Master S. F. Huber, Chambersburg, heard evidences in the suit instituted by Clara B. Amsley against her husband, Oliver Amsley, who is now in Altoona, for divorce. The wife alleges desertion and cruelty. Several witnesses testified to the charge of desertion and the wife told how her husband had threatened to kill her. They were married near Mercersburg ten years ago.

D. D. G. M. Markley, of Warfordsburg, installed the following officers in McConnellsburg Lodge No. 744, I. O. O. F., last Friday evening: N. G., H. A. Comer; V. G., H. O. Wible; secretary, B. W. Peck; assistant secretary, D. Malloy; treasurer, A. D. Dalbey; R. S. to N. G., James Fryman; warden, C. B. Stevens, I. G., L. H. Wible, R. S. to V. G., Geo. B. Daniels; chaplain, G. A. Comer. Mr. Markley was accompanied by Mr. Frank Ranck, of Warfordsburg Lodge.

Familiarly with prevailing standards of etiquette gives a young man a distinct advantage, and he who is sure that he knows is at ease and conforms automatically to social requirement. None can be perfect in deportment who has to stop to consider how things ought to be done. If a man be a gentleman at heart the outward polish is easily acquired—between manners and morals the tie is intimate. A true gentleman is simple, unpretending, natural. He is courteous and considerate, and has the personal dignity that comes of self-respect, not self-consciousness. He treats every woman as a lady, speaks well of others and recognizes hospitality, as a mutual obligation.—October Ladies' "Home Journal."

John Comer, George A. Comer, L. H. Wible, D. Malloy and S. B. Woollet of this place accompanied Harry Markley and Frank Ranck to Littleton last Saturday and attended the installation Fort Littleton Lodge Saturday evening. The officers installed were: N. G., J. W. Fraker; V. G., B. H. Shaw; A. S., ———; Treasurer, M. S. Witt; Warden, D. Malloy; Conductor, M. D. Mathias; R. S. to N. G., D. W. Cromer; O. G., A. J. Lear; R. S. to V. G., D. A. Hill; L. S. to N. G., S. B. Woollet; R. S. to V. G., Frank C. Bare; L. S. to V. G., J. W. Miller.
