Mrs. John H. Truax of the Meadow Grounds is the possessor of a pumpkin two feet seven inches in length, two feet, eleven inches in circumference, and weighing thirty pounds. Although it was grown in 1898, it is in an excellent state of preservation and shows evidence of keeping to the end of the nineteenth century.

Sanner Ray has moved into his new house near Big Cove Tannery, where he and his estimable young wife are now living "as snug as a bug in a rug." He has moved his loom and fixtures into his residence and is prepared to receive calls from all desiring weaving.

Public Opinion has this to say of a former McConnellsbarger: "John Stoner, the well-known South Second street veteran, paid his annual call at the Opinion sanctuary Monday. Major Stoner was one of the first on our list. He has been on the sick list this winter and will gladly welcome spring weather. Despite illness and age he is one of the active members of Housung Post, G. A. R."

The other day Charlie and Webbie, two little sons of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph E. Mellott, of Belfast township, were visiting their grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Jonas Truax. While at play about the room, Webbie stumbled and fell face foremost—right into a bed of coals in the open fire-place. His screams brought to his rescue his grandmother, who saved the boy from what might have been a horrible death. He is thought to be out of danger now.

SIDELING HILL.

There was no school at Mount Airy last week on account of the illness of the teacher's mother, Mrs. Dennis Mellott.

The preaching at Cedar Grove last Sunday by S. L. Larned was not largely attended.

A. G. Davidson and Riley Garland started to their work in Cambria county last week. They stopped off in Cumberland to visit Riley's sister, Mrs. Karns.

Amos Layton is on the sick list this week. John Garland traded off one of his mules last week for a fine traveler to carry the U. S. mail. Be careful, Squire, or they will beat you.

Roy Garland was seen driving his match bats last Sunday. Roy knows how to handle the lines.
Our genial friend B. M. Logue expects to move next week to Franklin county. Sorry to see you go, Bart, but wish you success and all the good luck.
Layton & Hixon are sawing lumber for J. T. Bridges, of Hancock. They have a big timber right to cut out.
Success to THE NEWS.

BELFAST.

Funks & Co., are done sawing at Alex. Mellott's and expect to move to Marcus Mellott's to do a large bill of sawing for a new house.

Adam Hess and daughter, Mrs. Mary Rice, are seriously ill at his home.
Ahimaz Truax is still improving from a paralytic stroke.
John Hess is seriously ill.
John Clevenger and wife, of Hustontown, were visiting friends in this community last week.
A Sunday school was organized at Pleasant Grove, last Sunday at 10:30 o'clock.
Miss Viola Hess was visiting her uncle Morton Hess last Saturday evening.
John Spade and wife have moved to their new home in Buck Valley.
The champion hunters, Harry and Riley Hess caught five coons and two polecats last Tuesday.
Charley Funk spent a very pleasant evening last week at Aaron Hess's.

LICKING CREEK.

Mr. and Mrs. E. R. Mellott spent Sunday with J. N. Daniels and family.
Miss Margaret Daniels and brother, J. Nelson Daniels, spent Saturday with friends in McConnellsbarger.
Messrs. E. Norman Akers and M. Piper Barton spent Sunday afternoon with Miss Margaret Daniels.
Mr. Harvey Strait and Miss Olive Grissinger attended preaching at Ebenezer, Sunday evening.
A. W. Deshong and son Riley made a business trip to McConnellsbarger on Saturday.
Miss Mary Hess was the guest of Miss Rose Deshong, Saturday afternoon and Sunday.
Mr. Aaron Clevenger, of McConnellsbarger, spent Sunday with Jackson Strait.

WELLS TANNERY.

Frank Cunningham has gone to Williamsport seminary.... Bert Deshong has moved to A. F. Baker's small farm.... Mr. McDonald of Maddensville has moved into one of W. H. Baumgardner's houses.... V. D. Schenk thinks he will quit huckstering and farm for J. B. Alexander's heirs.... E. Maud Baumgardner is home from Wilson College for for a two weeks' vacation.... Moody Stewart, teacher of No. 4 is housed up with mumps.... Grandmother Sprowl is gradually growing weaker. She has been enduring her sufferings patiently.... The members of Pine Grove M. E. church are observing this week of prayer for the revival of Christian work the world over. We cannot vouch for their fasting.... Miss Flo Stewart, daughter of G. A. Stewart, who has been in Pittsburg teaching music for several years, was married a few days ago to Mr. Blackmore at that place.... Miss Blanche Meredith is visiting her many friends in Altoona.... Albert Helsel and daughter Emma left Monday morning for a visit among friends at south Fork, Pa.... Wm. H. Baumgardner has just returned from a trip to Scranton.... Reese Greenland has left for Pittsburg to resume work as a carpenter.... Prof. Will Ranck is on the sick list, hence our school is closed again.... The M. E. people of Three Springs charge are greatly pleased to have their former pastor Rev. W. J. Sheaffer return to them for another year.... Our sportsmen Messrs. A. S. Greenland, Wm. Clippinger and T. A. Sipe while out hunting one day last week secured twelve coons and ten opossums. Go again, boys.

PLEASANT GROVE.

James Hill spent Thursday at James Kline's, and returned home with Mrs. Ahimaz Truax, who was visiting her mother, Mahala Mellott. That is right, James, keep on the good side of the parents.... Luther Smith and family visited relatives near Pleasant Ridge, on Sunday.... Irvin Fisher moved his saw mill on Howard Hill's farm to saw out a bill for a new barn.... Isaac B. Layton spent Monday in Whips Cove, on business.... Job Plessinger spent Sunday with Allen Smith and family.... The grain is not looking well.... When we look over the death record week after week, and see so many that are passing away, we should stop and think that we, too, must go.... Next Sunday, April 1, Rev. Troutman will preach at Pleasant Grove. After preaching, the ordinance of baptism will be administered.... David Deshong and Collie Peck attended meeting at Ebenezer Saturday night. While Mr. Deshong was getting ready to start, Mr. and Mrs. Layton being out of the house, he thought he would fix up a dose of medicine that would be good for a cold, but through mistake he put the medicine in Mr. Layton's tea but it did him good; he is as frisky as a colt.... Boys, if you have mittens enough, your hands won't get cold.... D. C. Garland is much pleased because his youngest daughter came home; but is wondering why his boys don't come, as spring is most here. He thinks the war department need not call on him for help, but the little boys, when they grow to be men, can call on him for a help-mate.
