

THANKFUL TO MRS. PINKHAM

Letters Proving Positively that there is No Medicine for Woman's Ills Equal to Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

MRS. ANNIE THOMPSON

(ALL LETTERS ARE PUBLISHED BY SPECIAL PERMISSION.)

"I cannot say enough in regard to Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. It has done me more good than all the doctors. I have been troubled with female weakness in its worst form for about ten years. I had leucorrhoea and was so weak that I could not do my housework."

"I also had falling of the womb and inflammation of the womb and ovaries, and at menstrual periods I suffered terribly. At times my back would ache very hard. I could not lift anything or do any heavy work, and was not able to stand on my feet long at a time. My husband spent hundreds of dollars for doctors but they did me no good. My husband's sister wrote what the Vegetable Compound had done for her, and wanted me to try it, but I did not then think it would do me any good. After a time, I concluded to try it, and I can truly say it does all that is claimed for it. Ten bottles of the Vegetable Compound and seven packages of Sanative Wash have made a new woman of me. I have had no womb trouble since taking the fifth bottle. I weigh more than I have in years; can do all my own housework, sleep well, have a good appetite, and now feel that life is worth living. I owe all to Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. I feel that it has saved my life and would not be without it for anything. I am always glad to recommend it to all my sex, for I know if they will follow Mrs. Pinkham's directions, they will be cured."

CHANGE OF LIFE.

"I was taken sick five years ago with 'The Grippe' and had a relapse and was given up by the doctor and my friends. Change of Life began to work on me. I flowered very badly until a year ago, then my stomach and lungs got so bad, I suffered terribly; the blood went up in my lungs and stomach, and I vomited it up. I could not eat scarcely anything. I cannot tell what I suffered with my head. My husband got me a bottle of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, and before I had taken half of it I began to improve, and to-day I am another woman. Mrs. Pinkham's medicine has saved my life. I cannot praise it enough."

MRS. M. A. DEMOSS

PROFUSE PERIODS.

"I commenced taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound about 3 months ago, and cannot express how wonderful good it has done me. Menstruations were so profuse as to leave me very weak for some time after. I was also troubled with leucorrhoea, tired feeling, bearing down sensation, pain across the back and thighs. I felt as though there was a heavy weight in my stomach all the time. I have taken two bottles of the medicine, and now have better health than I have had for four years."

CHRISTIAN ENDEAVOR TOPICS.

March 3—"Religious Barrenness." Luke xiii, 6-9.

Scripture Verses.—Prov. xii, 24; xv, 20; xviii, 9; xix, 12; xxii, 25; xxiii, 13; Eccl. x, 18; Matt. xxv, 26; Rom. xi, 5; xii, 1; xiii, 11; 1 Thess. v, 6; Heb. vi, 12.

Lesson Thoughts.
We are brought into the kingdom of God on earth for service. God will supply the necessary ability; the responsibility rests with us to employ well the grace he supplies.

Even the busiest person may yet be a lumberer, usefulness only giving value to activity. The lumberer's effort that accomplishes some good is worth more than the biggest show of energy that serves no useful or worthy purpose.

Selections.
A man who is useless in the kingdom of God may console himself by thinking that at any rate he does no harm; but every dead weight holds back the wheels.

Remember now and always, that life is no idle dream, but a solemn reality based on and encompassed by eternity. Find out your task; stand to it; the eight cometh when no man can work.

Not what you can, might, would, will do, is the test of character, but what you have done and are doing. Dreams of the golden future are only little mist clouds which a glance of the risen sun will dissipate in thin air.

From its very inaction, idleness ultimately becomes the most active cause of evil, as passivity is more to be dreaded than a fever. The Turk has a proverb which says, "The Devil tempts all other men, but idle men tempt the Devil."

It is easy, by planning, to cheat your self into inactivity. Horace Mann said that he had never read anything about resolutions of the disciples, but a great deal about the acts of the apostles.

There is no easy task that may not be made hard by leaving Christ out of it. There is no hard task but may be made easy by getting his aid.

EPWORTH LEAGUE MEETING TOPICS.

March 3—"Religious Barrenness." Luke xiii, 6-9.

The chapter is a striking illustration of the fresh and up-to-date nature of Jesus' teaching. In chapter xii, he has forcefully presented the duty of loyal watchfulness. He follows this with sundry sayings and parables, which include three exhortations to repentance, two of which would be still fresh in the minds of his hearers, while the third is a parable based on an everyday fact of fruit culture. It was a common thing for the owner of a vineyard to plant a fig tree in it. It would attain its maturity in three years. If it did not then bear fruit it would be removed not only because it was useless, but also because it took up the ground which might be more profitably occupied by something else. The parable sets forth both the long-suffering and the severity of God. It is the principle of his government to give every man the fairest kind of a chance, but to "remove his candlestick out of its place" if he does not embrace the opportunity. It is a question upon sin, however long delayed in order to give opportunity for repentance, is sure.

The fig tree as in Mark xi, 13, is the Jewish nation, but the principles which underlie it are for all time, and may be profitably applied to individuals in our own time.

Compare the parable in Isa. v, where the prophet complains not only because there is no fruit, but also because results opposite to those expected appear. They brought forth wild grapes when he looked for good fruit. Read also Matt. xxi, 17-22, where Jesus curses the fig tree which put forth nothing but leaves. See also Matt. vii, 27, where the emphasis is laid so powerfully on "whoever heareth these sayings of mine, and doeth them."

Jesus looked for the fulfillment of a divine idea and a divine purpose in everything. There was no fruit on the fig tree, hence its destruction. Institutions are to be preserved not because they are old but because they are useful, rites and ceremonies are valuable not because they belong to the church or because they have a great history, but because they serve the cause of God and man. They have no claim any longer when they cease to fulfill their mission. So the various organizations, ecclesiastical, social and political, will live just as long as they serve the vital necessities of their age. When they cease to do that God will let them die. Brother, if you really want your church to live and prosper, arouse from your lethargy and help to make it a power in the community. Help it to do God's work, where you live.

Braid seems to slip more easily against carpet and rugs and is usually preferred for the finish of the bottom of a house gown than velvet, which is inclined to resist all velvety and woolly surfaces.
