REPUBLICAN NEWS-ITEM

Published by C. S. DAUBERMAN, Lessee

LAPORTE PA.

How fashion doth make fools of us

There is no proper season for plant

Pumpkin pie begins to draw upon

What effect would synthetic rubber have on the chewing gum industry?

If the women reformed their clothes the modistes would lose a lot of money.

Boys were playing Indians and bandits long before the advent of the Nicaragua is no longer than an American state, but it is fuller of bananas.

New Jersey holds the chivalry championship. There women are girls until they are forty.

No man can tell how a marriage will turn out, but any woman canand usually does. If the Astor baby had his way he probably would trade his $3,000,000 for an all-day sucker. There are four dozen wild buffalo in Yellowstone park. We suppose the tourists make them wild.

Every woman hates to see her little son go to school or her daughter married for the first time.

Red apples may produce red cheeks, as a fruit grower says, but green apples make a little boy blue.

crop, but thus far no shortage in the turkey crop has been reported. Explorers in New Mexico recently

There is a shortage in the cranberry have found a prehistoric flat, but even the janitor had become extinct. That electricity can cure hunger has been demonstrated by many a man who has mingled with a live wire. Once upon a time a man thought he knew a mushroom from a toad-stool. A large family survived him.

Eating lunch every day in ten minutes is another form of speed mania that is responsible for many deaths. That St. Paul woman who wrote a novel with her toes certainly handled the subject with a good understand-

Some men are born liars, some have to lie for a living, and some lie because their wives are too inquis-

When there are so many great men and women in the country it makes us few common people feel awfully lonely.

Some women pay more attention to their dogs than they do to their husbands, but then maybe the dogs growl less.

A woman in Washington was mar ried eleven years and never told it. This shatters another long-cherished tradition.

Another defective golf ball has broken into print by exploding, but s a rule it is the defective golfer who as explosive.

Food supplies are to go through the mails, and the cancellation of stamps on packages of eggs should be cunducted gently.

The trouble will not be over until we find out whether the American or the National league champions are the better ball players.

Scientists claim they have discovered the germ of measles by experiments on apes. But measles is not a thing to monkey with.

A Pennsylvania man died at a bail game while rooting for the winning team. From a "fan's" view he died at the summit of earthly bliss.

The New York commissioner of police had his pocket picked. Under present conditions in that city this seems like adding insult to injury.

The picture of a juggernaut on a Joy ride is indeed one to cause a temsuspension of pedestrianism on the highways and byways of the land.

A New York man recently died of old age at 26. He was probably one of those who sang: "Better twenty years of Broadway than a cycle of New Jersey."

The new $100 bill is said to bear Alexander Hamilton's portrait, but we fear we shall have to take somebody's

Kaiser Wilhelm is afflicted with umatism, which hurts quite as dly in German, we are informed, as does in English.

A Pennsylvania woman suing for divorce charged that she has had but two new dresses in twelve years. No

SULZER NAMED FOR GOVERNOR

Nominated on Fourth Ballot by Democrats at Syracuse

GLYNN IN SECOND PLACE

New York Delegates Were Told to Ex press Their Own Free Will-Kings Was Loval to Metz-Delegates Divided at the First Roll Call.

Convention Hall, Syracuse.—Congressman William Sulzer of New York City was nominated for Gover-nor on the fourth ballot by the Demo-cratic State Convention. The name of Gov. Dix was withdrawn on this ballot and there was a rush to the Sulzer standard. Sulzer had led after the first ballot, when Dix showed his greatest strength with 147 votes.

Martin H. Glynn of Albany was nominated for Lieutenant-Governor on the first ballot.

The first ballot resulted as follows: Dix, 147; Sulzer, 126; Metz, 70; Glynn, 46; Burd, 28; Harrison, 21;

On the second ballot Dix lost 23 and Sulzer gained 15; Senator O'Gorman got 1 vote; Metz lost 2; Harrison gained 6; Burd's vote remained the same; Glynn lost 3.

