

DEMOCRATS CONVENE AT BALTIMORE.

National Convention Held in the Armory Which is Gorgeously Decorated and Proclaimed by Delegates a Perfect Auditorium.

PLATFORM BUILDING FOLLOWS EFFECTING OF ORGANIZATION

The Armory, Democratic National Convention Hall, Baltimore.—The delegates to the Democratic National Convention lost no time in making it certain that the tariff is the keynote of the platform upon which the selected candidates must stand. This is evidenced by the draft of that document as made public.

Tariff.—Reaffirmation of the declaration that the tariff should be gradually reduced to revenue basis, along the lines of the Denver platform. Material reductions in the duties on the necessities of life, especially upon such articles competing with American manufacturers as are sold abroad more cheaply than at home, and gradual reductions in such other schedules as may be necessary to restore the tariff to a revenue basis.

Currency.—A declaration emphatically opposing the central bank provision of the so-called Aldrich National Monetary Commission scheme, but not opposing certain features of it.

Trusts.—Declaring that Congress should enact such supplementary or amendatory legislation as will make the so-called Sherman Anti-Trust laws more effective. Insistence upon the vigorous enforcement of the law upon the big and small offender alike.

Money Trust.—Indorsement of the action of the National House of Representatives in entering on a thorough investigation of the so-called money trust and in passing the Pujo bill to give greater visitatorial powers over national banks. Insistence upon the enactment of the Pujo bill at this session of Congress.

Direct Elections.—Indorsements of the action of Congress in passing a joint resolution providing for the direct election of United States Senators by the people.

Injunctions.—Indorsement of the anti-injunction bill passed by the House of Representatives.

Jury Trial.—Declaration for legislation to provide for jury trial in all cases where there is a direct contempt of court.

Many vice-presidential booms sprouted in the convention warmth. Most of the boosting was done by friends of the candidates, most of those mentioned either being too coy to speak of it, or else determined to land first place or none. The only open and avowed running mate was Mayor Preston of Baltimore, who is backed by the Maryland delegation and the people of Baltimore.

The booms that blossomed out included those of Gov. John Burke of North Dakota, Representative Francis Burton Harrison of New York, ex-Gov. W. L. Douglas of Massachusetts, ex-Gov. J. A. Montague of Virginia and Clark Howell of Atlanta, Ga.

The working plan of the convention follows:

Convention called to order by Chairman Norman E. Mack, of the National Committee.

Temporary chairman's keynote speech presented.

Members of the Resolutions and Credentials Committee appointed.

Committee on Credentials reports. Convention permanently organized.

Permanent chairman elected. Committee on Resolutions reports platform.

Nominations for President. Roll call by States for nominations.

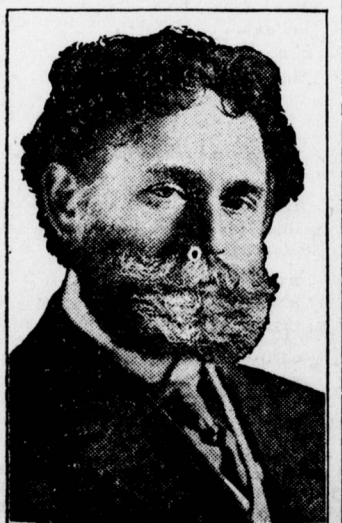

Nominating and seconding speeches. Balloting on presidential nominations until a nomination is reached.

Vice-presidential candidates nominated.

Clearing up of routine business. Adjournment.

When the National Committee assembled there were contests for eighty-two seats for its consideration. This was exclusive of the contention over the votes of the fourteen delegates from Ohio, under the application of the unit rule by the State Central Committee.

Some of the contests were more humorous than serious. In several of them to contesting delegations were all for the same candidate—Speaker Clark. In most of the contests the disturbance was over local leadership, which this year, is of more than ordinary concern to the assertive politician.

Men with all sorts of planks for the platform came here early lest they miss some opportunity to press their ideas. Manual Quezon, resident commissioner for the Philippines at Washington, came to confer with Chairman Mack and other Democrats in regard to the Philippine independence plank. The commissioner wanted the so-called Jones bill endorsed by the Convention. Henry W. Dooley, who was sure of membership in the Convention because he is on both delegations from Puerto Rico, campaigned for a Puerto Rico home rule plank.

The long expected Bryan boom for the nomination blared forth when H. H. Hughes of Missouri, former political lieutenant of the Nebraskan, arrived in Baltimore with the slogan "We want Bryan!" Although the managers of the other candidates had been looking for this for months past the sound of the Bryan slogan was productive of some hard thinking.

At Kansas City in 1900 and at Denver four years ago, would look after the interests of the Nebraskan.

The Committee on Rules and Organization, which had charge of the convention until organization was effected, is composed of the following: Wade, of Iowa; Howell, of Georgia; missioner; John P. McCoey, the Brooklyn leader; Patrick J. McCabe, clerk of the Senate; M. J. Hayes, formerly Sheriff of New York County; Excise Commissioner William W. Farley, Thomas Smith, secretary, and Philip Donohue, treasurer of Tammany Hall.

Mr. Bryan could have had the chairmanship himself, but sent word he did not wish it.

Judge Parker has been a regular Democrat, has supported Mr. Bryan every time he ran and has contributed to the Bryan campaign funds.

So many contests were filed that the National Committee decided to appoint sub-committees to listen to them.

