The Fulton County News.

LUME 2.

MCCONNELLSBURG, PA., November 22, 1900.

Road Law.

NUMBER 10.

The Parade.

sojubilant did our people feel perats that they had carried It was the occasion of the twen- by fire. an county-that the only way tieth anniversary of the marriage work off the accumulated en- of Mr. Schenck to Miss Sarah is heated from a drum connected pages of fine print in Purdon's Sunday following. isem was to have a torch Houp of New Grenada. at parade. So the hat was and around and men of both invite a few of their many friends ds four years ago.

there is a rigid borough law nies. The bride of the evening, covery was made just then, as a installowing cows to run at who has been at different times few minutes more of a start would to get their money back.

mesters, would not expect to still calls him her boy, was presethe bontire a failure just be ent-hale and hearty. use the pine was stolen.

Wing hands were at work occasion made by Geo. A. Stew- by Mr.James Keefer, who thinks liter dark Saturday evening are, light the big pyramid, Beaver, Pa. while the flames were conming the big structure the the happy couple many returns the minds of the younger pupils as well as the older. In order to dof colored folks from Ayr wiship, who would give a con-

at alas! for the perfidy of humature. When the parade

China Wedding. The home of Van Doran Schenck

Some time ago they decided to room below.

Almost a Fire.

Rock Hill.

The fourth local institute of

The first subject for discussion

The second subject was: "Literature in our Public schools."

sions were interspersed by reci-ed and the teacher as well as the Gem.

The men are hauling wood, pre

Master Raymond Peck, who has

Mrs. G. P. Bell, of Lehmaster,

s visiting her sister, Mrs. Lake

Garland. She is accompanied by

The family of Mr. D. B. Snyder

Miss Blanche Peck is teaching

To say our school (the Cross Roads) is progressing finely is aying it not half strong enough.

Miss Mellott not only keeps a fine school but she also has a finely

Mr. and Mrs. Pott McKee were isiting on Tuesday Mr. McKee's sister, Mrs. Alexander Mellott, who is critically ill of catarrh fe-

The friends of Philip Gordon will be glad to learn he is slowly

Hazel Garland, little daughter

Mr. Erven Fisher is still travel-

A large audience assembled in from an attack of jaundice.

ng with his engine.

Miss Orpha Snyder's school at had fever for the past two weeks.

paring for an old fashioned win ter.

s out again.

Ceder Lane.

ver.

getting better.

ier three children.

getting better slowly.

lecorated school room.

OLA STOUTEAGLE,

Secretary.

as well as the older.

was, "How to teach the marks

ale enough to hire the Mer- China Wedding, and the result of room was attracted to a roaring News an important paper. aburg band, give something to their invitations was, that a good- noise in the ceiling about the rown boys, buy some pine, and ly number of their friends and pipe, and hastening up stairs a left on Albert Stoner's where awaited them a bountiful and the floor around the pipe repast of tempting viands care- burning.

Friday a good supply of rich fully prepared, such as could not An alarm was given, an imwas brought in from the but please the taste and fancy of promptu local fire company orntain, and placed on the pub- the most fastidious epicures. ganized, common sense and plensquare for the grand bonfire The hours from 6 P. M. till 11 P. ty of water applied, and soon the hirday evening. Saturday M. were passed in feasting, in danger line was crossed. ming came, and notwithstand- mirth and appropriate ceremo-It was fortunate that the dis-geon the streets, not one sin- during the past summer danger have put the fire beyond the conanot of that pine was in sight. Jously ill but who is now rejoicing trol of those present. The Republicans said the Dem- in partially restored health, was as had contributed a little handsomely dressed, and made ney toward getting up the all the guests feel perfectly at w, and then had stolen the home. The groom looked the boy he used to be twenty years ago, Ayr township, was held at Rock whody who knows anything His mother of three score years Hill, November 9, 1900, with Mr at the composition of our and ten, plus three weeks, who John Kendall as president.