The break to Sulzer began on the third ballot. Erie gave him 8, Jefferson 6, Onondaga 9, Franklin 3, Monroe 3, New York 9, Orleans 3, Oswego 3, Otsego 3, Wayne 3, Westchester 4.

WILLIAM SULZER. Congressman From New York.

The name of W. B. Ellison was in jected into the contest, New York giving him one vote, Murphy did not vote on this ballot.

The result of the third ballot was as follows: Sulzer, 195; Dix, 87, Harrison, 91; Glynn, 21; Burd, 9; Metz, 70; Dowling, 4; Wagner, 3; Sohmer, 1; Gerard, 1; Ellison, 1; O'Gorman, 1; George W. Batten, 1.

At the end of the third ballot the name of Gov. Dix was withdrawn by Judge Kellogg.

Before the fourth roll was half completed it was evident that Sulzer was the victor. Then Herman A. Metz of Kings withdrew his name, and Senator Robert F. Wagner cast the solid vote of New York County (105 votes) for Sulzer, making his nomination contains tion certain, amid the greatest applause. There was a roar of approval.

Chairman Parker wielded his gavel until order was restored, explaining:
"The statute, it seems, makes it necessary that the roll be called."

This was done, county after county casting solid blocks of delegates for the New York Congressman.

At 1.06 a. m. Chairman Parker announced the result of the fourth ballot, saying Sulzer received all the votes but the t from Cayuga.

which were cast for Martin H. Glynn. Chairman Parker then announced that Mr. Sulzer was the nominee of the convention for Governor.

At 130 o'clock a m nominations for other offices were called for. Wil-liam Cook of Albany named Martin H. Glynn for Lieutenant-Covernor Burton seconded the nomination. New York, Monroe and a dozen other counties followed suit. Mr. Glynn was named by acclamation.

The platform adopted by the Democratic State convention not only delares that the administration of Gov. Dix has been efficient, clean and economical but that all the progres-sive principles of the Rochester plat-form on which Gov. Dix was elected have been redeemed.

The platform offers to submit woman suffrage to a vote, favors direct election of United States Senators, single and State wide system of direct primaries simpler election laws

Sulzer Active in Politics

Congressman William Sulzer, Representative of the Tenth District, was born in Elizabeth, N. J., on March 18, 1863. He was admitted to the bar 18, 1805. He was admitted to the war in New York City in 1884. He was elected to the New York Legislature in 1890 and served through the year "GOOD-BY, I'LL SOON FOLLOW"

LAWRENCE MOB WAR IN BALKAN

Patrolmen and Mill Workers Bulgaria. Servia and Greece Battle Fiercely With Knives

Mill Hands Fight at First Sign of Interference and After Driving Police Back Are Forced to Disperse.

Lawrence, Mass.—Savage rioting paved the way for the general strike of textile workers ordered as a pro-test against the continued imprisonment of Ettor and Giovannitti, the labor leaders accused of murder.

The police paraders bught with clubs and knives prior to a demonstra-tion by Industrial Workers of the World. Two policemen were wounded and a number of paraders were clubbed. An I. I W. leader was captured after a hard fight and then was freed. Only two arrests were made. One shot was fired.

Before the night was over twenty state police had arrived in charge of Deputy Neil of Boston.

Carlo Tresca, of Pittsburgh, Pa., an editor, who is an organizer of the Industrial Workers of the World, was in custody, but gained his freedom minute or two later. Persons who saw Tresca's arrest said he was res-cued by his comrades. Tresca, with a smile, said that the police let him go.

The clash between the mill workers and the police was unexpected. More than 20,000 operatives had gone to the railroad station to we come 700 members of the I. W. W., who had come on a special train from Boston to participate in a parade to the graves of Anna Lopizzo and John Ramy, who were killed during the strike riots last

After the visitors had detrained an impromptu parade was started down Common street. The marchers turned into Hampshire street, and then into Essex street, the main business thor-oughfare of the city.