Mrs. Charles J. Linthicum, wife of Representative Linthicum, of Maryland; Mrs. William G. Sharp, wife of Representative Sharp, of Ohio, and Mrs. Randolph Hopkins, of New York, representing the Women's National Democratic Association, called on Chairman Mack and told him the association, which is composed of more than one hundred women, wives and daughters of prominent democratic leaders, intended to take an active part in the campaign this year. They would, Mr. Mack's callers said, perform any service within reason which might assist the National Committee in its work.

No one man or set of men will be permitted to dominate the Democratic Convention, according to the emphatic assertion made by national leaders of the party. Nor will opportunity be given for any "stampede," but the delegates will keep their feet on the ground and will not be carried away by any pyrotechnical speech or performance. As Chairman Norman E. Mack put it.

Ed Moore and Lieut.-Gov. Nichols of Ohio, two managers of the Harmon boom, were in close confabulation with Taggart after the news of Bryan's move reached here, but neither would say what the object of the conference was.

The battleships Louisiana, Kansas, New Hampshire and South Carolina are at Baltimore to remain during the National Convention.

Those opposed to Parker said he is a conservative, and that, as this was a progressive campaign, a progressive man should be named.

Representing 500 votes and thirty-five States in the Baltimore convention, about fifty delegates met Speaker Clark at the Clark headquarters in Washington, and assured him of their loyal support.

Perry Belmont of New York and Congressman A. Mitchell Palmer have joined the convention visitors.

H. H. Hughes, of Missouri, who is a wealthy mine owner and friend of the Bryan family, said that Colonel Bryan had promised his wife that he would not seek the nomination.

An emergency hospital has been established in the convention hall and there will be a corps of forty or fifty physicians. The doctors have volunteered their services.

Just what part Bryan plans to take at the convention with respect to the selection of the standard-bearer and the building of the party platform has not been made known.

William F. McCombs of New York, campaign manager for Gov. Wilson, is in charge.

Clark Howell, of Georgia, has just been re-elected a member of the National Committee for the next four years.

Lieutenant Gov. Hugh L. Nicol of Ohio, directing head of the Harmon campaign, issued a statement declaring that should Harmon fail to get the nomination the latter would support the choice of the convention.

Salient features of the platform of the Democratic convention were outlined in an interview by Josephus Daniels, national committeeman. He said:

"Progressiveness will be the keynote, it matters not who is the nominee. Not an ultra-progressiveness, such as would up-bust business or precipitate any great economic disaster, but a good, constructive platform to keep abreast of the change in the nation's affairs.

"The platform will also include a plank providing for a tariff for revenue only. Under the present administration the Payne-Aldrich tariff law is a hardship upon both the consumer and the producer. The manufacturer and the big interests are the only gainers under its provisions. The Democratic party proposes to look out for the interests of the people at all stages."

Lieutenant Governor Nichols, of Ohio, is holding many conferences with the leaders in the interest of Judson Harmon. He is putting forth his best efforts to secure the nomination of his man for the Presidency.

Contests scheduled are from the Philippines, Porto Rico, Alaska and one district in Pennsylvania.

Thomas Taggart, who controls the Indiana delegation, is a warm personal friend of the Ohio governor.

Notice of a prospective contest was received by Secretary Urey Woodson from Congressman Henry T. Rainey, of the Twentieth Illinois District.

Speaker Clark will permit his friends to manage his campaign for nomination for him at the convention and will not come to Baltimore.

The prospects were considered bright for Mr. Underwood completing the ticket, although United States Senator O'Gorman of New York is also mentioned for the position.

There are growing indications that the Baltimore Convention is going to be a lengthy one.

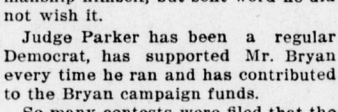

It was the talk that the feeling between the Wilson and Clark forces is more intense than between the other aspirants.

It is reported that if Gov. Wilson is nominated he will favor Josephus Daniels of North Carolina as Chairman, while if Champ Clark is nominated, the position will go to Senator William J. Stone of Missouri. It is also believed that a change will be made if Gov. Harmon is nominated.

The Harmon men here say that Gov. Harmon obtained all except fourteen of the Ohio delegates, and that only four of these are Wilson men. Eight of the remainder are Bryan followers, and the other two will vote in accordance with the wishes of John R. McLean.

Clark Howell, National Committeeman from Georgia, is the oldest member of the National Committee in point of service, having been in the committee for twenty years.

Robert S. Hudspeth of New Jersey and J. Taylor Ellison of Virginia were the latest members of the national committee to arrive.

Senator James A. Reed, of Missouri, selected to speak for Champ Clark before the National Democratic Convention.

HERE AND THERE IN THIS BUSY WORLD

Pope Plus for the first time in his life saw a moving picture show. The apparatus was set up in the Vatican.

The long drawn out negotiations between the United States, Great Britain, France, Germany, Russia and Japan, for making a loan of $300,000,000 to China, culminated in an agreement on the subject between the six powers.

The main body of the Mexican rebel army was reported at Ortiz, fifty-five miles south of Chihuahua and sixty-five miles distant from the federal base at Santa Rosalia; Orozco warned President Madero by proclamation that the elections now taking place for Senators and Deputies will not be recognized by the rebels.

A factory wall fell in St. Petersburg and 70 persons were killed.

During the session of the wreck commission in London Lord Mersey, the chairman, said he did not propose to make reflections on the conduct of Sir Cosmo and Lady Duff-Gordon.

The House Judiciary Committee voted to report articles of impeachment against Judge Robert W. Archbald, of the Commerce Court.
