DISASTER SUITS

Warants Served on Bayless Paper Mill Employes Charging Manslaughter

Coudersport, June 9.—Warrants have been served on F. N. Hamlin, superintendent of the Bayless Pulp and Paper mill at Austin, Pa., and M. C. Bailey, an employe of the Bayless Pulp and Paper company, charging them with wantonly and feloniuosly committing the crime of manslaughter on the persons of Martha Hess and Mary Theresa Mansuy.

Warrants were also issued against George C. Bayless, the president of the Bayless Pulp and Paper company; F. N. Hamlin, superintendent, and Michael C. Bailey. As Mr. Bayless was not in the state ser ice was had only on Mr. Hamlin and Mr. Bailey.

COMES FROM AUSTIN FLOOD

The alleged crime grows out of the giving way of the concrete dam of the Bayless Pulp and Paper company above Austin, Pa., on September 30, 1911, when about 80 lives were lost and the principal part of the borough of Austin was swept

Last fall warrants were also issued against Mr. Bayless, Mr. Hamlin and Mr. Bailey, charging them with killing other victims of the flood. True bills were found against Mr. Hamlin and Mr. Bayless but not a true bill against Mr. Bailey. A change of venue in that case was granted by the Supreme court and the cases removed to Tioga county.

HEARING HELD A hearing was held Friday afternoon at the town hall at Sylvania m., before Walter M. Fowler, jus-

Mr. Hamlin and Mr Bailey were present at the hearing.

Mr Lewis and Mr. Jones, attorneys for the defendants, argued that the court had no jurisdiction as the act of 1905 makes it unlawful for more than one charge to be made on information growing out of the same act, holding that this information is identical with the one made last fall except the difference in the victims.

WILL APPEAR MONDAY The justice, however, held Mr. Hamlin and Mr. Bailey to the grand jury and they will appear and give bail on Monday.

Mr. Seibert, attorney for the flood Sufferers' association, remarked at the hearing that cases would be brought to establish blame for every concrete dam at Austin on Septem-

N. P. A. OFFICERS FOUND GUILTY

Large Crowd Present to Hear the Verdict

"Guilty in the manner and form as indicated" was the verdict rendered Saturday morning by the jury which tried A. L. School, J. Harry Spencer and Dr. Frank L. Moyer on the charge of conspiracy to cheat and defraud the policy holders of the National Protective assocation. Eleven o'clock was the hour fixed by Judge Hall to receive the verdict and when that time came, N. M. Edwards, Esq., Hon. Max L. Mitchell and Receiver Don M. Larrabee, were at the Commonwealth's table and the defendants and their extension. William H and their attorneys, William H. Spencer and M. C. Rhone occupied the seats they had filled all week. DEFENDANTS LOOKED ANXIOUS

When the jury entered the court room was filled with people who desired to hear the verdict. The defendants wore an anxious look as the sealed document was opened by Judge Hall.

As soon as the verdict was received the formal motion for a new trial was made and June 22 was fixed as the date of argument.

After a long discussion the amount of bail for the defendants the was fixed at $5,000.

Late Saturday afternoon the matter was ajusted and James V. Bennett, Dr. A. W. Bennett and Jeremiah M. Cornwell went on the bond for Dr. Frank L. Moyer; Charles E. School and John F. Shnitz, of Sunbury for A. L. School, and Staimen brothers for J. Henry Spencer. These are the same bondsmen who were accepted for their