A squad of twenty-five policemen was sent to Essex and Lawrence streets, where they drew up in a line across Essex street and awaited the

For a moment or two all was peaceful at the head of the line. Then six little girls who were among the-marchers became terrified at the sight of They broke through line of bluecoats and ran away, crying. Suddenly the marchers in the rear pressed forward and the mill workers tried to pass the police.

The paraders struck right and left at the police, who responded by swing-ing their clubs in all directions. Many of the paraders were knocked bleeding

In some instances the rioters robbed the patrolmen of their clubs and began to beat the police. The latter were forced to retreat into Lawrence street. After they had driven twentyfive policemen into Lawrence street the rioters lost their courage and were dispersed.

DANIELS'S SONS ILL OF TYPHOID.

Wilson's Publicity Chief Called to Home in North Carolina.

Raleigh, N. C.—Josephus Daniels, head of the Wilson publicity bureau, and editor of the News and Observer. has been forced to return to North Carolina by typhoid fever.

His sons, Worth and Frank, have been ill and make doubtful the return of Daniels to New York during the campaign. Mr. Daniels is national committeemax.

FIGHTS POLICE STATES IMMINENT

Now Threaten Turkey

BLUECOATS DRIVEN BACK MOBILIZING THEIR FORCES

Peace Has Not Yet Been Broken and Hope is Expressed in the Official Quarters That War Will Not Be Outcome of Tangle.

Belgrade, Servia.—War prepara-tions are being carried on with fever-ish haste. General mobilization of the Servian army has been ordered and, it is expected, will be well under way in twenty-four hours. The publication of news of military movements is forbidden.

According to newspaper reports, the Servian Minister to Turkey, Dr. Nena dovitch, has left Constantinople for Belgrade.

Belgrade is seething with excite ment. The streets are full of uni-formed reservists, and the railway stations are crowded with men on their way to join the colors. The mobilization of the Bulgarian army simultaneously with that of Servia has added enthusiasm to the occa-

Athens.—The Greek government, in agreement with other Balkan states, ordered the mobilization of her forces for this step is apprehension on the part of the Balkan states that the mobilization of the Turkish army and the disquieting internal condition of Turkey might induce the Porte to seek a way out of the difficulties in Alexandria, Egypt.—The officers of the Greek army reserve here have re-ceived telegraphic orders to join the colors immediately. A Constantinople dispatch says that all Greek vessels here have received orders to leave Furkish waters.

Constantinople.-The Servian minister handed a notice to the Porte and the manner of its presentation and the nature of its text practically amount to an ultimatum from the urned to the manufacturers in France.

London.-The situation in the Balkans has assumed a most menacing aspect, and in diplomatic quarters in London it is regarded as extremely AUNT DELIA" IS 88.

President Sends Gifts to Relative on Her Birthday.

Millbury, Mass.—Miss Delia C. Tor-rey, known as President Taft's "Aunt Delia," observed her birthday here. She is eighty-eight years old.

Friends called at the Torrey mansion, on Elm street, and Miss Torrey received many remembrances, includ-ing one from "Will." Only a little while ago Aunt Delia entertained the President on his birthday.

NOW IT IS THE STINGLESS BEE.

English Apiarist Has Produced New

Hybrid Honey Gatherer.
London.—The stingles bee is the next product of a man's ingenuity. Mr. Burrows, an apiarist of Lough-ton in Essex, after two years of ex-periments, has obtained a species of e which can be handled by a child in perfect safety.

He mated the Cyprian drones and the Italian queens, the result being the production of harmless insects which, however, are splendid workers.

EXPLOSION KILLS 3 ON DESTROYER

Lieut. Morrison and Two Machinists Victims on the Walke

STEAM CHEST BLOWS OUT

Men Go Down in Steam Filled Engine Room to Bring Up Injured-Dead Officer Had Just Been Officially Commended for Bravery.

