. How d'you s'pose I could sleep when you had yer cold feet in th' small o' my back all night long!

Saymold Storey—Them wuzn't my feet, pardner; them wuz a couple o' frosted turnips I wuz thawin' out.

Poor Reporting.

"I don't like the way they reported my speech," complained the new congressman.

"Why, they sprinkled in plenty of laughter and applause."

"Yes; but how about all of them gestures?"

Good Deeds.

Tom—I told her father that I expected to inherit several pieces of fine property.

Dick—What did he say?

Tom—He said that deeds speak louder than words.

WHAT DID HE MEAN?

The Landlubber—Did you have a bad trip on your last voyage?

The Sea Captain—Yes; very bad. My wife went along.

Needless Alarm.

What's that? What's that? Did someone fire?

Ah, no. 'Twas just an auto tire.

Well, Hardly.

Bacon—I see in some parts of Australia the telephone is regarded as an amusement rather than a necessity.

Egbert—Well, they can hardly consider it an amusement when central says the line is busy, can they?

Lack of Realism.

"Did you see where some actress says that audiences do not like to see husband and wife acting as lovers on the stage?"

"Of course not. It's not natural."

Announcing the Engagement.

"Miss Upperton, are you engaged to be married to Count Nocash?"

"There is absolutely no truth in the rumor. Marie, show the gentlemen the ring and give him a photograph."

Unhappy Jane.

"Poor Jane is in despair."

"What is the matter with Jane?"

"Why, she has just begun to realize that she's too fat for an actress and not fat enough for a prima donna."

Not Necessarily So.

"So Jones has become an actor."

"Has he?"

"You said so."

"No, I didn't. I said he had gone on the stage."

Supremacy.

"There is one state in the Union in which women have the upper hand without the aid of the ballot."

"Which one is that?"

"The state of matrimony."

Its Kind.

"Don't you think this open fire is a big improvement over a commonplace radiator?"

"Certainly; in fact, it is a grate radiator."

Confidential.

Little Willie—Mr. Jones, do you like lemon pie?

Casual Visitor—Yes, Willie.

Little Willie (anxiously)—You don't like it very much do you?

Casual Visitor (surprised)—Why do you ask, Willie?

Little Willie—Because we've got it for dessert and ma's afraid you'll want a second help.

AN INTERRUPTED TOAST.

George—Miss Evelyn, I rise to propose—

Evelyn (hastily interrupting him)—I am yours, dear George.

Surprising.

When some "pugs" stay A single round Our wonder is Indeed profound.

A Sign of Old Age.

"It seems to me that Worthington has been growing old rapidly during the past few years."

"Yes, his hair is becoming rather gray."

"It isn't his hair that makes him seem old to me. A man may have gray hair and still be young in spirit; but Worthington has reached the point in life where he can look at a rosy-cheeked girl and refer to her as a healthy young animal instead of calling her an angel."

Almost Miraculous.

Pierced by the bullet of an unseen foe, the hero had died in great agony.

Ten seconds later he was standing before the curtain, smiling and bowing his thanks to the applauding audience.

Beats the pulmotor, doesn't it!

Holding Him Down.

"Yep," said Silas Hayrick, "we've decided 'I send that no-count Reuben 't congress."

"But why?" we asked.

"'Cuz every time we send him anywhere else he gits out on a writ o' habeas corpus."

Warmth.

"Did that investigation develop anything in the nature of the third degree?"

"It went away beyond that. When I left it was in the neighborhood of a hundred in the shade."

His Reasoning.

"Why did the organist play the wedding march so fast that the bride and groom had almost to dance up the aisle?"

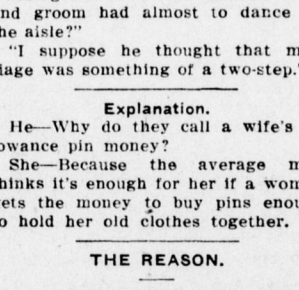

"I suppose he thought that marriage was something of a two-step."

Explanation.

He—Why do they call a wife's allowance pin money?

She—Because the average man thinks it's enough for her if a woman gets the money to buy pins enough to hold her old clothes together.

THE REASON.

Wiggs—I've met a whole lot of majors and colonels in your state; but no admirals.

Waggs—A man has to get near the water wagon to be an admiral.

Uncomplimentary.

His heart was light—

What made him blue, The neighbors vowed His head was, too!

A Slight Misunderstanding.

Mrs. Bings—My son in the city has got a automobile and he has a grodge.

Mrs. Jinks—Goody gracious! Who's the grodge aginst?

Fitting Fate.

"Why do you want to railroad this man to prison?"

"Why not? Isn't he a train robber?"

Dr. Albert W. Kahl, of Buffalo, N. Y., says: "I have used Castoria in my practice for the past 26 years. I regard it as an excellent medicine for children."

Dr. Gustave A. Elsengraeber, of St. Paul, Minn., says: "I have used your Castoria repeatedly in my practice with good results, and can recommend it as an excellent, mild and harmless remedy for children."

Dr. E. J. Dennis, of St. Louis, Mo., says: "I have used and prescribed your Castoria in my sanitarium and outside practice for a number of years and find it to be an excellent remedy for children."

Dr. S. A. Huchanan, of Philadelphia, Pa., says: "I have used your Castoria in the case of my own baby and find it pleasant to take, and have obtained excellent results from its use."

Dr. J. E. Simpson, of Chicago, Ill., says: "I have used your Castoria in cases of colic in children and have found it the best medicine of its kind on the market."

Dr. R. E. Eskildson, of Omaha, Neb., says: "I find your Castoria to be a standard family remedy. It is the best thing for infants and children I have ever known and I recommend it."

Dr. L. R. Robinson, of Kansas City, Mo., says: "Your Castoria certainly has merit. Is not its age, its continued use by mothers through all these years, and the many attempts to imitate it, sufficient recommendation? What can a physician add? Leave it to the mothers."

Dr. Edwin P. Pardee, of New York City, says: "For several years I have recommended your Castoria and shall always continue to do so, as it has invariably produced beneficial results."

Dr. N. B. Sizer, of Brooklyn, N. Y., says: "I object to what are called patent medicines, where maker alone knows what ingredients are put in them, but I know the formula of your Castoria and advise its use."
