

ADDITIONAL LOCAL.

Goldsmith, the Tailor.
New Dates, Macaroni and New Crop Molasses at Robinson's.
Eldor Gore, of Virginia, preached at Needmore Saturday and Sunday.
Pap Mayne, of Fort Littleton killed a porker last Thursday that weighed 520 pounds.
Miss Jessie Kendall has been quite ill for several days.
Thomas Truax, son of Mr. and Mrs. Abner Truax, of Belfast township, had the misfortune last Sunday to have a finger cut off. We do not have the circumstances under which it happened.
Hats, caps, underwear, shirts, collars, cuffs, gloves and neckties at C. B. Steven's, Merchant Tailor.
The Quarterly Conference will meet in the M. E. church on Friday, December 8th at 3 o'clock. The Rev. E. N. Yocum D. D., will preach at 7 p. m., and again Sunday at 7 p. m.
You will find every thing up-to-date in C. B. Steven's new store.
The Johnstown Democrat on last Saturday says a deal is on foot for the sale of the Commercial Hotel in that city to Messrs. W. P. and J. C. McCavit, of Gettysburg. The consideration will probably be $11,500. J. C. McCavit was formerly proprietor of the Fulton House in this place.
Special bargains during Institute week in clothing and gents' furnishing goods at C. B. Steven's.
The Duncannon correspondent of the Perry County Freeman says: Rev. O. B. McCurdy, pastor of the Presbyterian church, preached his farewell sermon on Sunday. The reverend gentleman leaves for Philadelphia in a short time. Both Mr. and Mrs. McCurdy will be sadly missed in our town, where they have done much good.
A few good wagons at T. J. Comer's at bargain prices.
The pension department has adopted a new rule requiring pensioners to take their quarter's vouchers to a magistrate every quarter. The number of the certificate is no longer inserted in the pension voucher at the pension office, but must be written in by the magistrate when the voucher is executed. This, therefore, makes it absolutely necessary for pensioners to take their certificates.

See T. J. Comer's nice lot of new buggies. Special prices for a short time.
Rev. L. D. Orr, of McVeytown, while at the Methodist Episcopal hospital in Philadelphia last week, had the shot that penetrated his skull at the time he was accidentally shot, cut out by a skilled surgeon. It is completely flattened out and about one-eighth of an inch in diameter. Of course he now feels much relieved.
"Topsy" Darts, a prominent member of Wm. S. Dickson's household, while overseeing the storing away of the celery crop, picked up a gold dollar, the other day. When any one intimates that they lost one at some remote period "Topsy" immediately produces the little coin, and remarks, "Here 'tis, I 'spect it's yours."
A smooth young man has been victimizing some towns in this state in an easy manner. He takes orders for dress goods, exacting $2 in advance, saying the goods will be shipped immediately and experienced dressmakers will arrive to make up the patterns. The goods are never shipped and the dressmakers never arrive.
James Figart, the Eleventh avenue barber, while hunting in Fulton county last week, shot a 100-pound deer on Cove mountain, which he brought home Saturday evening. He also bagged considerable small game. Yesterday Mr. Figart and a number of his friends feasted on deer at the noon meal.—Altoona Mirror, 20th instant.

The next Republican Senatorial candidate in the Franklin-Huntingdon district will probably be W. U. Brewster of Chambersburg, who once before represented the district. His chief competitors will be Alexander Stewart, of Chambersburg, and Senator Christian Huntington of county. Ex-representative W. Rush Gillan may be the nominee for the place.
Robert Wentz, a well-known member of the Radical United Brethren, died at his home at Marsburg after a lingering illness. Rev. Wentz was born in Pennsylvania and was twice married and wife who survives, Mrs. Jacob Shuman. A daughter also survives.
A farmer residing near Everett, Pa., was killed while rabbit hunting. He was suddenly struck on the head, and died.

Some miserable, miserly, moon-eyed miserant had the mendacity last Tuesday evening at the Sideling Hill Christian church to deliberately steal, carry off, and appropriate to his own use, a good lap robe from the buggy of George C. Dishong.
G. J. Mellott, one of Bedford county's most successful teachers, accompanied by his friend John Smith, both of Robinsonville, came last week to spend a few days at his old home in Belfast township. On Thanksgiving day they took a little scout around the fields for rabbits. They got thirty. Johnson says it was not a very good day for rabbits.
Harry Austin and Robert Fisher were coming into town in a buggy from D. P. Trout's on Wednesday, when, in some way, the horse they were driving became frightened and ran off, throwing the occupants of the buggy out, and demolishing the vehicle.
John McQuade started up through town Wednesday noon with a load of spokes for over the mountain. He stopped a minute to talk with Dwight Thompson and allowed the team to go ahead. At the alley at Mrs. Samuel Unger's the team turned in so short as to damage the wagon considerably, causing Mr. McQuade some delay.
While cutting up some ears of corn for his fattening hogs on Tuesday, John Doyle, of this place, had the misfortune to clip the end off two of his fingers.
Carpenter Johnnie Martin of Whips Cove is building a barn for Amos Barber near Needmore. It was raised Tuesday. Amos's Michigan brother-in-law is a good hand but hard on overcoats.
A Scranton soldier, now in the Philippines, writes home that he has been converted by the chaplain of his regiment, and wants friends to send statements of all bills owed by him, as he wants to pay up. That is the kind of religious revival we would like to see started at home. The President should order that chaplain on duty in the United States at once.
