The Glory of the Navy—Naval Heroes Deserve Full Measure of Praise—Useful Lessons Drawn From Their Heavens and Devotion.

At a time when the nation is stirred with excitement over the return of Admiral George and his gallant men on the cruiser and the magnificent reception accorded to them, the Rev. TRAGIC END OF WEDDING

Two Men Were Shot After a Hot Dispute About Religion and One Victim Will Die—Discourtesy of Copper Reported in Columbia County—Burglar Hamstruck Residence at Lancaster.

Another murder is likely to be added to the long list of tragedies lately enacted in the Lehigh Valley. The victim is John Voseo, a Hungarian, and his brother, Mike Voseo, is also badly injured. The tragedy was the outcome of a Hungarian wedding celebration in Upper Catonsville, when George Kapfeng and Annie Voseo were married. After the ceremony the usual festivities began, K-g after keg of beer disappeared and the guests became boisterous. The Voseo brothers reside at Egypt, this county, and belong to the United Greek Catholic Church, while the great majority of the guests at the wedding are members of the Orthodox Greek Catholic Church. The Voseo brothers had been warned to remain away from the latter fellow feeling between the members of the two factions of the Greek Church. They attended, however, and a discussion on religion was started. The argument grew hot, and the climax was reached when John Voseo, it is alleged, made an insulting remark about the Orthodox faction. At first the fight was limited to a few men, but soon all was confusion, and knives, beer glasses, firearms and everything that was handy was used as weapons. In the excitement the lights were extinguished. Soon after a pistol shot was heard and John Voseo fell to the floor with a bullet hole in his abdomen. A minute later Mike Voseo was shot in the nose. After the shooting the Huns left the house and went to a dance hall. Chief of Police Stecker, of Catonsville, was notified. Vase Mackenzie and John Shimshay, of Catonsville, were arrested on suspicion of having done the shooting and they are in the Catonsville lock-up. An Shimshay a revolver with an empty chamber was found. He said that he had fired a shot in self-defense, but does not know he hit anyone. The wounded men were taken to the Allegheny Hospital. The doctors say that John's chances for recovery are very slight. Mike may recover.

Mining for Copper. The residents of Sugarloaf Township, located in the extreme northern end of Columbia county, have the copper craze. Within sight of the little town of Central they have discovered a rich bed of copper and reports have it that miners are making from $5 to $8 a day in this new Eldorado. On the farm of J. P. Fritz a rich bed of the metal was made out. A large smelting plant is now in course of erection. It has spurred the owners of other farms in the vicinity, and in many places on each farm can be seen men engaged in sinking shafts or the large piles of earth showing from the shafts.

United States Pension Roll. On June 30, 1895, the pension rolls of the United States contained 993,714 names. Forty-three thousand were dropped during the fiscal year—34,345 because of death and 8,841 because of remarriage. On the other hand, 49,991 new claims were allowed, so that the number of pensioners stood on June 30 last at 991,519. The decrease in expenditure during the year was much more marked, the total falling from $144,651,000 in 1894-95 to $138,253,000 in 1895-96. This last is the smallest sum disbursed since the new conditions created by the dependent act have had to be faced, and reasonable assurance of a further natural shrinkage in the annual expenditures is to be found in the fact that $3,000,000 less were paid out last year than three years ago, when the list of pensioners was fully 21,000 shorter than it is today. How slight an addition to pension burdens the war with Spain will make may be guessed from the statement that, although 16,956 claims have been filed for disabilities incurred in that brief contest, only 295 have so far been passed on favorably. Altogether, the outlook for a diminished pension account has greatly improved.

Burglars Use Chisel. Burglars entered the residence of Mrs. Nicholas Goodman, Lancaster, and the indications are that the family, Mrs. Goodman and her four children, including a nearly grown son, were chloroformed. A peculiar feature of the burglary is the fact that a watch dog made no disturbance, although he was very cross animal. The burglars entered through the cellar, forcing the door lead up into the kitchen. The house was ransacked, but only $18 was stolen, being taken from a bureau drawer in Mrs. Goodman's bedroom.

Death in the Pipe. Charles Biddle was turned to death by the explosion of a can of powder. He was a coal miner and was filling a flask from a large can, when a spark from his pipe dropped into the powder. Rushing from the house enveloped in flames, he jumped into a cistern filled with water. He was rescued, but died shortly afterwards from his burns.

Fast in Mud and Drowned. Frederick Reed, aged 26 years, was drowned in the old canal near Wheatland. The child, who had been playing in the water, fell in and was unable to extricate himself. He leaves a family.

