and is only less good because it has cost less money. A woman of refined taste and good judgment will avoid buying too many sham ornaments or those of too remarkable a size...

INDIVIDUALITY IN DRESS.

The mention of individuality in dress at first appals one's mind by conjuring before it the vision of weird and dowdy and eccentric costumes, such as are wont to express the aggressive individualities of some of our strong-minded women of to-day.

ANOTHER LOST MINE.

Discovery by a Trapper of a Mysterious Placer Camp. C. H. Harrison, recently from Wrangell, tells an interesting story of a lost or deserted mining camp, says the Seattle Post-Intelligencer.

RICH PICKING FOR SAILORS.

British Tars Often Derive Fortunes in Prize Money. As the minister of war has said, we are now at strife with an enemy which does not even possess a cockle-boat, and those brave sailors who are fighting patriotically with their soldier brothers have not the additional incentives that used to be held out to tars in the way of treasure ships...
