Kitty (blushing)—I am angry with Horace, and I only gave you that kiss through revenge.

Harry (laughing)—It reminded me of revenge.

Kitty—In what way?

Harry—Well, you know, "revenge is sweet."

Neglect and Cruelty.

"So you want a divorce?" said the lawyer.

"Yes," replied the woman with tear-stained cheeks. "He has been guilty of neglect and cruelty."

"In what respects?"

"He neglected to feed the bird while I was away and says the cruelest things he can think of about Fido."

Not New.

First Neighbor—Have you heard tell of them new-fangled trial marriages?

Second Neighbor—I don't see nothing new-fangled about 'em. Mine's been a trial for me for the last twenty years.—Judge.

"GOOD STUFF."

A Confirmed Coffee Drinker Takes to Postum.

A housewife was recently surprised when cook served Postum instead of coffee. She says:

"For the last five or six years I have been troubled with nervousness, indigestion and heart trouble. I couldn't get any benefit from the doctor's medicine so finally he ordered me to stop drinking coffee, which I did."

"I drank hot water while taking the doctor's medicine, with some improvement, then went back to coffee with the same old trouble as before."

"A new servant girl told me about Postum—said her folks used it and liked it in place of coffee. We got a package but I told her I did not believe my husband would like it, as he was a great coffee drinker."

"To my surprise he called for a third cup, said it was 'good stuff' and wanted to know what it was. We have used Postum ever since and both feel better than we have in years."

"My husband used to have bad spells with his stomach and would be sick three or four days, during which time he could not eat or drink anything. But since he gave up coffee and took to Postum, he has had no more trouble, and we now fully believe it was all caused by coffee."

"I have not had any return of my former troubles since drinking Postum, and feel better and can do more work than in the last ten years. We tell everyone about it—some say they tried it and did not like it. I tell them it makes all the difference as to how it's made. It should be made according to directions—then it is delicious."

Name given by Postum Co., Battle Creek, Mich. Read the book, "The Road to Wellville," in plgs. "There's a reason."

Ever read the above letter? A new one appears from time to time. They are genuine, true, and full of human interest. Adv.

Moistening the man's tongue with his own saliva suggests that the source of healing is to be in Jesus' own person. Our salvation is not in the words he spoke, nor the life he lived, but the life he gave (Heb. 9:12-14).

Fellowship With God.

Jesus also looked to heaven, indicating that we must continue in fellowship with God, and also indicating his own fellowship with the father. Jesus sighed over the wreck of sin. The son of man came to bear our sorrows and to share our griefs. (Isa. 53:9). Attention has been called to the sighs and the tears of Jesus. If our prayers were more accompanied by tears and heartfelt sighs they would be more powerful. (cf. Romans 8:26). It is equally true that if our sighing were accompanied by more prayers we would accomplish more in his kingdom.

After these preliminary and suggestive acts Jesus spoke the one word "Ephphatha"—Be opened—and deaf ears were opened to words of praise and counsel and to the cry of distress. Loosed was the man's tongue to speak his word of personal testimony and to witness for his healer. Read Isaiah 32:14 and 35:4, 5.

II. JESUS THE PROVIDER (vv. 1-10, cf. Matt. 15:32-38).

The tremendous stir Jesus caused is graphically suggested by Mark in verse one of this section. From far and near they had gathered and now at the end of the third day their small supply of food is exhausted. We are told by John (6:26, 27) why they had followed him, still they were deeply interested in him and considered him to be a prophet (John 6:14). Nevertheless Jesus was moved with a compassion then, even as now he is moved when he beholds us in our unworthiness.

No Hunger Too Great.

The compassion of Jesus is a very active principle, it does not consist of sighs and lamentations, or of investigations and condemnation of conditions. His compassion causes him to act. But the disciples are aghast at his suggestion that he feed this multitude of "about four thousand."

"Whence shall one be able to fill these men with bread?" (R. V.). On the other occasion Jesus had asked Philip, who lived in the nearby town of Bethsaida, where they might find bread; but now they are in a desert place. It may seem strange for the disciples to ask such a question. He had fed a larger number with smaller resources.

After taking stock (v. 5) Jesus commands the people to sit down. He received their seven loaves (v. 6) and brake and gave, first to the disciples, and through them to the people. Such as they had, first given to him, responding to his touch, was enough and to spare (v. 8). When we give him our all he will bless, multiply and use.

Our Golden Text (v. 37) is suggestive of a wide application in teaching this lesson. We have in this lesson two incidents as illustrations. In both we can see those principles that govern his life and ministry, viz., unvarying loyalty to God and unwearied compassion for poor, weak humanity. As has already been suggested, we also see that the methods of Jesus varied, according to the individual need and always with the unwavering purpose of glorifying God. The same lesson of careful conservation of what remained is taught as in the case of the feeding of the five thousand.

COMPANY DISHES.

A pretty way of serving a salad and cheese course and one not common is this:

Slice nice red tomatoes in even slices, then place on each a thin slice of American cheese, spread with mayonnaise, and cover with another slice of tomato. Add a heaping spoonful of mayonnaise and place half a stuffed olive on this as a garnish. Serve with lettuce and water crackers.

Pineapple Dessert.

—Put a layer of buttered bread crumbs in a baking dish, then cover with a layer of finely cut pineapple; add sugar to taste, cover with crumbs and repeat until the dish is full, having the crumbs on top. Bake until well heated through. Serve with or without cream. Bits of butter added to the dish improves it.

