Dainty Designs for Simple Dress and Long, Ample Coat

Cotton Dress.—This is a good style for cottons, such as gingham, zephyr and foulards, as it would be easy to wash. Green cotton foulard sprigged with a darker shade is chosen for it.

The skirt is made with a panel down front, with the sides lying over it in wrapped seams. The bodice has also the panel front and is trimmed with a collar and strappings of plain material; for the yoke and undersleeves muslin embroidery is used.

Materials required: 5½ yards cotton foulard 28 inches wide, ½ yard plain, ¾ yard embroidery 18 inches wide.

Coat for Day or Evening Wear.—This coat might well be used for day or evening wear, as it is a style that would lend itself to all occasions; our model is of natural colored Shantung and is high-waisted and plainly set to the bodice, which has slight fulness at waist. For the collar and cuffs striped black and white foulard is used.

Materials required: 5 yards Shantun 33 inches wide, 34 yard foulard

EASY TO MAKE SMART TIES ORNAMENT FOR THE TABLE

Fashionable Jabots May Be Designed From Black and White Ribbons of Satin.

Smart ties can be made from black and white satin ribbon four inches wide. A good looking jabot is made from a six-inch strip of three-inch rib-bon in soft satin ribobn, which check or dot. Round the bottom edge with inch silk fringe and across the top put a satin butterfly bow in the same shade. This bow may have double loops o neach side without ends, or can have two loops and two ends, the latter pointed and finished with a small tassel.

For quite young girls the model is prettily made of plaid ribbon, with black fringe and a black bow.

A stiff, rather formal, effect is had from a jabot of white satin two inches wide at the top and four and a half inches at the bottom, which is cut straight across at the end that reaches to the bust line. The upper part is drawn stiffly over two straight, stiff loops on each side without ends, or An inch and a half from the bottom put a two inch band of filet lace insertion, and above it three croches drawn the straight of the straight o buttons, one above the other. This jabot is especially attractive in vivid green satin, with ecru lace banding and small gilt buttons.

A double frill of black or emerald green satin ribobn is cut seven inches wide at the bottom, with the ends slanting sharply and five inches from the top. There are double strips, one eight inches long and the other six and one-half, and both are side-plaited A Perfectly Digested Breakfast Makes into one over the other one and one-half inch at the top. Cretonne Hats.

Little poke and country bonnets have had a great success when made in fine silky straws which have a droll incongruity with their simplicity. They trimmed with tiny flowers and broderie Anglaise. Some pretty hats of this variety are, however, made up in Valenciennes lace, while others, again, are covered with cretonne and flowered muslin. In short, there is flowered muslin. Few things are more depressing than fading flowers. A handfu! of wild carrot leaves, freshly gathered, is infinitely better than a florist's elaborate creation which has seen better days

There is a passing fad for flowers arranged after the crowded posy fashion in which we have been trimming our hats and gowns, but the woman who really loves flowers will give them more room and a more natural setting, and content herself with time tried combinations, such as purple pansies with forget-me-nots, pink roses or phlox with delicate lavender tones of sweet peas, green ferns with a few white floowers, or the reddishbrown marigolds and pale yellow pop-

CURED OF DANDRUFF

$28 West 59th St., New York City. "For more than ten years I have been troubled with a very obstinate case of dandruff and an itching scalp. In my determined effort to rid myself of these troubles, I stopped at no expense and spent, I am sure, close on to three hundred dollars, with no lasting results. Every advertised patent remedy for dandruff, I believe I have tried out. On a visit to my barber's one day last spring I saw him sham-poo a customer with a prepared liquid shampoo, but later shampooed his own hair, using only a cake of Cuticura Soap. I took a tip from this.

"I began the use of Cuticura Soap as a shampoo, using it twice a week and I also began the use of Cuticura Ointment to see what effect it would have on thickening my hair which had badly fallen out. After the second week's use I noticed that the itching had stopped and the dandruff combed from my hair was very scarce. Being so surprised I continued the treatment surprised I continued the treatment and my head, which was almost a shining dome, is now covered with a suit of thick shining hair, a marvel wrought by the wonderful Cuticura Soap and Ointment. The dandruff also is entirely gone. Tuanks and thanks again for Cuticura." (Signed) Charles W. Noble, Oct. 31, 1911.

Save the Babies.

NFANT MORTALITY is something frightful. We can hardly realize that of all the children born in civilized countries, twentytwo per cent., or nearly one-quarter, die before they reach one year; thirtyseven per cent., or more than one-third, before they are five, and one-half before they are fifteen!

We do not hesitate to say that a timely use of Castoria would save a majority of these precious lives. Neither do we hesitate to say that many of these infantile deaths are occasioned by the use of narcotic preparations. Drops, tinctures and soothing syrups sold for children's complaints contain more or less opium, or morphine. They are, in considerable quantities, deadly poisons. In any quantity they stupefy, retard circulation and lead to congestions, sickness, death. Castoria operates exactly the reverse, but you must see that it bears the signature of Chas. H. Fletcher. Cartoria causes the blood to circulate properly, opens the pores of the skin and allays fever.

Letters from Prominent Physicians addressed to Chas. H. Fletcher.

Dr. A. F. Peeler, of St. Louis, Mo., says: "I have prescribed your Castoria In many cases and have always found it an efficient and speedy remedy."
Dr. Frederick D. Rogers, of Chicago, Ill., says: I have found Fletcher's Castoria very useful in the treatment of children's complaints. Dr. William C. Bloomer, of Cleveland, Ohio, says: In my practice I am glad to recommend your Castoria, knowing it is perfectly harmless and always satisfactory. Dr. E. Down, of Philadelphia, Pa., says: "I have prescribed your Castoria in my practice for many years with great satisfaction to myself and benefit to my patients." Dr. Edward Parrish, of Brooklyn, N. Y., says: "I have used your Castoria in my own household with good results, and have advised several patients to use it for its mild laxative effect and freedom from harm." -Dr. J. B. Elliott, of New York City, says: "Having during the past six years prescribed your Castoria for infantile stomach disorders, I most heartily commend its use. The formula contains nothing deleterious to the most delicate of children." Dr. C. G. Sprague, of Omaha, Neb., says: "Your Castoria is an ideal medicine for children, and I frequently prescribe it. While I do not advocate the indiscriminate use of proprietary medicines, yet Castoria is an exception for conditions which arise in the care of children. Dr. J. A. Parker, of Kansas City, Mo., says: "Your Castoria holds the esteem of the medical profession in a manner held by no other proprie tary preparation. It is a sure and reliable medicine for infants and children. In fact, it is the universal household remedy for infantile ailments."

Dr. H. F. Merrill, of Augusta, Me., says: "Castoria is one of the very finest and most remarkable remedies for infants and children. In my opinion your Castoria has saved thousands from an early grave. I can furnish hundreds of testimonials from this locality as to its efficiency and merits."