'There were speeches fitting the and sounds of letters." Opened arday afternoon, and soon a art, A. O. Griffith, and Arnold that to teach the sounds with the stpyramid of dry-goods boxes Houp, interspersed with music, letters, will make it more interother inflammable material Harry M. Truax in a neatly fram- esting for the primary pupils. ous useful gifts of China, &c.

success were lighted the pro- were-Mr. and Mrs. Anthony B grades. Followed briefly by ion was formed on Court Diggins, of Broad Top City; Mr. Mr. Martin. use hill, and started ont to and Mrs. Wm. Houp and daughwitself to the town. The ter Ivy, of Shy Beaver; Mr. Arwas, that after parading the nold Houp and daughter Anna This question was ably discussincipal streets of the town, Edwards, of Saxton, and Mr. and ed by Mr. Mellott, Mr. Keefer, would return to the Public Mrs. G. W. Thomas, of Shy and Mr. Martin. Mr. Mel-

Needmore.

weather has passed away and the tin, who thinks that the benefits farmers are again busy plough- derived from a library depend on Last Sabbath morning the One of our friends, a few days At the age of about 67 years, the result of the last election of Wells Valley, on last Saturday home of Mr. W. C. Patterson and ago, said he believed we could do John Sowers died at his residence ber of friends at 8 o'clock Wed- ed at the News office Tuesday. Republicans that they had evening, was the scene of joy and sisters a mile below town made a some good by publishing the law about a mile and a half south of nesday morning, November 14, Mr. John Pittman of Sipes Mills, ried Pennsylvania, and the mirth and hearty congratulations. narrow escape from destruction governing public roads, &c.

> A room over the sitting room with the pipe from a stove in the Digest, and to publish it all, would not leave room to say a word John Sowers, carried on black- The ceremony was performed The attention of a member of about liver pills, or the many oth- smithing at Webster Mills a by Rev. T. Davis Richards, of ries chipped in until there was to help in the celebration of their the family entering the sitting er things that help to make the number of years, and it was at Germantown Maryland, assisted McConnellsburg.

Query .--- Mr. A owns a farm for some torches that had neighbors gathered at their home found the rooms full of smoke, road, he must pass through land ed from Ayr township to Dublin. The bride worea traveling dress and lives on it. To reach a public owned by his neighbors. Mr. A. wants to know if the law will not give him a road out.

Answer.-Mr. A may petition court for viewers to locate a road from some point in a public road. by way of Mr. A's house to a point in some other public road. If Mr. A is the only one on this proposed new road that would be benefited by it, the chances are that it would not be granted.

2. Mr. A may see his neighbor, Helman of Tod, and Mrs. Paul and try to arrange for a private road out through his neighbor's land to the public road.

8. If his neighbor refuses to make any reasonable arrangement, then Mr. A may petition the court of Quarter Sessions for viewers, who will go on the ground, lay out the road, say how much damage the neighbor sustains by reason of the new road. If the road is secured in this business since leaving this place. sreared in front of the court ed speech, presented the numer- Followed by Gilbert Mellott, who last way, Mr. A must pay all the court costs, including the costs of South Fork, are visiting their teaches the sounds by key words Those present from a distance which are easily taught the A and of the viewers; he must pay to his parents here. neighbor the damage assessed by road through his neighbor's farm Mrs.W.H. Baumgardner last Satand keep the road in repair.

Any one using a road contin- Capt. Harvey Wishart is visitnously for twenty one years or ing his son Howard in Huntingmore through his neighbor's im- | don. lott thinks the reading of good proved land has the right of way, The company parted wishing literature should be instilled into but this is not the case through visited in Everett Tuesday and

In order to obtain either a public or private road through court accompanied by their son and The third subject was, "Benefits of and how to secure a school it is necessary to employ an attor. daughter, spent Sunday with The winter scare of rough Library." Opened by Mr. Mar. ney to direct the proceeding.

Sideling Hill.

Fort Littleton last Friday of par- 1900, the marriage of Mr. William spent last Saturday in town. On referring to the books, we alysis, and was interred in the B. Ranck and Miss Myrtle Stouffound it covered twenty-four family lot in Union cemetery on fer took place at the Methodist

John Sowers.

Mr. Sowers's father, the late burg. that place that the subject of this by Rev. E. R. Simons, pastor notice was born.

With the exception of a few years of gray broadcloth with hat to he spent in the West during the correspond, while the groom was so's the remainder of his life was attired in a black Prince Albert spent in Ayr township.

no children living.

Mr. Sowers is survived by two excellent young people, and have brothers George of Ayr town the kind wishes of a large circle ship, and Jacob in Oklahoma; and of friends for a long and prosperby two sisters, Mrs. Michael ous journey through life. Wagner of this place.

