December 7, 1900, I left my home for Fulton county, Pa., and on the 8th, I arrived at Pleasant Grove Christian church to assist Rev. J. W. Troutman in a protracted meeting. The meeting began the 8th and continued to the 20th. The Holy Spirit came down, sinners were converted, the church was revived and about fifteen united with the church. At the close of the meeting, the congregation went out to the creek near the church, when the writer buried eleven with Christ in Christian baptism. By request of the pastor, the writer did all the preaching except two sermons which was ably preached by Rev. J. W. Troutman. The people of Pleasant Grove neighborhood are very kind, and I think as good as they are kind. In appreciation of my services, the Pleasant Grove church gave me $26.35. May the Lord bless them in basket, and in store. From there I went to assist Rev. J. W. Troutman, at Whips Cove church for ten days. The congregations at that place were also large, and the Christmas services on the 25 was the grandest for the occasion I ever saw, and were highly appreciated by all. At this place, the writer did all the preaching except one sermon which was preached by the pastor. The church here was much revived and two united with the church. The people of Whips Cove are very kind, and I think as good as can be found anywhere on God's earth. May they live faithful. In appreciation of my services this church gave me $37.60. May the Lord bless them.

S. L. BAUGHER.

I arrived at home Dec. 31, 1901, and found all well. Now I send you all thanks through the Fulton County News for your kindness to me.

P. S. Mrs. Baugher wants a word:
DEAR EDITOR.—I wish through the News, to thank the good sisters of Pleasant Grove church for some very valuable presents for myself, sent me by my husband Rev. S. L. Baugher. I also wish to thank the good sisters of Whips Cove church for some very valuable presents sent me. May the dear Lord bless these good sisters, for their kindness. I very highly appreciate their kindness.

Clear Ridge.

Jan. 8.—The straightening of the road on the northern part of Clear Ridge, which was begun in the nineteenth century, will be completed under the supervision of John A. Henry in the early part of the present century.

Last Friday while attempting to get on his wagon Ephraim Anderson had the misfortune to have one of the wheels run over one of his feet.

Cleveland Fields who has been suffering from an attack of typhoid fever, is slowly improving.

Joshua Heeter and John Stinson are on the sick list.

Rev. Frank has commenced his protracted meeting at this place.

The congregation, on last Thursday evening had a long wait for their pastor. Some, initiated, thought the wedding supper was the cause of his detention, but when at last he arrived, it was found that the road had been blocked. If the way of transgressors is hard, it is equally true that the road of the righteous is not always free from obstruction.

Miss Millie Huston is spending a few weeks with her aunt Miss Ella Irwin at McConnellsburg.

Pratt Md.
During nice weather the people have been busy cutting timber, and improving the new homes that they have purchased during the past year. This will be a very pretty settlement after it is once opened up fully.

Rev. James Troutman of Chaneysville is holding a protracted meeting at Mt. Hope, and Rev. A. R. Garland, one at Fairview. Both meetings are very successful.

Garland & Hewett are just completing the fourth "set" of sawing for Mr. Fry. Including all sets from Jan. 1, 1900 to Jan. 1, 1901 they sawed 600,000 feet and 30,000 shingles, and laid off four months. "E. B." where are you with your big 14? This was done with a 12.

Hewett & Pittman of Plum Run have contracted to do a big lot of sawing in this neighborhood, and expect to be at work by Feb. 1.

William Chaney died on New Years day. He was 92 years of age and the father of six children.

The work of J. F. Barney has been retarded very much recently by boils on his left arm. No remedies applied seemed to afford any relief, and even the gentle caress of his sweetheart made him howl with pain.

Cal Hewett was absent last Friday and Saturday. He was seen near Will Stigers' mill. He probably had a great grind.

Charlie Twig of this place came very nearly being drowned—both he and his team. He undertook to cross the Potomac; and when near the middle, the water was too deep and the current too strong; and it was only due to the prompt assistance of M. L. Colleen, the driver and team were saved.

Jerry Robinett and his son Harry are each preparing to build a big barn next summer.

When threatened by pneumonia or any other lung trouble, prompt relief is necessary, as it is dangerous to delay. We would suggest that One Minute Cough Cure be taken as soon as indications of having taken cold are noticed. It cures quickly and its early use prevents consumption. Trout's drug store.

If you know of an item of interest drop in and tell us about it. It may seem trifling to you but you will be surprised to see how important it looks in print.

The most soothing, healing and antiseptic application ever devised is DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve. It relieves at once and cures piles, sores, eczema and skin diseases. Beware of imitations. Trout's drug store.

Covalt.
D. R. Powell is getting ready to build an addition to his dwelling. Alonzo Barnhart is contemplating the establishment of a chair factory.

E. L. Mellott is erecting a large attachment to his barn.

I. B. Peck is slowly recovering from an attack of typhoid fever. Army Peck is employed by the Funk Co. sawing.

A California mineralogist has recently inspected the farms of Daniel and Elmer Covalt. He says there is no doubt about there being valuable mineral deposits and in large quantities. The same mineral is found on D. R. Powell's farm.

Rev. Barney of Clearville, and Rev. Lawton of New York, are holding a series of meetings at Antioch and Oakley. We trust they may be productive of much good. There are too many of us who are ready to praise the dead saints and persecute the living ones. Then there is the close fist fellow who needs a little touching up. People who have money to burn, should take it with them when they die. But, after all, the old world is, I think, getting better; and yet few people impair their eye sight very much looking on the bright side of things.

Old People Made Young.
J. C. Sherman, the veteran editor of the Vermontville (Mich.) Echo, has discovered the remarkable secret of keeping old people young. For years he has avoided Nervousness, Sleeplessness, Indigestion, Heart trouble, Constipation and Rheumatism by using Electric Bitters, and he writes: "It can't be too highly praised. It gently stimulates the kidneys, tones the stomach, aids digestion, and gives a splendid appetite. It has worked wonders for my wife and me. It's a marvelous remedy for old people's complaints. Only 50c. at W. S. Dickson's drug store."

Maddensville.

Our good neighbor and friend, Mr. D. Lock, who has been sick for the past seven weeks, is able to be up.

Ike Park had a sheep killed by some dogs last week. We advise the people to keep their sheep killing dogs at home.

Evans, Mr. Erven Brown, Mr. and Mrs. Ephraim Anderson, Mr. and Mrs. Jim Clark, Mrs. Diana Bare, Mr. and Mrs. Eli Ferronburg and Mrs. Elmer Ramsey.
