

Peerless Horse and Cattle Powder at Robinson's. 10 cts per lb. See ad.

AGENTS WANTED: To sell state, county and farm rights. JOHN A. HARVEY, Hancock, Md.

Rev. Mr. West will preach at Green Hill next Sunday morning and at McConnellsburg Sunday evening.

The name of Fulton county's fourth post office is Clito, and it is located at Spring House Valley in Ayr township, with John Seiders as postmaster.

Marriage license was granted last Saturday to Elias B. Dishong, son of Stillwell and Mary Dishong, and Miss Eunice Sharpe, daughter of John and Mary Sharpe, all of Licking Creek township.

There will be a two-day meeting at Needmore next Saturday and Sunday. Preaching Saturday, Saturday evening and Sunday. In addition to the home preachers, Elder Norton of Virginia is expected to be present.

Mr. Leonard Heidt of Ayr township, last Thursday evening, received by mail from his blind sister Lizzie, who has been in the Women's Industrial Home for the Blind in Philadelphia for nearly six months, a piece of knitting work, that shows that she is acquiring skill in that direction. She has been accepted by the home, and will remain there during life.

Among the instructors at the Chester Teacher's Institute held last week was Mrs. Carolyn Houser, formerly of this place, and now Vice Principal of the Mechanicsburg, Pa., High School. Mrs. Houser gave two lectures, both of which were most kindly received. Mrs. Houser is a lady of more than ordinary culture and ability, and is rapidly coming to the front as an institute worker.

The many friends of Thomas F. Sloan, Esq., of this place were delighted on Monday to see him out in the open air for a drive. For twelve long weeks he had been confined to the house, and part of that time so sick, that his friends had almost abandoned all hope of his recovery. We trust that with the return of warm, dry weather, he will rapidly regain his health.

Contractor T. B. Stevens and assistants W. R. Fields, Joseph Chesnut, and W. L. Fields came in from Taylor Monday and on Tuesday morning early were busy at work on the new dwelling for Johnnie Magsam on the Magsam Extension, east of town. The masonry is finished and if the weather should not interfere the building will be pushed rapidly to completion.

Knobsville.

Rain and sunshine has alternately prevailed for several weeks; but the former has predominated to the detriment of the farmers. At this writing, the weather seems to have settled into beautiful Spring. The opening buds and blossoms give indication that there will be an abundance of beautiful flowers to strew on the graves of our fallen heroes on Memorial Day, and that there will be a large quantity of all kinds of fruit.

A gang of workmen under the supervision of "Reg" are making a road on the Cove mountain, to connect with the road to Richmond Furnace for the use of teams hauling lumber and bark from the Cove to the S. P. R. R.

Grass and grain are improving in appearance, rapidly, and the indications are that an average crop will be harvested.

Many improvements are under contract in our village, and we hope to see an increase in the number of summer visitors, the coming season. A more healthful and pleasant summer resort could not be found any where.