Mr. Sowers was a generous hearted man and a good neighbor.

Wells Tannery.

We had the pleasure of a handshake with Mr. and Mrs. Reuben Cunningham, of Olean, New York. Elis friends are glad to know that he has been very successful m Mr. and Mrs. George Fesler,

For a number of years he was

Mr. and Mrs. John Wishart agent of the South Penn Railroad at Fort Loudon, and, at the time of his death, was a member of friends at Maddensville.

In the presence of a large num-Mr. Isaac McClain, of Gracey, call-Ranck -Stouffer.

Elias Pation.

day, November 15th. He had been failing in health for some time, due to advanced age, and his death was not unlooked for.

Mr. Patton was a member of one of the oldest families of Peters township, his grandfather, Capt.

James Patton, having settled there on a tract of land held by him under a grant, dated 1744.

He was born on the old Patton

During his long life he took an the affairs of the community.

engaged in farming. He served one term as Jury Commissioner;

was ticket, freight and station

Merchant S.K. Pittman of Harrisonville was in town last Saturday. Mr. George E. Mumma and sister Episcopal church at Warfords-

Lydia spent last Saturday in McConnellsburg.

PERSONAL.

Mrs. Ed R. Austin and Mrs. Harry Austin, of Saluvia, spent Tuesday in

Mr. Joe Shimer, of Lexington N. C., is visiting his parents, Mr. and Mrs. R. N. Shimer of this place.

Mr. and Mrs. Erven B. Fisher and Miss Lida Peck, all of Gem. were in town Saturday afternoon.

Mrs J. L. Garland and her sister, Miss Linna A. Deshong, were in Mc-Connellsburg last Friday.

Mr. E. N. Akers and Levi Mellott married to a Miss Clouser daugh- mony and the congratulation of were among the representatives here ter of the late Daniel Clouser, friends, the newly married coup- from Sipes Mill last Saturday even-

> Mrs. George Sheridan Fockler, of Johnstown, is visiting her parents, Dr. aud Mrs. Wishart at Harrison-

Misses Minnie and Sadie Dickson spent from last Thursday until Tuesday of this week with friends at Shinpensburg.

John V. Stouteagle and daughter Miss Olive drove over to Chambersburg Inst Sunday and spent a few lays with friends

Mr. and Mrs. James Helman and their youngest son, of Roxbury, were visiting Mr. and Mrs. George Unger a day or two last week

Mr. and Mrs. James Dechert, and Mr. and Mrs. John Adair, all of Chambersburg, visited their aunt Mrs. George Finiff, of Tod, over Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. George H. Unger and son Edmond spent a day or two recently visiting the family of Mr. Samuel Cline near Fort Littleton.

Mr. Ira Covalt, of Covalt, Pa., came in to town last Saturday to meet and ake home his sister Miss Anna who had been visiting friends at Fort Lit-* active interest in business and in tleton.

> Misses Nellie Daniels and Lois Caldwell spent from Saturday until Monday with Nellie's grandmother, Mrs Christina Daniels near Harrisouville.

Miss Belle Stouteagle, who is teaching in Peters township, Franklin couny, was home over Sunday. She left Monday noon for institute at the Board of Managers of the Chambersburg.

Mr. and Mrs. B. R. Simpson, of Big Turnpike. To these he brought Cove Tannery, Fulton county, havebeen the welcome guests of Rev. and Mrs. J. H. Barney at Clearville, Pa., for the past couple days.-Everett Press Mr. W. H. Bricker, Kasiesville's hustling young merchant, and Dr. H. G. Critzman, Welsh Run's popular physician, favored the News office with their presence while in town on busiiess last Saturday. R. A. Stouteagle, one of Franklin county's leading teachers, spent Satarday and Sunday with his mother in this place. He was accompanied home by Mr. John Weisner. He left Monday morning to attend institute at Chambersburg. Mr. J. B. Clouser and grandson, Master J. F. Walters, of Altoona, came down to attend the funeral of Mr. Clouser's brother-in-law, Mr. John Sowers. They are remaining for t few days visiting among their old friends in this county. Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Cooper and heir little daughter Ruth, returned from a month's visit among friends in Kansas and other western states, While Harvey thinks that the west has some advantages over the east, yet, aking overything into consideration, he feels that a home in the Big Cove good enough for him.

