"THE MAN WITH THE HOE."

BY EDWIN MARKHAM.

[One of the most notable literary productions of the year is the poem we print below. It has provoked wider isfactory outline of the work. that teachers can easily use. and more prolonged discussion than any other American poem written during the present generation. The idea expressed in its forty-nine lines has by the thousand. Its author, Edward K. Markham, was Principal of a school in California. He was born in Oregon about fifty years ago where he spent his early years helping his widto fame was suggested by the remarkable picture of the same title, of the French artist Millet. The poem first appeared in the San Francisco Examiner of Jan. 8, 1899.

God mademan in His own image, in the image of God made He him.--Genesis.

Bowed by the weight of centuries he leans

Upon his hoe and gazes on the ground. The emptiness of ages in his face, world.
