PRETTY WIDOW HELD FOR MURDER

Mrs. Green Bears Up During Testimony. Then Returns to Jail

SHE PLEADED ABOUT POISON

Druggist Says She Begged Him Not to Tell She Had Bought Strychnine -Coroner Says Suspicion was Confirmed, Arrest Ordered.

Mauch Chunk .-- Mrs. Lillie Green, accused of poisoning and murdering her husband ,Allen Green, at Stemlersville, was given a hearing before 'Squire Joel H. Boyer, of Weissport, and committed to jail to await trial at the October term of the Carbon County Court. Mrs. Green was taken to the hearing at Weissport by County Detective Daniel Thomas, and throngs of people were vieing with each other to catch a glimpse of the frail, hand-some prisoner. The young widow bore up bravely, and never showed signs of breaking down. She was as unconcerned as if she had not been connected at all with the crime, and chatted with relatives at the hearing.

Coroner Saw It Was Poison.

After 'Squire Boyer had finished reading the charge against the frail prisoner, Attorney James M. Breslin, of East Mauch Chunk, counsel for Mrs. Green, pleaded not guilty. Then Coroner Edward G. Bray was called, and sworn as a witness. He stated that he was sent for by the dead man's brother. Robert Green, on June 5, to investigate the death of his bro ther, who had died suddenly; that he went the following day, and when he viewed the body, the distorted and drawn face and the rigid jaws gave him cause to believe that death due to poisoning. His belief, he says, was strengthened when the widow told him about the way the husband had suffered before he died, and he the symptoms was convinced that were those of strychnine poisoning. He then stated the case to District Attorney Seitzer, who ordered the arrest.

Druggist Tells of Her Plea.

Druggist H. F. Greisamer, of Weissport, testified at the hearing that on June 13 he sold one-eighth of an ounce of strychnine to Mrs. Green, who said she wanted it to kill crows, which were pulling out their corn in the The day after Green's death, field. Mrs. Green, accompanied by her moth-er, visited the drug store again and inquired whether any one had asked him if she bought strychnine from him, and said that if any one should ask him he should not say that she did Furl, of Harrisburg, was opeating his automobile recklessly, when it crashed against the side of a Reading transit car, which started to cross the Ridge turnpike at Eagleville, and in which collision Furl's companion, W. A. Reed, was killed. The testimony of the trolley crew, of passengers and of other eyewitnesses was to the effect that the auto was being run at a rate of 50 to 60 miles an hour and that Furl was at the wheel, and not Reed as Furl told Dr. Arnett afterward at the There was also testimony hospital. that Furl refused to tell his name, Reed's name and their addresses. Stockholm, Sweden .- For the sec ond time in the history of the Olympic games the Stars and Stripes from all three flag poles on which are hoisted the national emblems of the countries obtaining first, second, and third places in final events.

The previous occasion was at Ath-ens, when American athletes won all the points in the standing broad The event here in which the jump Americans made a clean sweep was the final of the 100-meter flat race, which produced astruggle worthy alike of the gailant men competing and of the traditions of the Attic games.

Barely a yard separated the first and fifth men at the finish, and none of the 20,000 present except the judges know who had won. But a moment later a mighty shout rose when the numbers were posted, show ing that Ralph Craig of Detroit was first, Meyer, the New Yorker, second, and Lippincott of Philadelpphia third Patching of South Africa was fourth, and Belote took fifth place.

By this time the American contingent had got their second wind, and the "rahs" that followed the hoisting of the flags high above the roof of the stadium were something not easily to be forgotten. There was a touch of sadness about the rejoicing for those who remembered that sitting in one of the dressing rooms was an Ameri-can youth who would have given his life almost to have run. This was H. P. Drew of Springfield, Mass., who performed so finely the day before, but in doing this unfortunately sprained his leg badly. Hoping against hope that he might be able to start, Drew donned his running togs and went out to the starting post, but had to be helped back.

Drew was a warm favorite in this event until he received his injury.

Scarcely had the cheering over the triple victory in the hundred meter race died away, when L. E. Meredith, the Pennsylvania schoolboy, started them again by winning his heat in the semi-finals of the 800 meters race. The German champion, Braun, was second, with Melvin Sheppard, the American star, third, and Putnam, the Cornell crack, fourth.