homestead on March 26, 1823, and Mrs. Clem Chesnut and Mrs. the viewers; he must fence the Morehead, of Hustontown, visited passed his whole life in Peters township. urday

Wednesday of last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Ran McDonald,

Chambersburg and Bedford The Sunday school people of Wells township will hold their

Mr. Elias Patton died at his home in Fort Loudon, on Thurs-of the Presbyterian church at About three years ago he mov- Warfordsburg, suit. Some forty years ago he was Immediately after the cere-

She survives him. They have le started on a ten-days trip. Mr. and Mrs. Ranck are most at the most remote corner of town, some bad man slipped applied a match, and the great the was all over by the time parade was back to the Court he colored people came down frout's corner and sang awhile, y much to the enjoyment of who heard them. Those thies can sing all right; and if y had professional training, whave natural talent enough become famous singers.

But now comes the part of the eformance we dislike to men-As the evening was wearraway quite a good many peobegan to fill up on beer and whiskey, and then the troub-^{legan.} Cursing, swearing, and iting became the order, and at time three revolvers were bebrandished by a mob who had ected in one of the stores. there is nothing especially ob-^{monable} in a politicial parade itself; but if a gathering of ple cannot be had without th accompaniments, it seems us better, that no especial efthe made to effect one. The arm done overbalances the good.

Owing to ill health, Miss Ella aton has been obliged to resign ¹ position as teacher in Allehy. She is at present with mother, Mrs. Hattie Kendall the Cove. Miss Linton has a responsible position at a d salary, too, for several ars. But it is the old story r. Nothing breaks down one's trous system so quickly, and dermines one's health so sureas teaching; and yet there is ways a crowd of young people ing over each other to get into work, and that often at a salof fifteen or twenty dollars

Your communication will apar next week. It reached us little too late for this week.

ing. Miss Rhoda Lake, who has been Try to create a desire for good spending some time with her literature among your pupils. brother, Mr. J. W. Lake at Pleas- Followed by Mr. Kendall, Mr. ant Ridge, is again with Mrs. W. F. Hart.

Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Sipes vis- tations and singing by the school. ted their daughter, Mrs. Swartz- The recitations were well renderwelder, last Sunday.

Mr. T. R. Palmer and wife and pupils deserve credit. Mr. W. F. Hart and family attendmeeting at Tonoloway last d Sunday.

Prof. B. N. Palmer was the uest of Mr. Lee Funk on Suntay. They seem to have an "ear for music."

Mr. Chas. Garland has been employed by our genial blacksmith, T. P. Garland, on "Puffinberger Row" to assist in the shop.

Rev. C. L. Funk is improving his residence by giving it a coat of paint.

Mr. Isaac Peck will move in the tenant house on Water street owned by Messrs. Palmer and Morgret.

Mr. A. C. Truax will move from the Hill property to his own house near his father, J. S. Truix. Bert is a good fellow and we hate to lose him from town. Uncle John Shaffer says the McKinley election had a wholesome effect on him and he feels quite well since it is over.

Mrs. Cook Truax, of Clearfield, has been spending some time with the family of Mr. Henry Fruax.

Mr. Charles Gordon, of Thompson, has moved to the Morgan Mann property.

There will be a local institute held at Needmore Friday evening, November 23d.

Mr. Russell Barber, wife and son, of Saltillo, were visiting Mrs. Sadie Everetts last week.

the Presbyterian church on Mon-Our enterprising merchant, Mr. W. F. Hart, who has been ailing with grippe, is able to lecture on China, which was very manipulate the yard stick again, interesting indeed.

the books that are in that library. Last week Mr. Reuben Layton with a force of hands was trying to make better roads. Charles Hess and family spent Mellott and others. The discus-a few days with Mr. Hess's uncle, Lewis Sipes of Laidig. Preaching at Bedford chapel next Sunday at ten o, clock by Rev. Seifert.

Mr. Job Garland and son, Roy, spent a week with friends in Bed ford county, recently. Bub Hess is busily engaged in hauling lime from Pigeon Cove. Miss Lizzie Lafferty of Franklin Mills is employed in the home who may desire in this way to of Geo, Hill, John Clevenger and wife of Laidig were circulating among friends in this section last week-

Mrs. R. E. Fix returned to her home at Hustontown after spending a week with her mother Mrs. Rachel Hill, of this place.

