THOUSANDS SEE FUNERAL CORTECE.

The Honorary Palibearers Include Members of the Cabinet of Gen. Harrison When President-James Whitcomb Riley an Active Palibearer-An Impressive Scene in the First Presbyterian Church.

Indianapolis (Special).-Surrounded by fully 15,000 of his fellow-citizens the body of Benjamin Harrison was Sun-day afternoon buried in the family lot in Crown Hill Cemetery.

Close by the grave were the members t his family. President McKinley and ther visitors of distinction, and the other visitors of distinction, and the more intimate friends of General Harrison. Back a distance of 50 yards, be-hind ropes guarded scalously by a large force of police, stood with uncovered heads a great multitude who did not know him so well as those who stood beside the freshly upturned earth, but who bonored him and admired him

For nine hours Saturday the body lay in state in the Capitol, and in that time not for a moment was there a break in the lines of those passing by the colfin to take a last look at the ex-President. The outpouring at the funeral was a continuation of the evidence of the esteem in which he was held.

At the Harrison home before the hody was taken to the First Presbyterian Church, where the full service was held Sunday, brief exercises were held for the members of the family and immediate friends of General Harrison.

About 150 persons were present. Mrs.

Harrison did not appear, but remained in her room until it was time to leave for the church.
President McKinley, accompanied by Governor Durbin, called at the house about I o'clock. At about the same time came the members of President Harrison's Cabinet and others continually arrived until the short services were

The procession was to have left the house at 1.30 o'clock, but it was fully 30 minutes later than that when everything was in readiness. The doors were thrown wide open and the honorary pall-bearers—Gen. Benjamin F. Tracy, ol New York; John Wanamaker, of Philadelphia; Wm. H. H. Miller, of Indianapolis; John W. Noble, ol St. Louis; Charles Foster of Factoria Indianapolis; John W. Noble, of St. Louis; Charles Foster, of Fostoria, Ohio; Gen. Lew Wallace, of Indian-apolis; Judson Harmon, of Cincinnati, and William A. Woods, of Indianapolis -came slowly down the walk leading to the street.

After them came the active pall-bearers bearing the coffin. They were: A.
L. Mason, James Whitcomb Riley.
Evans Woolen, Harry J. Milligan, Cliford Arrick, William C. Bobbs, Harry
S. New, Howard Cale, John T. Griifiths, Newton Booth Tarkington, Hilton D. Brown and Samuel Reid.

America Keeps Hands Off.

Warlike talk in reference to the Tientsin incident is deplored in official cir cles here, where it is fully understood that war would precipitate the dismem-berment of China, which the President and Secretary Hay are trying to per vent. Europe thoroughly understand affuence the American Government wi not interiere, provided its commercia and other rights in China are not jeopand other rights in China are not jeop-ardized by any action that may be taken. In the opinion of the officials neither Russia nor Japan is financially in a position to go to war; England is still engaged in South Africa, and Germany is the only nation that is ready to assume the aggressive. It is appreciated here that Russia has certain rights growing out of the necessity of pro-tecting her frontier and her railroad, and the Administration desires that they shall be accorded recognition.