Newport, R. I.—The explosion of the Newport, R. I.—The explosion of the forward end of the port turbine, together with the steam chest, on the torpedo-boat destroyer Walke off Brenton's Reef Lightship instantly killed Lieut. Donald P. Morrison, the chief engineer officer, and wounded eight others, two of whom, J. W. Rumpf and H. L. Wilder, both machinists' mates of the first class, died on board the hospital ship Solace.

T. B. Crawford, gunner's mate of the destroyer Patterson, one of the umpires named to watch the speed tests of the Walke, and John Delaney, a first-class fireman of the Walke were fatally injured.

By a coincidence, Admiral Andrews, Acting Secretary of the Navy, had forwarded to Lieut. Morrison a letter commending him for bravery in sav-ing the life of a seaman Sept. 22 last The missive was received after the officer's death.

Others injured are: Lieut. Robert L. Montgomery of the destroyer Fan ning, and umpire of the speed tests; D. S. Kelly, chief machinist's mate; W. E. Kraus, oiler; F. B. Conway, oil-

The accident, the only one of its kind on record, occurred as the Walke was starting on her second naval officers have been unable to fix the cause. At the moment of the ex-plosion the umpires named to watch the test and fully a dozen men were in the vicinity and that any escaped with their lives is considered remark-

The discipline of the crew is said to have been perfect and their con duct in leaping down into the steam filled engine room to carry out their wounded comrades brought the highest praise from their superiors.

Lieut. Charles R. Train, the commanding officer, who was on the brdge at the time of the explosion, handled the situation in a way to gain him per-sonal commendation from Rear-Ad-miral Hugo Osterhaus, commander of the Atlantic fleet, who boarded the destroyer later.

TWO JERSEY CONVENTIONS.

Republicans and Democrats Meet at Trenton Simultaneously.

Trenton, N. J.-Republican and Democratic state conventions at which Presidential electors were nominated and state platforms adopted were held in Trenton the same afternoon without creating even a stir of excitement in the political atmos-

Representatives of the woman suffrage movement appeared at both conventions and asked for recognition. The Republicans inserted a plank in ther platform declaring for woman suffrage. The Democrate woman surrage. The Democrate omitted such a plank on the ground that the calling of a constitutional convention, which their platform advocated, would sufficiently cover the situation.

The Hudson delegation in the Republican convention refused to subscribe to the planks indorsing Presivote stood 54 to 9 in favor of the Taft proposition.

Governor Wilson told the delegates at the Democratic convention that the Serb country. Servia asks Turkey to decide within forty-eight hours whether to allow the detained war ing against monopolies. He urged whether to allow the detained war ing against monopolies. He urged munitions to go to Servia or to be rethat this be made the theme of campaigners from now on.

The Democratic platform pledges the party to retain the fundamental principle of the Geran law, favors investigation of the method of incor-poration pursued in this state and advocates the enactment of laws that will "effectually tend to prevent monopolies.

The Republican platform favors the adoption of the proposed amendment to the federal constitution for popu-lar election of United States Senators and advocates submitting to the peo-ple constitutional amendments providing for woman suffrage and bien-

Senator Walter E. Edge of Atlantic City was chairman of the Republican convention and Senator James. Fielder of Jersey City presided at the Democratic convention

NO TREASURY AID FOR CROPS.

MacVeagh Decides It Is Unnecessary to Help Banks at Pesent.

Washington.—It was annot announced that the treasury would not make any increased deposits of funds in the banks this fall to facilitate the movement of crops. This statement was made by Assistant Secretary of the Treasury Bailey, who had conferred with Secretary MacVeagh. Mr. Bailey said that there was nothing to indicate necessity for such

INDIANS ENTER CIVIL SERVICE

Carlisle Graduates Do Good Work For fed Me 's Uplift

48 MEN RECEIVED POSITIONS

Of 5,000 Employes Engaged in the Business Affairs of Red Men 291 Are Pupils from the Government School.

