Advertisers are appreciating the fact that the Fulton County News is the best advertising medium in the county.

Owing to the steady rush of business the Union Photograph Company will remain in this place a few weeks yet.

At the Lower church in Whips Cove last Saturday evening, Mrs. Martha Smith and Mr. John Garland were elected delegates to attend Conference at that church on the 16th inst.

The Presbyterian people at Warfordsburg will give a lawn fete at their church on Friday evening and Saturday evening of this week. Everybody invited.

Send us a dollar and have us send the Fulton County News to that boy of yours who has gone away from home. He will appreciate your thoughtfulness at least fifty two times during the next year.

John Dill, aged 15 years, Freemansburg, Pa., is a raving maniac on account of the excessive smoking of cigarettes. For the past four days he has not partaken of food nor has he slept. Dill imagines himself the emperor of Germany and night and day is busy drilling imaginary regiments of soldiers, with whom he expects to overthrow many governments.

The Lutheran Reunion Committee will ask the Reformed and Presbyterian reunion associations to join in asking the W. M. R. Co. to erect at Pen Mar Park a commodious building to be used by the speakers on the occasions of the reunions. The building which has been used for this purpose is too small. The religious bodies will make a proposition to pay one-half the cost of the building if the railroad pays the other half.

Mr. P. P. Mann, who has conducted a saddlery in this place, during the past five years, sold out his business to Mr. William Kennedy, of Green-castle, the latter taking possession on last Monday morning. We are not advised as to Mr. Mann's plans for the future; but we hope we may not lose him as a citizen of the borough. Mr. Kennedy who was formerly employed in Mr. Mann's shop is a good mechanic and will no doubt keep up the reputation of the shop for promptness and good work.

"One Is Quick to Suspect Where One Has Suffered Harm Before."

Perhaps there are some business men in this town who have tried advertising and found the results unsatisfactory.

If so, something was the trouble. Contracting for space in a newspaper is not enough. When secured the space must be used to advantage. A convincing story should be told. A plant will not grow unless it is tended. An impression cannot be made upon the purchasing public except by careful, persistent work.

Many merchants err grievously in believing that time spent upon their ads is time wasted. No time can be made more profitable.

We believe the advertising columns of this paper can be used profitably by any one who seeks to reach the buyers of this community. We will gladly aid any one who desires to try it or who is trying it and is not satisfied.