Henry Layton and daughter Grace, spent Thursday with Mr. Layton's sister, Mrs. Effic Wink of Sipes Mill.

Jas. C. Mellott and wife of Franklin Mills, visited their son, I. D. Mellott at this place last Sabbath.

Miss Ollie Garland has gone to Cumberland, where she will chase and by eleven a. m. sent spend some time as the guest of home for a wagon to haul in four her sister, Mrs Reuben Karns. Mr. Albert Hixon and family and the boys were very much visited relatives in Whips Cove elated. The same crowd killed Sunday.

Mr. B. F. Gordon of Timber Ridge is spending a few days with Caleb Hixon's family.

Messrs. W. R. Garland and A. R. Layton went to Hancock Sunof Lake Garland, is suffering day.

> to spend some time with her son, Riley near Franklin Mills.

West will preach the sermon.

annual convention in the Hall at Wells Tannery Thanksgiving. All are cordially invited. Come and let us be thankful together.

'The Prosbyterians of this place contemplate building a church in the near future. The ladies are active in the good work. On last Saturday a few of them met at the home of Mrs. S. P. Wishart and organized a Ladies' Aid Society. They will meet at the different homes the first and third Saturday of the winter months, and will gladly do plain sewing at a moderate charge for persons aid them.

Our musicial friend Mack Stunkard has purchased a fine organ.

Some of our hunters have been very successful. November 12th George Sprowl, of Pittsburg, killed a deer that dressed 194 pounds. Wilson Hinish of this place also killed a large one.

and Frank Sprowl, of this place; George Sprowl, of Pittsburg, W. H. Horton and Leon Mitchel, of South Fork, Gaith Hoover, of Altoona, and Mr. Westover, of Westover, went out for a deer deer. The animals were fine four turkeys at different times.

While Mr. Joe Mellott of Webster Mills, was in town last Saturday evening witnessing the or two ago that he put up a hun- been running fourteen hours a parade, some miscreant stole the checkreinsfrom his harness. The Mrs. Anthony Lynch has gone same fellow or somebody else Union Thanksgiving services dollars to replace a set of checks parts of the West one good crop check stealing is checked.

the energy of a successful business man. He was a member and trustee of St. Peter's Reformed church, of Fort Loudon, and his place in the church as well as in the community will be hard to fill. His funeral took place last Saturday.

Death of St. Thomas Organist.

With mind and body wrecked by continued ill health, Miss Carrie Weiler, a prominent church worker and organist of the Reformed church at St. Thomas, Franklin county, escaped from her home last Thursday night and wandered over the mountain road, a distance of ten miles. With no heavier clothing than a thin dress, and wearing thin slippers, she suffered terribly in the freezing weather. Friday morning, between 7 and 8 o'clock, she staggered into the yard at the home of Frank Overeash, two miles west of Chambersburg. November 14th W. L., Charley, While suffering with convulsions she was carried into the house and died before a doctor could reach her.

> The was twenty-four years of age and the only daughter of Alfred Weiler, a prominent farmer of St. Thomas township.

Good Vields.

Sam Mellott, one of Ayr town ship's leading farmers, has just threshed his wheat crop amounting to 1,870 bushels. dred tons of hay.

tory of the West can show up to suits a day. The loss of the stole the checks from Dr. Garth- a better advantage than this, factory and material, and six waite's harness the evening of Our farmers seldom or never thousand dollars worth of finished the Reunion. It just means five have a crop failure, while in many furniture, exceed $100,000.

will be held on Thursday the 29th like these; and if the culprit is may be followed by a half dozen day evening to hear Mrs. White's inst. at 10 a. m. in the Presbyter- apprehended he will be held in dead failures. Seldom have the Bethel township are visiting relian church in this place. Dr. double check until his career at growing crops, looked betterthan atives in McConnellsburg this they do this fall.

Furniture Factory Burned.

Mr. W. F. B. Ash is visiting his parents, Rev. and Mrs. H. M. Ash of this place,

During the past three years. he has been superintendent of the packing and shipping department of the Hughesville Furniture Company composed of his uncles. On the morning of the 16th inst. the factory was burned, throwing out of employment over a hun-James G. Kendall told us a day dred workmen. The factory had day for several months, and We doubt that the brag terri- shipping as many as twenty-five

> Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Pittman of week.