

HOW MORMONS PROPOSE.

A Mother Acts When Asked to Give Her Daughter in Marriage.

Hudson describes graphically the scene as she saw and heard in a Mormon household during a significant visit to the elders of the church.

When you are going to the Paris Exposition? asks Margaret E. Caldwell in the April St. Nicholas; and assuming that you are and that you are a girl, she gives you some useful hints.

All over the land, she says, young girls are beginning to plan a trip to the Paris Exposition. By means of tourists' clubs, with their low rates and monthly payments, many girls of small means, girls who earn their own living, will be able to go.

Do you look up and reading now, while you are at home and have the time. But if not used to solid reading, do not plunge boldly into a French history that goes back beyond the days of Charlemagne.

When you read something about "Marie Antoinette's Swiss cottage," and the trouble that it caused, do you not feel interested to know what the trouble was, and why a Swiss cottage caused it?

Unless you know the story of the people who made the history of these places, you are seeing only wood and stone; you are missing the best—the vital, breathing part, the life.

TO PREPARE FOR PARIS

WHAT TO READ BEFORE YOU GO TO THE FAIR.

How to Add Wonderfully to the Interest and Value of the Trip—One of the Best Methods of Cultivating the Memory.

NOW IT IS DOOR KNOCKERS.

Shabby Bits of Iron and Brass Eagerly Hunted For.

The world's bohemian girl is on the lookout for old door knockers. If you meet her rushing from one antique shop to the next, you may be sure she's got the fad and is on the chase.

Another reason why new knockers are not so acceptable is because they are factory made and all alike. The old ones, being hand made, are stamped each with an individuality all its own, bearing the impress of the workman's skill and, in a measure, of his humor at the time the work was done.

So the girl is looking for the shabby, well worn bit of brass that is green with old age. The particular pattern she wants is the lion's head, and if she finds it she pays from $5 to $10 to possess it.

If a girl doesn't succeed in her search at all she buys a new knocker—for which she pays about $2—and buries it in the ground until it becomes green and moldy.

There are made nowadays golf trunks for the safe carrying of golf sticks, such trunks being provided also with suitable compartments for golf clothing.

She Discharged a Duty.

Many simple people who obtain marriage licenses of city clerks imagine that the clerk in some way becomes responsible for their marriage and that they are in duty bound to report to him afterwards and let him keep track of their affairs.

A Salt Lake City paper reports that a tall, gaunt woman, with ginger hair and a somewhat fierce expression of countenance, lately came to the county clerk of Boxelder County in that State.

"You're the man that keeps the marriage books, ain't you?" she asked. "Yes, ma'am," he answered. "What book do you wish to see?"

"Kin you find out if Jack Peters was married?" Search developed the name of John Peters, for whose marriage a license had been issued two years before.

"I thought so," said the woman. "Married 'Lize Waters, didn't he?" "The license is issued for a marriage with Miss Eliza Waters."

"Yep, well, I'm 'Lize. I thought I'd ought to come in and tell you that Jack Peters has escaped."—Youth's Companion.

A Philosophical Convict.

Mrs. Ballington Booth and her aids would show the confidence of a prisoner who was feared by all his companions. One day in speaking of his past he told them that he was absolutely innocent of the charge for which he was suffering imprisonment, and he thanked Mrs. Booth for some reading matter she had brought him.

"I have got witnesses to prove my innocence, even if they are in prison now," he asserted.

"Why don't you try to secure a new trial?" "Well, you see," he replied after a little pause, "I was acquitted of a number of charges where I was guilty, and so when I was convicted of something I never did I said to myself, 'It's just about even balance,' and I took my medicine without any kicking."

Emerson as Art Critic.

"When Emerson, at Concord, in 1879, saw his bust, modeled by Daniel Chester French," says William A. Coffin, in the April Century, "he remarked approvingly, after looking at it intently, 'That is the face that I shavet'—not altogether an unconscious tribute to the fidelity of the work, for he recognized that in detail it conformed to nature. Turning to another bust of himself that stood in the room, a portrait quite without character, he said, 'This one is as harmless as a parsnip.' The philosopher thus, in homely speech, gave a very good art criticism, and one that in general terms may be applied to all of French's work."

London's gold shipments to the Cape since the Boer war began have amounted to $8,100,000, against $1,000,000 for the same period in the preceding twelvemonth.
