WILD FLIGHT.

ACCUNALDO IN A DILAPIDATED CON DITION SEEKS A REFUGE.

AMERICANS ARE WOUNDED.

Hatless, With His Clothing Torn and Mud Spattered, H. Rides Into Dayamban, Changes Horses and Dashes Off Again The American Forces Continue Their Rapid Advance.

Maulia, (By Cable,) - Aggingleto, accompanied by several of his followers, have been seen in full flight. A Spanish corporal, cap-tured by the Filipinos, has arrived here from Taria: He says he saw Againaido, accommen, acrive a: Dayam'm n, during the night of November 13, hatless, his clothes torn and spattered with mad, and his horse exhausted. Againsido, it appears, rested a short time, seemed auxious, consulted with his companions and the villagers as to the nature of the roals, secured fresh borses and procord of Inmediately toward Mangataren, in Panga-inan province, west of Dayambam.

The corporal tells a straight story, giving minute ditails. He is convinced he is not mista'cea, having seen Aguinaldo several times during recent months. Aguinaldo, it appears, would have had time to leave Da yambra November 13, and pass through General Wheaton's lines November 17.

American Officers Wounded. Severe fighting to the north of Hollo be-gan Tue-day, November 21. Four Americans were killed and twenty-live were wounded, including three officers. The insurgents are retreating to Santa Barbara, but the fighting continues.

General MacArthur has returned to Tarlac, and has established his head quarters at Aguinaldo's former residence. During the entire movement from Gerona to Dagupan not a shot was fired. The inhabitants of San Carlos met the Americans with a band formerly attached to the insurgent army, and the alcuide (mayor), with General MacArthur and Colonel Boll, in a carriage, headed procession through the town, General Mac-Arthur received an ovation, Explaining the America's intentions, he announced that they intended to garrison all the towns on the railroads. Hand eds of men are it the field, harvesting rice, along the railroad. The foreigners in the territory assert that Agninaido was not expecting the American advance for a month, when the rains would have finished. He had permitted a large part of his army to scatter to their homes and do the harvesting. The soldiers had hidden their rifles about their homes. If this is true, many rifles are likely to be brought in, to secure the $30 offered, for each weapon seized.

A Brilliant Stroke. Captain Leonhauser's capture of the town of O'Donnei was a remarkable stroke. command consisted of three companies of the Twenty-fifth Regiment, Captain Albright and Lieutenants Bates and Morton ounding. He started at six o'clock at night and marched fifteen miles in the mud The only regular approach was along a road and over a river whose bridge was strongly fortified. The entrance of the town was entrenched. The soldiers left the road and followed a cattle trail to the rear of the town. At daylight the command separated, one company advancing on the back of the town and the other flanking it. The insurgent force was asleep, except those at the outposts, who were captured without shooting. One plateou ran down the main street to a trench and the other detachments made quick search of the houses. An officer, describing the scene, said:

"The negro soldiers were pouring out of every house, dragging sleepy, frightened Filipino warriors by the collar and kicking them into the street. It was a race to see which company would corral the most Filiomen and children, believing the stories told that the negro soldiers were cannibals, shricked frightfully. After all the rifles had been secured the Filipinos surprised by being told to go to their homes and attend to work.'

BATTLE NEAR BELMONT.

General Methuen Reports That the British Were Victorious-A Number of Officers Were Wounded.

London, (By Cable,)-The Secretary of War received the following despatch, through Gen. Forestier-Walker, from Gen. Methuen, dated Belmont, November 23: "Attacked the enemy at daybreak. He was in a strong position. Three ridges were carried in succession, the last attack being prepared by shrapnel. "The infantry behaved splendidiy, and received support from the nava: brigade and artillery. The enemy fought with courage and skill. Had I attacked later, I should have had far heavier loss.

'Our victory was complete. Have taken forty prisoners. Am burying a good number of the Boers, but the greater part of the enemy's killed and wounded were removed by their comrades. Have captured a large number of horses and cows, and destroyed a large quantity of ammunition.

The situation in Natat remains obscure ighting is reported at both Estcourt and Ladysmith. It was at first reported that heavy firing had been heard in the direction of Willow Grange, leading to a belief that General Hildyard had made a sortie. Later despatches announce that General White sortied from Ladysmith and inflicted a demoralizing defeat upon the Boers, It would be premature to give full credence to either report. What is quite certain is that Ladysmith, Esteourt and Mooi River Stations are all isolated, and the Boers seem able, after detaching enough troops to hold three British forces aggregating 17,000 mer. to push on toward Pietermaritzburg with ne 7,000 men.

A disquieting feature of the whole campaign is the fact that all the advancing British generals report meeting the Boers in force. In view of the brilliant success of General Joubert in partially paralyzing the relieving columns, the question is being asked, what would have happened had he at the outset of the war, instead of sitting down before Ladysmith, pushed on to Pic termaritzburg? General Gataere's report that the Dutch are rising increases public anxiety, as it nds to confirm rumors that have long been

HOBART IS DEAD.

HIS LONG ILLNESS ENDS AT HIS HOME AT PAPERSON.

DIED OF HEART DISEASE.

Surrounded by His Family and Physician He Lapses Into Unconsciousness Messages of Condolence from President McKinley and Other Distinguished Persons Received by Mrs. Hobart.

