

That's always the way with our Hair Vigor. When persons use it they are always so highly pleased with it that they tell their friends about it.

If your hair is short, too thin, splits at the ends, is rough, or is falling out, our Hair Vigor will perfectly satisfy you.

If your hair is just a little gray, or perfectly white, Ayer's Hair Vigor will bring back to it all the dark, rich color it had years and years ago.

This was due to the fact that ballooning was being taken up by many persons who had no real understanding of its principles and real understanding of its principles and who often lost their lives through pure ignorance and recklessness. The real balloonist has a dignified appreciation of his fad. In fact, the balloon ascen-sion has gone beyond the scientific pastime, and in one or two of the cities has become a fashionable function—a function, known which for not Uted. fashion, however, which is not likely to become a rage. The form of ballooning as seen at the county fair and cheap summer resort is not to be ranked with the professional, for 't is a purely commercial and debased use of it. The scientific balloonist or the balloonist is just as proud of his expert knowledge as any other expert scientist could possibly be of his superior attainments.

Carrying out the suggestion of my text.

The teets. Carrying out the suggestion of my text. I promose to show you what classes of Christians will set into heaven with a hard push and those who will bound in amid salutations infinite. In the first class I put that man who gets into the kingdom of God at the close of a life all even to worklings and sin. Years are he mede the recolution that he would serve himself and serve the world unti-hody, mind and soul ware exhausted, and then, just before going out of this life, would seek God and versare to enter-heaven. He carries out his resolution. He takes the last sent in the last err of the last train bound heavenward. His re-leased and immetal sonit ascends. Not one wing bears down toward him with a welcome. No sign of cladness at his ar-rivel. None there oblighted to him for kindness done or alms distributed or spir-tun help administered. He will find some place to etax, but I do not every that man his heaven. He cot in, but it was not an abundant entrance.

his heaven. He cot in, but it was not an abundant entrance. Sometimes in our pulsits we give a wrone turn to the stary of the dwing thief to whom Christ said: "This day shall thou he with Ms in naradise." We such to admire the mercy of the Christ that nardoned him in the last hear, but do not let us admire the dwine thief. When he was arcested I thick his nockets were full of stolen coin and the cert he and on his hack was not his a vn. He stole right on with the was arcested for his crimes. He repented, and theough creat mercy arose to naradise, but he was no example to follow. What a givantic meaness to de-nor and mercel, and hone with which we are endowned, these miracles of sight and hearing and speech, to purpose movely and hearing and speech, to purpose movely or nrofane and then, through hasty re-nentance at the last enter heaven. heaven. Again, the bigot will not have what my text calls an abundant entrance. He has his bedwarfed opinion as to what all nust believe and do in order to gain celestial residence. He has his creed in one pocket and his catechism in another pocket, and it may be a good creed and a good cate-chism, but he uses them as sharp swords against those who will not accept his the ories. You nust be baptized in his way or come to him through apostolic succes-sion or be foreordained of eternity or you are in an awful way. He shrivels up and shrivels up and becomes more splenetic through the streats to hall him into the hand which they reached some time hefore through his Christian philanthropy. Now, that is what I call an abundant entrance. You save, it is not necessary to be a failure on earth in order to be a success in heaven. But I promise that all those who have lived for others and been truly Christian, whither on a large scale or a small scale, will have illustrious introduction into the impacted gateway. Here and there in some large family, you see an attractive daughter who declines marriage that she may take care of father and mother in old days. This is not an abstraction. I have known such. You have probably known such. There are in this world womanly sould as motion allows and our rolusness which sometimes characterize the aged and watch nights when pneumonia is threatened and are eves to the blind and sit in close rooms lest the septuagenarian be chilled and court out the right number of fins self sacrificing daughter is free from marital alliance, but the damask rose in her cluek is fielded, and the crow's feet have left their mask on the forehead, and the gracefulness is gone out of the figure and the world calls her by a mean and magallant name. But, my Lord and my food, surely Thou will make it up for that sid in heavenly reward! On all the banks of the river of life there is no castle of emerald and carbonele richer than that which awaits her. Its windows look right out upon the King's park, and the white hores to meet her father and mother will be there to thank her for all she did for them when their strength failed and they will say: "My dauchter, how kind you were to us even until the last! How yond it is to be together in heaven!" That is the King's chariot come for you. Mount and ride to your everlasting home!" Now, that is what? call an abundant entrance. Xame for the Proofs

In these modern days when knight-hood is in the seed, a brave survival has been witnessed in Chicago. Amy Sesselberg, twenty, r graduate of the Indiana Normal School, and pretty, went to Chicago on a shopping trip, and was arrested in a jewelry store charged with stealing a diamond looking so picturesque in her bandana and pinafore as particularly to attract and pinafore as particularly to attract my attention. In presenting the sub-ject of my discourse I remarked that the commentators did not agree with me, whereupon this old woman arose and quietly slipped out of the church. After the service I found her standing outside the door with a bag in her-hand, and this she presented to me, saying with a low entry. I presented hand, and this she presented to me, saying, with a low curity: 'I hyear yo 'say, sah, dat de common 'taters don't agree wid yo', en I hurry home to git yo' some sweet Virginny yams,'"

The imitation can be detected by various tests. On being cut the kernels lack the well-known plant-like structure of the genuine; they become soft when soaked in boiling water; on being burned they leave about 18 per cent, of ashes, instead of the usual 2 or 3 per cent, and they are heavier than the genuine.