Clam Cocktail.

—Mix together a tablespoonful each of vinegar, Worcestershire sauce, and fresh grated horseradish, two teaspoonfuls of lemon juice, half a teaspoonful of salt, a few drops of tabasco and two tablespoonfuls of tomato catsup. Chill this sauce until very cold, then add a dozen clams and serve in glasses.

Tea Frope.

—Boil together two cups of water and a cup of sugar for five minutes. Add a pint of fresh, fairly strong tea that has been cooled, the grated rind and juice of three oranges, the juice of two lemons and a can of grated pineapple. Freeze to a mush, garnish with lemon slices and crushed mint.

A cupful of peach pulp put through a sieve and added to a small freezer of ice cream makes an elegant company dessert.

A FEW LEFT-OVERS.

When you have a few slices of roast mutton, prepare it in the following manner: Chop a small onion and fry in a saucpan with a tablespoonful of butter, then add a tablespoonful of flour and brown. Mix a tablespoonful of Worcestershire sauce, a tablespoonful of vinegar, half a teaspoonful of pepper and salt, a tablespoonful of currant jelly and a cup of water. When the onion and flour is cooked, pour in the above mixture and just simmer with the slices of mutton twenty minutes. Do not boil.

Shepherd's Pie.

—Put a layer of minced roast beef in a baking dish after placing a layer of seasoned mashed potatoes at the bottom. Moisten the meat with gravy, season to taste and finish with a layer of mashed potatoes. This dish requires much rich gravy.

Beef Balls.

—Season a cup of cold chopped beef with salt, pepper, celery salt, onion juice and lemon juice, add one beaten egg and form into balls. Roll the balls in a very little butter and toss in a hot frying pan until hot. Serve with horseradish sauce.

Horseradish Sauce.

—Season two tablespoonfuls of grated horseradish with a quarter of a teaspoonful of salt and a quarter of a teaspoonful of sugar. Whip a quarter of a cup of cream and add to the horseradish. If one has no cream, use an equal quantity of horseradish and bread crumbs made moist with milk. Season with vinegar and pepper and salt. If the mass is put through a sieve it will be smooth and creamy in consistency.

Corned beef hash is greatly improved by the addition of a chopped green pepper.

Celery is a nerve tonic which contains sulphur and helps ward off rheumatism.

Nellie Maxwell.

Protecting the Poodle.

"Do you believe that kisses transmit microbes?"

"I don't know, but I'll take no chances. Marie, don't let anybody kiss Fido."

Social Amenities.

"Husband, I feel that we ought to give the people next door a dinner or something."

"Why so? They have never done anything for us in a social way."

"Yes they have. I learn that they fed our cat while we were away."

A Suggestion.

"My prospects at present are very bald."

"Then why not get into sympathetic communication with old Jagg? He is looking for some help."

BACKACHE NOT A DISEASE

But a Symptom, a Danger Signal Which Every Woman Should Heed.

Backache is a symptom of organic weakness or derangement. If you have backache don't neglect it. To get permanent relief you must reach the root of the trouble. Read about Mrs. Woodall's experience.

Morton's Gap, Kentucky.—"I suffered two years with female disorders, my health was very bad and I had a continual backache which was simply awful. I could not stand on my feet long enough to cook a meal's victuals without my back nearly killing me, and I would have such dragging sensations I could hardly bear it. I had soreness in each side, could not stand tight clothing, and was irregular. I was completely run down. On advice I took Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and am enjoying good health. It is now more than two years and I have not had an ache or pain since. I do all my own work, washing and everything, and never have backache any more. I think your medicine is grand and I praise it to all my neighbors. If you think my testimony will help others you may publish it."—Mrs. OLLIE WOODALL, Morton's Gap, Kentucky.

If you have the slightest doubt that Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound will help you, write to Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co. (confidential) Lynn, Mass., for advice. Your letter will be opened, read and answered by a woman, and held in strict confidence.

SAW NO CAUSE FOR WORRY

Small Boy Pretty Well Satisfied That the Future Was Not Likely to Be a Hard One.

The Cleveland Plain Dealer says: A Lakewood woman was recently reading to her little boy the story of a young lad whose father was taken ill and died, after which he set himself diligently to work to support himself and mother. When she had finished the story she said:

"Dear Billy, if your papa were to die would you work to support your dear mamma?"

"Naw!" said Billy, unexpectedly.

"But why not?"

"Ain't we got a good house to live in?"

"Yes, dearie—but we can't eat the house, you know."

"Ain't there a lot o' stuff in the pantry?"

"Yes, but that won't last forever."

"It'll last till you git another husband, won't it? You're a pretty good looker, ma!"

Mamma gave up right there.

A HOT ONE.

He—My future was in your hands, and you've decided. Now that you have refused me, I'm going to the devil.

Explains the Undertaker's Grouch.

"Who is that fellow sitting humped up and muttering to himself out there on the horse block?"

"Aw, that's Ezra Toombs, the undertaker," replied the landlord of the Skeedee tavern. "He's feeling sore over the way his business has been going of late. You see, the doctor gave Judge Feebles two weeks to live; that was six weeks ago, and the judge is up and around now and figgerin' on marryin' again. Every time Ezra meets the doctor he asks him, 'How about it, hey?' and they have a row. And now he's sittin' out there watching a tramp painter gilding the weather vane of the church across the street. Ezra says, by Heck, he's about ready to move away, things is so dead here."—Kansas City Star.