Paterson, N. J., (Special.) -The long illness of Hon. Garret A. Hobart, Vice President of the United States, ended at 8,30 o'clock Tuesday morning, when the distinguished sufferer passed peacefully away at his home, "Carroll Hall," Around his bedside during the waning hours were his wife, his son, Garret A. Hobart, Jr.; his family physician, Dr. W. K. Newton, and Mrs. New ton and Private Secretary Fred Evans, Jr.

Mr. Hobart's death had been expected for me hours. The beginning of the end came Monday afternoon, when there was a sudden failure of the heart, and from this attack Mr. Hobart never rallied. He had been sick for a long time and had suffered frequently from heart failure, and his strength had been undermined. Gradually the failure of the heart's action became more apparent, and soon after midnight Mr. Hobart be unconscious. He remained in that condition until his death

Mr. Hobart's death was due directly to angina pectoris, complicating myocarditis. The services were held in the Church of the Redeemer, here, and the interment in the family lot, at Cedar Laws, where the only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Hobart was buried Mx years ago. Rev. Dr. Mageo preached the sermon. Nearly all the representatives of foreign nations in this country sent messages of sympathy to Mrs. Hobart. One of the first to express his sorrow at the death of the Vice President was President McKinley, who had been notified by telephone by Private Sceretary Evans, Attorney General Griggs, who was in Washington, went to Paterson and took charge of all the details of the funeral,

Among others who sent messages of condolence were Sir Julian Pauncefote, British ambassador; Count G. De Lichtervelde, envoy extraordinary and minister plenipotentiary of Beigium; Count Cassini, Russian ambassador; former Vice President Stevenson, Admiral Schley. Governor Voor-hees, of New Jersey; United States Senator Sewell, of New Jersey; Senator Hanna, of Ohio; Gen. Russell A. Alger, Senator Foraker, Senator Fairbanks, General Castillo.

A despatch one day last week announced that it was believed that Admiral Dewey was about to take this step, and that his friends were dismayed at the mere sugges tion. A member of the (abinet who taken a deep interest in raising the funds for the house vigorously denied the truth of the story, on the ground that he could not believe it possible that Admiral Dewey would do such a thing.

The story is widespread that a threat of legal action by a former sweetheart of the Admiral is responsible for the Admiral's set. MacArthur said:, "We seem to be entering a different political atmosphere. The people of Gerona seem to be less attached to Aguinaldo's cause than those in many towns we have entered on the railroad line.' The trip here was a hard one and occupied six hours in covering seven miles and a half, most of the time being spent in fording a quarter of a mile of the flood running out of the Rio Tarlae. General MacArthur has no wagons. Pack mules and native bearers carry all his supplies.

The command moved northward at day break toward Bayombong, where Aguinaldo is supposed to be. Gerona will be garrined by two companies of the Thirty-sixth Infantry.

Slaven's scouts moved up the railway track toward Panique, a few miles beyond Gerona. On the way they encountered an entrenched party of Filipinos, whom they drove back. Then, entering the town, they captured four locomotives and 13 cars. They learned that 500 Filipino soldiers had left the town the same afternoon

Later, all of General MacArthur's troops arrived at Panique from Gerona. The rail-road beyond Panique has not been destroyed. The captured rallway stock is being repaired to handle supplies.

General MacArthur discovered at Panique Major Joneson, formerly chief surgeon on the staff of the Filipino commander, General Mascardo. He resides at Bacolor and is about to return there to resume his practice. Major Joneson is quoted as saying that "all respectable Filipinos are disgusted with the behavior of the insurgents and are glad that the Americans have the upper band." A continuous procession of refugees is probably off the railroad line. These refugees say that the Filipino troops have not known which way to turn, with the Americans occupying so many places in the north. Panique is a rich sugar town. Some of the wealthy Chinese and the poorer natives fled at the first approach of the Americans, but they are now confidently returning

The rain has ceased, the weather is fine and the country is drying rapidly.

FILIPINOS BLOCK TRACK. Two Engines and 54 Cars Found Piled in a Wreck. Moncada, Luzon, (By Cable.)-Advanc-ing through the country by train from Panique, a distance of five miles, the Americans reached Moncada, where the natives have displayed a friendly disposition.

The train was stalled here by the wreck of two locomotives and 54 cars, placed by the Filipinos to block the track. The freighthouse and depot have been burned. No attempt will be made to save the wrecked rolling stock, but the track will be cleared, and as soon as two small breaks have been repaired the expedition will continue northward. Thus far the advance has been a complete success.

Captain Carr, of the Signal Corps, has laid a wire from Panique.

SIX KILLED IN WRECK. Construction Train Runs Into Handear

Near Humbaldt. Sloux Falls, S. D., (Special.)—Six men were killed and four seriously, if not fatally, injured in an accident on the Chicago, St. Paul, Minneapolis & Omaha Railroad at Humboldt, twenty miles west of Sioux Humboldt, when a handear bearing thirtyfive Italians came around a curve. The Italians saw their danger and jumped from the ear, which caught under the rear of the caboose and this and the flat-car next to it were wrocked. On the flatear were twenty Italian laborers, five of whom were killed outright and five more injured.
