

Birthday Party.

Mrs. Nathaniel Melville down the Cove, for her elegant dinner in honor of their son Harry on last Saturday. Quite a number of guests were present and partook of the bountiful repast prepared by Mrs. Mellott. Among the guests were Mrs. Mellott's mother Mrs. Jane Barton, Morgan Barton and wife and family, Mrs. Louisa Barton, Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Lamberson, Mr. Wm. Mellott and wife, John S. Carbaugh and wife and daughter, David Morton, Edward Carbaugh, and Walter Richards and wife.

Quite a number of presents were given Mr. and Mrs. Mellott in honor of their son's twenty-sixth birthday. After dinner the time was spent in social conversation and harmless games of amusement. All were delighted with the entertainment given by the kind hostess.

North Dublin.

The election is over and most of the people are thinking now of how cold the coming winter will be and to getting in fuel.

The butchering season is here and the squeal of the porker is heard very frequently.

Mrs. D. L. Rinedollar and Mrs. John Stinger were welcome guests of W. J. Cline and wife two days last week.

Mr. and Mrs. George Unger and son Edmund were visiting Samuel Cline's last week.

Mrs. John Barmont and two daughters were visiting among their many friends the past week.

L. C. Robinson is spending the week with David Robinson at Burnt Cabins.

D. W. Cromer lost one of his best horses last week.

We were very sorry to learn of Mr. John Sowers's death last Thursday night. We lose a good, kind neighbor.

J. Frank Alexander, wife and two children are visiting Fort Littleton this week.

We are patiently waiting for the Thanksgiving turkey.

On last Friday while George A. Stewart of Wells Valley was lifting at a 350-pound hog to place it on a scaffold previous to scalding it, he slipped and severely sprained his back and has been considerably crippled up since and scarcely able to get about.

Charlie Cook lost the rubber cover of the back part of their new buggy, going to Hancock last Tuesday. As it is something of a loss to the owner of the buggy, and not of much account to any one else, the finder will confer a favor, and receive a suitable reward, by returning it to Mrs. S. M. Cook, Webster Mills.

Prof. L. J. McGregor, of Hyndman, who will be remembered by those who attended the teachers' examinations in this county in '99 as the book man who was so full of stories, has laid aside the birch and accepted an appointment as clerk in the office of the Pennsylvania State Insurance Commissioner at a salary of $1,400 a year.

There are two families in the western part of the county named Day and Sunday who are neighbors. Dr. Day is the father of seven girls, while Mr. Sunday has an equal number of sons. Four of the sons have married Days, another is engaged, so that it now appears "every Day will be Sunday by and bye."—Tyrone Times.

Mr. N. H. Peck returned to his home at Wilkinsburg, last Saturday evening, after a two weeks' visit among friends at Hartford City, Indiana. He found the Pennsylvania people of that city generally well. Miss Rhoda Truxax died in October. She was a daughter of the late Stilwell Truxax, who, with his family, drove in a two-horse wagon to Indiana in 1848 from the farm now owned by David Harr, of Belfast township.

Mr. Isaac Morgret dug up part of a cannon ball on Tuesday in front of C. R. Gregory's building that had been fired from Jackson's cannon on Brosius' Hill, West Virginia, when he bombarded Hancock during the Civil War. The fragment is 6 inches long, shaped like a rifle ball and has a diameter of 2 1/2 inches. Part of the ball crashed through a corner of the building and the piece just found, buried itself in the sidewalk.—Hancock Star.

Saluvia.

Mrs. Ross of Everett, after enjoying a very pleasant visit with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Emanuel Mellott, returned to her home Sunday.

Geo. Thomas, of Saxton spent part of last week with his brother John Thomas of this place.

John Mills and George Bolinger are both working at their trades (carpenter) at Six Mile Run. They report more work than they are able to complete this fall.

Deer have been very plentiful on the mountains this season. A crowd of hunters killed four in one day last week; but it was not our lot to be with them. The other crowd did not even get a hair, (hare).

Protracted meeting closed at Zion Sunday night owing to the illness of the pastor Rev. W. J. Schaeffer, who is housed at New Grenada. Rev. Bickle of the church of God filled his appointment Sunday night. The Reverend's many friends in this place wish him a speedy recovery.

To some of our Republican friends, we hereby acknowledge the receipt of passes good for one trip up Salt River. But we shall probably not use them especially as long as our blessed "little Fulton" comes to the front as she did the last election, and we hope henceforth she ever will.

Knobsville.

Gen. Pedden and Capt. A. Dotterman of this place are visiting Mr. Bard of Pleasant Ridge who is dangerously ill.

Mr. D. W. Kelso and son visited Burnt Cabins on last Monday.

There is no pleasure in life if you dread going to the table to eat and can't rest at night on account of indigestion. Henry Williams, of Boonville, Ind., says he suffered that way for years, till he commenced the use of Kodol Dyspepsia Cure, and adds, "Now I can eat anything I like and all I want and sleep soundly every night." Kodol Dyspepsia Cure will digest what you eat. Trout's Drug Store.