In the second heat Brock, the Canadian, obtained first place, closely fol-lowed by Edmundson of the Pacific Coast. Caldwell provided the surprise of the race, so far as Americans were concerned, by taking third place, while Ira Davenport of Chicago was fourth. Thus out of the eight men who qualified for the final, six are Americans. Besides these successes on the cinder path James Thorpe of the Car-lisle Indian School won the pentath-lon, with J. J. Donoghue of California third. This event is designed to show the all-around ability of athletes, and consists of the running broad jump, throwing the javelin, 200 meters run, throwing the discus, and 1,500 s run. Thorpe won first place except the javelin throw, in meters run. which he was third.

BRIEFS FOR THE BUSY THIS YEAR TO ELECT AUDITOR

Dauphin County Court Decides Term of Sisson Expires.

IS JUDGE KUNKEL'S OPINION

Test Case Brought by George E. Etter to Determine Effect of Constitutional Amendments Changing Term from Three to Four Years.

(Special Harrisburg Correspondence. Harrisburg.—In an opinion handed down here President Judge George Kunkel, of the Dauphin County Court, decided that the term of Auditor Gen eral A. S. Sisson will expire in May 1913, and that herefore it will be law ful to elect his successor in Novem-ber of this year. The test case was brought by George E. Etter, of this city, to determine the effect of the constitutional amendments of 1909 so far as they related to the selection of an Auditor General. These amendments charged the length of the term of the Auditor General from three to four years. The question raised was whether the intention of the electors was to apply the lengtheneed term to the Auditor General they were electing at the same time they were ap-proving the amendmnts. The court decides that here was no presumption that they so intended, but on the contrary, the fact that a three-year term for the Auditor General then elcted would bring about the election of his successor at a time in accord-ance with the provisions of the constitutional amendments providing for the election of State officers in even-numbered years, indicated that the voters intended the present term to be three years. The effect of the decision is to legalize the nominations of Senator A. W. Powell, of Allegheny, the Republican nominee for Auditor General, and Robert E. Creswell, of Johnstown, the nominee of the Demo cratic convention.

Townships Get Money.

Drawing of warrants for the dis-tribution of a quarter-million dollars among townships of Pennsylvania which abolished work tax and collected their road taxes in cash was begun at the State Highway Department, but such a large amount of clerical work is required that it will be weeks before the money is paid out to the hundreds of boards of supervisors which will receive it. Highway Com-missioner E. M. Bigelow has been fortified with an opinion from the Attor-ney General as to the payment that such townships as collect their taxes in cash and file reports are entitled to share in the distribution. The last Legislature made an appropriation of $500,000 for this object and half of it Is available. "There is no indication, says the opinion given by the Attor-ney General on the subject, "that the Legislature intended that townships which had collected their road taxe in cash during the year 1912 should In cash during the year 1512 should be deprived of their share of the bonus provided by the act of 1911." Each township will receive a bonus of 50 per cent. of the amount of cash road tax collected. The money is to be used for improvement of roads by the supervisors. In Allegheny, Montgomery, Chester, Delaware and some of the other counties which have taken advanced position in regard to road improvements practically every town-ship comes within the class obtaining the bonus.

Sixty-One Milk Suits.

Sixty-one suits for the sale of milk and cream below the new standard set for Pennsylvania by the act of 1911 were entered in this State during June by agents of the State Dairy and Food Division, extensive sampling of milk supplies having been undertaken when the weather began to get warm. The milk suits comprised almost half of the total number of pure food actions begun, the chief offend-ing counties being Allegheny, Beaver. Washin ton, Favette, Dela Schuylkill and Westmoreland. ware, The State agents also did some raiding of sellers of "soft" drinks which did not come up to the mark, sixteen such arrests being made in York Schuylkill, Delaware, Mercer and some others. One of the decoctions and which fell under the ban was labeled "Merry Widow highball." It had a commercial product as a sweetener Some strawberry "pop" was found ut-terly innocent of strawberry. Other odd things found by food agents were figs doctored with benzoate of soda, olive oil made of cottonseed oil, oranges preserved by chemicals and peas dosed with copper. The Dairy and Food Division receipts in June were $3,302.25, of which $1,300 came from milk suit fines. The income of the division since January 1 amounted 10 $106,490.98.