Carlisle.-Gratified with the success of the work of Indians themselves for Indian uplift, which movement had its inception in Carlisle, M. Friedman, superintendent of the Indian school here, announces that 48 graduates and returned students have either rereturned students are either re-ceived positions or promotions in the Government Indian service during the last three months. Of the 5,000 em-ployes now handling the Indians' busi-ness, 291 are Carlisle graduates. "All ness. 291 are Carlisle graduates. "All who have investigated," declares the superintendent, "are absolutely convinced that the Indian problem will never be solved until more red men get into the Indian service. It used to be held that the Indian was not the equal of the white man, and despite the fact that the Indian passed the civil service, he was placed in lower positions than the white man, and few trusted places were given to him. But trusted places were given to him. But there has been a change. And to-day some of the most efficient men in the service came from Carlisle. Of the 291 in the service from this place their positions range from forest guards and interpreters to stenographers, chiefs of police and teachers.

Poultry Show Awards.

Carlisle.—The poultry show of the Carlisle fair was one of the most successful in the history of the organiza-tion. The entries numbered about 1,200. The special awards are: Best 1,200. The special awards are: Hest display in all varieties, $10, William G. Minnich, Carlisle, who had 88 birds at the show; second, $5, George Guignet, Carlisle, having 55 varieties; best display of one variety, $5, Mr. Guignet; second, $2.50, Harry Wetzel, Carlisle. Best bird, $5, Mr. Guignet; best part of the conferent pulse; any one cock, hen, cockerel, pullet, any one variety, $5, Mr. Guignet; best breeding hen, $2.50, W. G. Minnich, Carlisle; second, $2.50, Cumberland Valley Poultry Farm of Plainfield. Best pair of turkeys, $2.50, Harry Wagner, May Apple Wood Farm; geese, $2.50, George Eppley, South Middleton; ducks, $2.50, Mr. Eppley; pigeons, $2.50, Paul Eppley, of Carlisle.

Pure Soft Drinks.

Pittsburgh.-State Food and Dairy Commissioner James Foust arrived here to confer with his aides, and, after a consultation, announced that war would be started on the manufacturers of impure soft drinks. In the next legislature a stringent bill will be presented providing that no flavor but that of natural fruit will be al-lowed, and it must be the natural fruit designated on the label describing the drink. "I have reports which show that some 'strawberry' flavors are be that some 'strawberry' flavors are being sold in which there is not a trace of strawberry," said Commissioner Foust. The new act would eliminate all artificial flavors. Soap bark, which is used to make drinks foam, and all coal tar dyes will be barred entirely.

Raise Hardware Men's Pay. Reading.-The Reading Hardware Works has rearranged the wage scale, beginning October 1. All molds pay-ing less than 3 cents will be advanced 45 per cent. and all molds paying 3 cents and over will be advanced 35 per cent. Day molders will be paid $3 per day for nine hours instead of per day for nine hours instead of $2.75. All piecework jobs will be retimed so that the minimum wages will be $3 per day of nine hours.

Steel Company Not in Politics.

Johnstown. — Announcement was logle of the Cambria Steel Company that the corporation would hold a strictly impartial attitude during the strictly impartial attitude during the present political battle. The company employs between 15,000 and 20,000 men. Local leaders of all three parties profess pleasure at the Cambria's emphatic declaration.

$4,000,000 Mortgage Filed.

Williamsport.—The Northern Cen-tral Gas Company, into which the Williamsport and Milton Gas comwilliamsport and Minton Gas companies were recently merged, filed a mortgage to secure a $4,000,000 issue of 50-year 5 per cent. gold bonds. The real estate covered by the mortgage is located in this city and Milton. Bankers' Trust Company of New York is trustee.

Convicts Resentenced

Sunbury.—Judge Herbert Cummings dealt summarily in the case of Isaac Patrick, who had just been released on parole after serving a long sentence for robbery, and, going to Mount Car-mel, he immediately tried to assault a crippled girl. The judge sentenced him to seven years in Eastern Penitentiary. Clarence Peters, a Federal prisoner, whose sentence for sending blackmailing letters through the mails expired, was sentenced to two years nore in the Eastern Penitentiary for telping John Yarish.