

Lightning Liniment, 10c for large bottles. For General Use. Ask for it.

John S. Grissinger, of Dublin Mills, has rented the Ashman Grist Mill at Three Springs, and taken charge of the same.

Some one wants to know if the command "Six days shalt thou labor" is just as binding as the command to rest on Sabbath.

It is guaranteed that Peerless Horse & Cattle Powders are made from nothing but strictly pure drugs. Price 10c a pound package.

The election returns of Belfast in last week's News should have said that E. N. Akers was elected Assessor, instead of G. W. Mellott.

Druggist Will Dickson is marching around with his arm in a sling, the result of an involuntary slide down the back cellar steps, on Monday.

You are foolish to pay more than 10c for a package of Horse & Cattle powder when you can buy a pound package of Heckerman's Peerless for that.

A bill has been introduced in the legislature providing for the protection and reservation of racoons and the same to become game mammals.

Ask your merchant to allow you to examine a 10c pound package of Peerless Horse & Cattle Powder before you buy it. The package is not sealed.

Miss Kate B. Bolinger, a trained nurse, with much experience, kind and attentive to patients is now lying critically ill at her home in Mount Union.

Mr. Horner McGaughey, half brother of Mrs. S. M. Cook at Webster Mills, died at his home at Lemaster Monday night. Funeral on Thursday.

See that you get the original Dewitt's Witch Hazel Salve when you ask for it. The genuine is a certain cure for piles, sores and skin diseases. Trout's drug store.

Everett had two fires in one day last week. One of them broke out in the postoffice and destroyed nearly the entire edition of the Everett Republican, after it was in the mail sack.

Mrs. W. H. McNeil, of Boone, Iowa, nee Miss Alice Pittman of this place, celebrated "Washington Birthday" by presenting her husband as a souvenir, a nine pound boy.

Their promptness and their pleasant effects make Dewitt's Little Early Risers most popular little pills wherever they are known. They are simply perfect for liver and bowel troubles. Trout's drug store.

The death of John Bender will not in any way interfere with the furniture and undertaking business, but it will be carried on by his brother Samuel as heretofore. Special attention given to undertaking.

Counterfeits of DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve are liable to cause blood poisoning. Leave them alone. The original has the name DeWitt's upon the box and wrapper. It is a harmless and healing salve for skin diseases. Unequaled for piles. Trout's drug store.

The ladies of the Lutheran church will give the popular entertainment entitled the "Old Maids Convention," Friday evening, March 15. Doors open at 7:15; play begins at 7:45. Admission: Adults, 25 cents; children, 25c. Come and have a good time. In the Court House.

Like Oliver Twist, children ask for more when given One Minute Cough Cure. Mothers endorse it highly for croup. It quickly cures coughs and colds and every throat and lung trouble. It is a specific for grippe and asthma and has long been a well known remedy for Whooping cough. Trout's drug store.

T. J. Thompson of this place has been unable for more than a month past, to travel in his business on account of a severe cold giving the most trouble to lungs and heart. People in want of Dr. Shade's Liniment will please call at his home. Send or write him.

A Horrible Outbreak

"Of large sores on my little daughter's head developed into a case of scald head" writes C. D. Isbill of Morgantown, Tenn., but Bucklen's Arnica Salve completely cured her. It's a guaranteed cure for Eczema, Tetter, Salt Rheum, Pimples, Sores, Ulcers and Piles. Only 25 cents at W. S. Dickson's drug store.

On the Death of Etta M. Chesnut.

Thou art ailing, darling, ailing,
Thou art daily growing weak,
"I am falling, husband, falling,
Of my anguish I'll not speak."
Thou art sinking, darling, sinking,
Oh God, what can I do?
"Peace, husband, I am thinking,
Of only God and you."
Oh my dearest, do not leave me,
Thou hast made a home for me.
"My husband, O believe me,
My spirit shall guard thee."
Farest thou not the King of Terrors,
Though his fingers clutch thy heart?
"Husband, life is full of errors,
I've been faithful in my part."
Thou art slowly fainting, sinking,
And my life grows chill apace,
"Of thee, husband, I am thinking,
"Though I see my Saviour's face."
Thou art over, almost over,
Oh must I part with thee?
"Yes my husband and my lover,
My angel friends I see."
Thou art going, darling, going,
What is thy latest prayer?
"My life and death well knowing,
Dearest husband meet me there."
Thou art gone my loved one gone,
We shall meet on earth no more,
But thy voice still calls me on,
"Husband meet me on the shore."

Resolutions of Respect and Sympathy.

Whereas, It has pleased the Supreme Ruler of the Universe in his allwise providence to call from this earth the wife of our beloved brother, Clem Chesnut; and

Whereas, While we humbly bow to the will of Him who doeth all things well, yet we cannot but feel that our brother has been bereft of a well beloved companion, whose memory he and we will ever cherish for her good qualities, and whose virtues shall ever be emulated; and

Whereas, Our brother has been compelled to part with such a friend, to have the dearest ties of nature rent asunder, and to feel the pressure of such sadness, be it.

Resolved, That we the brothers of Washington Camp No. 554, P. O. S. of A., Hustontown, Pa., tender our bereaved brother our heartfelt sympathy and condolence and call upon God to comfort and sustain him in this his time of sorrow.

Resolved, That a copy of these resolutions be presented to the bereaved brother; also, that a copy be entered upon the records of our Camp, and also that they be published in the county newspapers.

Resolutions.

At a regular meeting of Fort Littleton Lodge, No. 84, I. O. O. F., the following preamble and resolutions were adopted:

Whereas, It has pleased Almighty God to remove from our midst and our hearts after a long protracted illness and suffering, our worthy brother D. K. Bare. Therefore be it

Resolved, That, in his death, this Lodge has lost a brother of whom it has just occasion to be proud—one who loved and lived the principles of Oddfellowship, and that the family have lost a kind, provident husband and loving father.

Resolved, That while we deeply deplore our loss, and that whilst his departure will create a void in our hearts that time cannot fill, and believing that the good that men do will live after them, and that their character will abide as a fragrant influence, yet, we bow in submission to the Divine will, knowing that "He who doeth all things well," hath not dealt unkindly in thus calling our brother from our midst.

Resolved, That we extend our heartfelt sympathies to the family, to the wife of his youth and mature manhood, and to the children who so much need his counsel in life.

We as a Lodge in presenting these resolutions of respect to the bereft family as a manifest evidence of our high esteem of one whom they loved to call father, and one whom we honored as brother, commend them to the tender care of Him who has promised to be a husband to the widow and a father to the fatherless.

Resolved, That in respect to the memory of our deceased brother, that our charter be draped in mourning for thirty days.

Resolved, That these resolutions be spread upon the minutes of the Lodge, that a copy be presented to the bereft family and that the same be published in the county papers.
