

LOCAL CORRESPONDENCE.

SIPES MILL.

Dennis Hart, of Hartford City, left for the city of Needmore to spend a week. Jacob Hill is happy enough to walk on his head. He's got a girl at his home. Mrs. Margaret Truax is on the sick list again. Mrs. Sampson J. Mellott, whose illness was noted in last week's issue, does not seem to improve much. The doctor visits her every day. Miss Jane Swope is quite ill of consumption. We hope for her speedy recovery. Corn husking is coming, so are candidates. The most sociable fellows in the world are the candidates. How warmly they grasp your hand, what deep solicitude have they in the welfare of yourself and family, and how beautifully does that ardor wane after election! Mr. Troutman preached a very able sermon on last Friday evening at Morton's Point. Preaching next Saturday evening at the same place.

TAYLOR.

Drucie Laidig who became ill with typhoid fever while in Chambersburg, has recovered, and is now at home. Her sister Etta, who came home with her, has returned to Chambersburg. Hiram Laidig spent a day or two in Chambersburg last week. Mr. and Mrs. Sharp, of Chambersburg, and Miss Mowery, of Harrisburg, were recently the guests of Mr. and Mrs. J. G. Lyon. Mrs. Emma Johnson, of Huntingdon, spent part of last week with her niece, Mrs. W. Laidig. Jonas Lake has returned to Johnstown, where he has had employment the past month. Last Sunday, October 15, was a red letter day in Methodism in this locality. The beautiful new church at Fairview, which has been in course of erection for some time, is at last completed at a cost of $1300 and was dedicated under most auspicious circumstances. On Saturday evening, Rev. Gilbert of Huntingdon, formerly pastor on this charge, gave his lecture on a "Handful of Hills," to a large and appreciative audience. Some were sledge-hammer "hits" at current, domestic, business, political, and church life. On Sunday Mr. Gilbert preached from Isaiah 25:6. In the afternoon services were conducted by Rev. W. T. Shaffer, and Rev. Whitney preached the sermon in the evening, after which the church was dedicated. The bible was presented by the American Bible Society; the pulpit, by W. F. Laidig; the hymnal, by the pastor, Rev. Sarvis, and the pulpit chairs by the pastor's wife and daughters.

DUBLIN MILLS.

John Hess has greatly improved his dwelling in this place, by having a new end attached, and by giving the property a general overhauling. C. C. Kerling has the stone hauled for the foundation of a new house. Charles Deshong has recently moved to our town. Dr. Bernhart has been on the sick list for the past two weeks. Harvey McQuoit is lying very sick with typhoid fever. Isaac Bollinger, accompanied by Miss Emma Bedford, attended the dedication of the new Fairview M. E. church last Sunday. N. B. Locke and family, of Orbisonia, were visiting the family of Geo. W. Locke this week. B. W. Peck, editor of the FULTON COUNTY NEWS stopped with us awhile last Saturday afternoon. We think he went away well pleased. His new paper is strictly all right, and will eventually be found in every family in Fulton county.

SPRING HOUSE VALLEY.

William Siders spent part of last week visiting in Franklin county. Mr. and Mrs. George Mabow and their two little daughters, Iva and Golda, of Shady Grove, spent last week with friends here. We are always glad to see them. Harry Hohman, Harvey Richard, Roe Mellott and Miss Amanda Hohman attended the Hagerstown fair last week. Mother Hoge's funeral was largely attended last Sunday. Mrs. William Paylow and daughter Miss Rosa, spent part of last week with the family of George Butterbaugh in Franklin county, and attended the Hagerstown fair last Wednesday. The school at this place is getting along nicely; it is said to be the largest in the township. Elmer Siders spent from Saturday till Monday near Shady Grove.

WEST VIEW.

Farmers are all done seeding; corn husking will come next week. Corn is a pretty good crop in this community. Messrs. John May and David Chesnut have been busily engaged hauling pulp wood to Hancock. Otho Barnhart, Supervisor, was repairing roads in this part of the township last week. The roads were very rough, and didn't get repairs before they needed it. J. A. Brakeall has a position on the B. & O. railroad as fireman. Mrs. Ruth Shives, of Hancock, visited Thomas Manning last Tuesday. Mr. and Mrs. John May attended the funeral of their niece, Mrs. Funk, and also spent a few days visiting. Mr. and Mrs. Lashley were the guests of Mr. Nycums last Sunday.

