A man may guff,
A man may lie,
A man may puff and blow;
But he can't get trade,
By sitting in the shade,
And waiting for business to grow.
The chap who buys his girl many roses at this time of year has to give dollars for cents.

Many persons are not as much interested in wireless telegraphy as they are in a payless one.

WONDERFUL SOUVENIRS FREE

Remarkable Gifts to Everybody by the Great Philadelphia "Sunday Press."

Announcement is made by the publishers that every reader of the great "Philadelphia Sunday Press" will receive next Sunday, February 18, absolutely free two souvenirs of a character and value far beyond anything heretofore offered by a newspaper. One will be a beautiful picture in ten colors, by Paul de Longpre, the famous flower painter, entitled "A Yard of Roses." It is twice as large as any picture ever given away by a newspaper, and that it is worth framing is evident from the fact that copies cannot be bought at retail for less than a dollar. But, in addition to this, every reader of next "Sunday's Press" will receive an attractively illustrated booklet of convenient size, containing the greatest detective story ever written by Emile Gaboriau. If you want these splendid gifts you had better order next "Sunday's Press" at once, as warning is given that the supply will be limited. If there is no news agent in your vicinity get some bright boy to write for the agency.
