On Saturday while assisting at the barn-raising on the farm of Charley Nesbit, Mr. J. Findlay Johnston suffered from the effects of heavy lifting of the timbers and was obliged to go home before dinner. He is one of the most efficient and intelligent hands to be found for such an occasion.

On Thursday last, one of Robert Cutchall's small boys, in Ayr township, went to the field where his father was at work to call him to dinner. After unhitching, the boy was placed on one of the horses to ride home, but the horse became frightened and ran too fast for the boy, and the result was that he was thrown off and his arm broken.

Last Wednesday, while employed at work on Harvey Cooper's sawmill, near Webster Mills, George W. Glenn who was assisting in bearing off, met with an accident that might have been more serious. When the carriage was running back it caught Mr. Glenn's leg and broke one of the bones below the knee, causing considerable pain, but he is now doing as well as could be expected.

On last Saturday Charles F. Nesbit, of Ayr township, had a very successful barn-raising. The barn will be 45x97 feet, one of the largest in the County, and when finished, it will be complete in every respect with all the necessary conveniences. The frame is of oak, and 105 men took part in putting up the frame. Every part went together without a hitch, and no one received a scratch or bruise during the day. H. K. Malot, the contractor will push the work through and have the barn ready for the present crops.

Mrs. Susan Sipes.

Mrs. Susan Sipes, relict of the late G. Runyan Sipes, died at her home in Licking Creek township, Sunday morning, June 16, 1901, after a long illness, aged 67 years and 28 days.

Mrs. Sipes was the daughter of Jacob and Nancy Sipes, and was married at the age of 19, and spent the whole of her life in the township in which she was born. At an early age she was converted and joined the Methodist church, of which she remained a consistent and faithful member for over half a century. For a number of years she and her husband lived quite near the church, and being very kind, hospitable people, their home was always open for guests and was generally filled with them. It was one of the chief stopping places for Methodist itinerants, who found it not only a stopping place but a home where they were warmly welcomed. This was the experience of all who were entertained there.

Her husband died July 29, 1900, and no one had reason to think that his companion would so soon follow him. After his death, she continued in the busy routine of housekeeping at the old home until disease fastened itself upon her. With patience and submission she laid aside her labors and waited for whatever the future held in store. She was well cared for in her illness, some of her daughters being with her all the time and four of them toward the last.

She was the mother of nine children. One died at the age of about three years, and eight survive. They are Edward H., who was in old Mexico when last heard from; Cecil H., a student at Dickinson Seminary, but now at home for the vacation; Calvin O., of Galva, Illinois; Mrs. Dr. Soffel, of Pittsburg; Mrs. Frank C. Mumma, of Wilkingsburg; Miss Nannie, of Pittsburg; Mrs. Hattie Palmer, of Licking Creek, and Miss Ollie at home.

She was interred on Tuesday at Siloam, her pastor, Rev. Pittinger, conducting the funeral.

A Terrible Explosion

"Of a gasoline stove burned a lady here frightfully," writes N. E. Palmer, of Kirkman, Ia. "The best doctors couldn't heal the burning sore that followed, but Bucklen's Arnica Salve entirely cured her." Infalible for Cuts, Corns, Sores, Boils, Bruises, Skin Diseases and Piles. 25c at W. S. Dickson's.
