

While no woman is entirely free from perioducal suffering, it does not seem to have been the plan of nature that woman should suffer so severely. Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound is the most thorough female regu-lator known to medical science. It relieves the condition which produces so much discomfort and robs menstruation of its terrors. The three letters here published should encourage every woman who suffers :

Jan. 19, 1850. "DEAR MRS. PITEIDAN :- After re-ceiving your reply to my letter of Aug. 6 I followed your kind advice, and am glad to tell you that I have been cured of the severe pain at time of menstruation through the use of Lydia E. If there is anything about your case about which you would like special advice, write freely to Mrs. Pinkham. No man will see your letter. She can surely help you, for no person in America has such a wide experience in treat-ing female ills as she has had. She has helped hundreds of thousands of women back to health. Her address is Lynn, Mass., and her advice is free. You are very foolish if you do not accept her kind invitation.

Troubles That Never Occur

"I wish very much," said a young woman, "to go and see the firm of W. & M. I feel almost certain I could ob-tain with them just the position I have long wanted, and I understand they long wanted, and I understand they have been for over a month trying ap-plicants for this position, but so far no one has been found satisfactory." "Why in the world don't you apply at once?" asked the person addressed. "Why, you see." replied the young woman with a sigh, as she glanced at her weather-beaten gown, "Tye let my-self get shabby, and clothes do make such a difference in an applicant's suc-cess." "I'll lend you money for a suit," said

"Oh, thank you," was the reply, with another sigh, "but I don't want to bor-row. The fact is, I have one hundred dollars, but I'm saving it for my poor sister's funeral."

'Is she so ill?" asked the friend.

sister's funeral." "Is she so ill?" asked the friend. "Not dangerous yet." was the answer. "but I'm sure she won't live the sum-mer out. She's weak and depressed, and has no vitality or appetite. "Now look here," raid the friend, whose intimacy and interest warranted plain speaking. 'you are taking a dead wrong, as well as an entirely foolish, course. It's more than likely your sis-ter won't die, and it lies with you more than all the doctors living to keep her alive. Don't yop suppose that your be-ing unfitly dressed, and in a poor pay-ing position, and your depressed at-mosphere have much to do with her de-pression and want of vitality? I'll go with you now to huy your suit. Then you make straight for W. & M.'s as noon as you can get the new clothes on. Go home and tell Jean you have a fine position, put $$50 of the money you're saved for her burial into her hands and tell her to go to the seashore or moun-ting for three weeks and an ay you rouset of the burn into her many and rell her to go to the seasone or moun-tains for three weeks, and so save your-self, your sister, your sorrow, and fu-neral expenses at the same time. Come! We'll have the suit sent home C. O. D.''

The advice was taken, the desirable position was secured, and six weeks ater a well-dressed, prosperous-looking young woman met at the train another young woman who, vitalized by moun-ain air and browned by mountain winds, no longer even remotely sug rested funeral expenses.

Temporary Stars Rare.

Within the entire history of astronomy there have been, before this last new star appeared, only 11 of these tem-porary stars, says a writer in the St. Louis Globe-Democrat. Only two have attained the magnitude of Nova—one in 572, the other in 1604. The first temorary star on record was seen 134 years before Christ by the ancient astrono-mer, Hipparchus. The second appeared 389 years after Christ. The third was the brightest. It was discovered by a1.60

Genern! Trade Conditions.

New York (Special) — R. G. Dun & Co.'s weekly review of trade says: "The greatest activity ever seen in Wall street diverts attention in a measure from progress in distributing and manufac-turing operations. But while off every hand stock market interests are coun-seling caution and attempting to prove that originate really more than could that prices are really more than condi-tion of some of our railroads warrant, the fact remains that, without a bril-liant crop outlook and a great activity of general trade, Wall street could hold no such carnival.