Mrs. Juda Fite had the misfortune to fall from a wagon one day last week. The wagon passed over her breast and shoulder, frightfully mangling one arm. She is slowly improving at present and it is hoped that she will soon recover from the accident. Several persons from this community took advantage of the cheap rates to Washington last Sunday. Mr. Hewitt moved his threshing machine down very early Monday morning and threshed buckwheat for Henry Hollenshead and James Shives.

AMARANTH.

William G. Fisher, of Brunswick, Md., spent part of last week with his mother of this place. D. Kauffman and son I. G., of Curryville, Blair county, spent Thursday evening with the family of George Mills. Jonathan Boor and wife of Lashley, spent Sunday with the family of Robert Carson. Solomon Edward McKee, and Herbert Lee McKibbin spent Thursday at the Hagerstown Fair. Mrs. Matilda Dorrier and son Henry, of Buck Valley, were in this place Saturday. Ella T. McKibbin left Saturday for Hagerstown, to stay with the family of Capt. Fisher Saturday evening and Sunday, then to Mercersburg, to visit her brothers Dr. James and Editor Alex., and then to McConnellsburg where she will spend some time with relatives and friends. Misses Jennie Bailey and Ella Smith spent Sunday with the family of Jacob Spade. Peter Mellott spent Tuesday and Wednesday at Artemus.

Loaning looks easy, but it takes all a man's time to learn it. What's done cannot be undone, especially if it's a hard boiled egg. Experience may be the best teacher, but her terms are mighty high. Woman's gentle touch just now is for a fall bonnet and winter coat. The plumber is now waiting for Jack Frost to get in some effective work. It's always easy to see through people who make spectacles of themselves. A West End man calls his wife Misery because she's so fond of company. The merchant who starts in business without ready money is apt to become a man of note. Sometimes it isn't a man's fault that he has no money. It may be all due to other people. It often happens that the individual who can meet his creditors isn't very anxious to.

In time of peace the corset steel saves as many lives as the pocket Bible in time of war. There's an odor of tar camphor about some overcoats, and their owners don't like it for a scent. Falling off chestnut trees and shell-bark tree accidents have been quite numerous this season. The woman who knows nothing of the language is always the one to reveal in reading French phrases. A husband is always appreciative of a gift, no matter what it is, if he isn't called upon to pay for it. The chap who is always howling that he has a right to his opinions is the one who wants everybody else to take them. It's not possible those fellows who persist in throwing rice at weddings want to convey the hint about being in the soup. The tough little party, the terror of the neighborhood, who grows up to be a rich man is only remembered as mischievous. Gather up the fallen leaves from the sidewalks and streets and put them on the garden, as they will make good fertilizers. The man who is continually telling you that life isn't worth living is the first one to send for the doctor if he has an ache or pain. Many a doctor's bill will be owing to the habit women have of wearing low shoes long after such a proceeding is impudent. Weather guessers are already predicting an early, long and extremely cold winter. These fellows are probably in the coal business. They are storing electricity, it is said, in capsules. Probably one of them taken inwardly will be a good substitute for Jersey lightning. It's all right for hope to spring eternal in the human breast, but hope isn't going to accomplish much without a little elbow grease to back it up. Babies may not intend to be wilfully spiteful, but they always contrive to have the colic when their parents wish to keep an evening engagement. The strange thing about dieting is that it seems to mean to many persons doing without at the table and eating all that is possible between meals. The Chambersburg People's Register says that Max Meier bought 95 head of fresh cows and springers, 115 head of shoats and 55 veal calves last month. Among the 95 cows there were fifteen which averaged $50 a head. Cows are higher in price now than they were the past fifteen years. He paid 64 cents per pound for choice veal calves. Mr. Geo. W. Park, of Libonia, will, we understand, soon commence the erection of a handsome new greenhouse and very completely equipped seed warehouse and plant on his farm one-half mile from Fannettsburg at an estimated cost of $20,000. When completed, Mr. Park will then remove his entire plant from Libonia to the new locality.

Goldsmith the Tailor. Miller Washing Machines at Malloy's. One trouble with airships is a defective flew. The pumpkin pie is suggestive of Thanksgiving Day. It is probably because Truth is naked that she so seldom appears in public life. The chestnut shells on the sidewalks are taking the place of the peanut shells. Ladies' coats altered, or anything in the line of tailoring neatly done by Goldsmith the Tailor. If some men who want the earth should get it, they'd be too mean to pay the taxes. All kinds of stoves at W. H. Nesbitt's. Call, examine them, and get prices before you buy. Any girl is willing to keep house providing the right man produces the house. The fall pasture has been very luxuriant and stock turned on to it enjoy it exceedingly.