Killed by Leap from Train. S. B. Warburton, 22 years old, of Sayre, was almost instantly killed by Wyandotte National by jumping from a northbound fast freight. The entire top of his head was torn off. He was proprietor of a jewelry store at Sayre.

Saw Mill Burned. The sawmill owned by W. J. Harrey at Eddy Creek, eight miles above Beech Creek borough, was destroyed by fire. Some of the lumber was also burned, but the most of it escaped the flames. The origin of the fire is unknown. The plant was valued at $2000. The loss is partially covered by insurance. Mr. Harrey will rebuild at once.

Thieves' Raid at Towanda. A freight car on the switch was broken open and three kegs of whisky, a quantity of coffee, some crockery and cutlery was stolen. A large quantity of wheat was also stolen from the granary on the Wells farm, at South Towanda.

Beautiful Marble. That beautiful transparent stone called Tabriz marble, much used in the burial places of Persia and in their grand edifices, consists of the petrified water of ponds in certain parts of the country. The petrification may be traced from its commencement to its termination. In one part the water is clear, in a second it appears thicker and stagnant, in a third quite black, and in the last stage it is white like frost. When the operation is complete a stone thrown on its surface makes no impression and one may walk over it without wetting one's shoes. The substance thus produced is brittle and transparent, and sometimes richly striped with red, green and copper color. So much is this marble, which may be cut into large slabs, looked upon as a luxury that none but the king, his sons and persons especially privileged are permitted to take it.

Anecdote of Robert Burns. Robert Burns was once standing upon the quay at Greenock when a wealthy merchant belonging to that town had the misfortune to fall in the harbor. A sailor plunged in, and, at the risk of his own life, rescued the merchant, who could not swim. When the rescued man was restored to consciousness it was found that the fright and the wetting were the only bad consequences of his mishap. Calling for the sailor, his preserver, the merchant, presented him with his thanks and a shilling. The crowd loudly protested against such a scanty conduct, but Burns, with a scornful smile, begged them to be silent, "for, said he, 'the gentleman must know best what his life is worth.'"

SENSES OF THE BLIND.

HE SAID GOLF WAS SHINNEY.

Justice, Who Doesn't Know "Put" from "Call" Sits on the Game.

Without regarding the feelings of devotees of golf, Justice Potts of Jersey City has brought the aristocratic game which cannot be played without cleeks, mauls, lofters, and drivers down to the level of "shinney," a game that only requires a crooked stick, any old thing that will serve as a ball, tough shins, and an opponent whom the player does not like. Mrs. Pauline Schaff lives near the links of the Jersey City Golf club, and has filed objections to having her children swatted on the head by golf balls driven in an eccentric manner by beginners at the game. Despite the heat, Mrs. Schaff also objects to having the windows of her home suddenly fall to pieces in a most disgusting way. It was to stop these annoyances that Mrs. Schaff caused Albert L. Drayton, president of the club, to explain to Justice Potts not only how it happened, but also how he would stop it in the future. The elite of Jersey City crowded the courtroom yesterday, and listened to Mr. Drayton explain that the organization, through late recruits, had made some of the most wonderful strokes on record. He added that in a few days a new course would be arranged, and the beginners quantified nine miles from any sign of civilization. Mrs. Schaff was willing to compromise, and even went so far as to express her admiration of the game when played in another state, and everything was settled. "But the game is 'shinney,' just the same," was the decision given by Justice Potts, and which caused the elite to loft their noses and fuzzle their glances as they left the putting green bound for the next tee. A CHINAMAN'S OATH. The Celestial Was Particular and Caused the Court Lots of Trouble.

The various forms of oath-making, even in this country, are of considerable interest. It would not, however, be easy to find an instance in which anything like so queer a medium of attestation was employed as a guilford black cockatoo. But no less an extraordinary medium than that was what the police of a country district in New South Wales had to provide the other day for a feline Chinaman, who declined to swear on anything else.

Headless fowls were brought, but in vain, and as the matter was important, even a black swan, a luxury surely for a Chinese witness, was suggested, only to be immediately refused. After some time had elapsed, and when the representative of the law seemed quite at their wit's end, a dead cockatoo of the required hue was strangely discovered in a hut of one of the other celestials, who mimicked the anxious officials in $2.50 for the bird. Then the solemn and peculiar oath was duly administered, on which the difficult witness with a bland and childlike expression, declared he knew nothing about the case and set down smiling.
