Liability of Sellers of Unholesome Food at Public Eating Places

The supreme court of Louisiana recently rendered a decision in the case of Doyle v. Fuerst and Kaemer (56 So. 906) which is of patronize the store which does interest to everyone who even occasionally dines in a public restaurant. The plaintiff claimed that he was poisoned from having eaten cakes and chocolate with whipped cream at the defendants confectionery where refreshments were served to the public. The court holds that a seller of food, such as chocolate and cakes sold at a public eating place, is presumed to know any unwholesome condition of the food, and is liable for damages to a purchaser through being made ill on account of unwholesomeness. It is common knowledge, to which the keeper of a public eating place must be held, that food in which the process of decomposition has begun his liable to make the person who eats it ill. The measure of damage sustained by a purchaser of food, who is made ill through its unwholesomeness, is not merely reimbursement of the price, but all damages that were aforeseen or could have easily been foreseen as likely to have resulted. The court thinks that $100 was not an excessive award to a purchaser of ptomain poisoning caused by unwholesomeness of food, where he suffered intense pain, believed for

41 WAYS TO COOK CHEESE

Agricultural Department Will Furnish Book of Recipes

Another cook book, this one explaining how to prepare cheese numerious ways, has been added to the list of those already published by the department of agriculture.

Forty-one recipes for cheese dishes and cheese sauces are given, and the bulletin also contains sample bills of fare, in which cheese dishes are substituted for meats.

Cheese is not indigestible, the pamphlet declares, experiments by the department having shown that it is "as easy of digestion as a com-parable amount of meat." Copies may be had for the asking. - Washimgton Post.

"The Liver Pills act So Naturally and Easily."

Such a statement, coming from the cashier of a bank, shows what confidence responsible people have in these pills. Mr. A. L. Wilson after trying them wrote:

"I have used Dr. Miles' Nerve and Liver Pills and also your Anti-Pain Pills, on myself, with good results. The Liver Pills act so naturally and so easily that I scarcely know that I have taken a pill. Frequently being troubled with headache I take an Anti-Pain Pill and get immediate relief in every case."

A. L. Wilson, Sparta, Ill.
Mr. Wilson was for a number of years cashier of the First National Bank of Sparta.

Dr. Miles' Nerve and Liver Pills are different from others. Many kinds of liver pills are "impossible" after one trial on account of their harshness. Dr. Miles' Nerve and Liver Pills do not act by sheer force but in an easy, natural way, without griping or undue irritation. They are not habit forming.

If the first bottle falls to benefit, your druggist will return the price. Ask him. MILES MEDICAL CO., Elkhart, Ind.
