Dr. Stevens has his dental rooms over Will Nesbit's grocery opposite the Fulton House for the present, where his friends may find him when they want a tooth pulled. Of course, it won't hurt.

Palmer P. Mann is developing into a first class liveryman. He added a pair of nice match horses to his stock the other day; and, with his new surry and buggies, he is in shape to accommodate his patrons in fine style.

You cannot enjoy perfect health, rosy cheeks and sparkling eyes if your liver is sluggish and your bowels clogged. DeWitt's Little Early Risers cleanse the whole system. They never gripe. Trout's drug store.

Very impressive Easter Services were held at the Reformed church in this place last Sabbath. The floral decorations were very pretty. The celebration of the Lord's Supper was observed, and five members added to the church.

The services in the United Brethren church on the Hustontown circuit April 14th will be as follows: Wells Valley 10 a. m. Oak Grove, 2.30 p. m., and Mount Tabor 7.30 p. m. Every body welcome. W. H. Dofoe, Pastor.

Spring coughs are specially dangerous and unless cured at once, serious results often follow. One Minute Cough Cure acts like magic. It is not a common mixture but is a high grade remedy. Trout's drug store.

Ex-Treasurer John A. Henry sold his pair of match-black driving horses last Friday to Wm. L. Murray of Hancock for $800 cash. John says they are a little the best team of horses that have gone away from this county for some time.

We are indebted to Miss Emma J. Fraker of the Citizen's National Bank, Chattanooga, Tennessee, for a copy of the Chattanooga Sunday Times. It is a 26 page paper, and is in keeping with the enterprise of that beautiful historic city of the South.

Last Saturday's Valley Spirit says that Charles Burkholder, a well digger, has struck a vein of fine bituminous coal, sixteen miles west of Chambersburg, at a depth of sixty feet. Mr. Burkholder does not tell the exact location of the coal; but if it is in a line with it, it is much nearer McConnellsburg than with Chambersburg.

Charlie Scott and Watson Lynch of this place left for Fort Loudon Wednesday morning where they are embarking in the mercantile business under the firm name of Scott & Lynch. They are excellent young men, both have had several years training in the business, and that they will get their full share of business, goes without saying.

Fedde Fixsen Dead.

All of the older folks of this place and the Cove, who had known Fedde Fixsen well, when he owned and lived on the Sipes farm just east of town, some thirty or more years ago, will be pained to learn of his death at his home at Inland Nebraska whither he went from this county. Although having lived more than four score years, he had been, in the enjoyment of excellent health all winter, and one can imagine the shock to the family, when one day recently a member went into the sitting room and found him in a kneeling position—dead.

Brush Creek.

Mud is much plentier than news this week.

A number of our young folks assembled at the hospitable home of N. B. Hanks on Saturday evening, March 30th, and gave at least one member of the family, his son Will, quite a surprise. Those present were Nora Lodge, Grace Lodge, Inez Akers, Blanche Barton, Gertrude Hoke, Piper Barton, John Lodge, Jr., Aquilla Lodge, Ernest Hixson, Clarence Akers, Mark Lodge, Charlie Lodge and Mrs. Irene Truax and son Earl. All went home feeling that they had had a good time.

Some of the Valley people attended the funeral of Mrs. Rachel Barton at Rays Hill last Sunday.

Oliver Holly and family of Clearfield are coming back to sojourn in Brush Creek for a time.

J. H. COVALT, Manager, Covalt, Pa. March 23, 1901.

One of the salesmen of Heckerman's Peerless Horse & Cattle Powder has in the last three months seen and taken the names of eighty one different brands of cattle powder and only one of them was a ten cent package and it only weighed a half pound and we believe you would agree with us that Peerless Powder at 10c a pound pack is as good as any of them if you could try them all. The profit for the merchant on Peerless Powder is not large. In fact so small that many of the drug stores will not handle it which we believe is quite a recommendation for it. Try a pack of it and convince yourself.
