A gold band ring was lost on June 30, 1901, on Timber Ridge road between Sharp's Grove and the Dunkard church. The finder will receive a liberal reward by returning it to the News office.

An advertisement in a newspaper that reaches two thousand people is worth just twice as much as one in a paper that reaches one thousand. If you want to reach the people advertise in the FULTON COUNTY NEWS for every body reads it. Those who are not subscribers, borrow it.

To clean carpet and keep away moths go over them once a week with a broom dipped in hot water to which a teaspoonful of turpentine has been added for each quart. Wring a cloth in the water and wipe under pieces of furniture too heavy to be moved.

Arthur Hanks of Chambersburg, son of Albert Hanks, formerly of this place, played with the St. Thomas nine here last Thursday. He pitched during the first half of the game. He has quite a reputation as a strong player in the Cumberland Valley.

A West Virginia lumberman, while sawing a poplar log at his saw mill, found an auger hole plugged by a peg. On removing it this was found to contain five $20 gold pieces, bearing dates between 1850 and 1860. The supposition is that the gold was secreted during the Civil War.

Hannah, wife of John DuBois of Philadelphia, died on Monday night, July 1, 1901. The remains were taken to the residence of Mrs. Penelope Evans at Everett, last Thursday. The funeral services were held in the Methodist Episcopal Church, and interment followed in the Everett cemetery. John DuBois was cashier of the Everett Bank for a number of years, and Mrs. DuBois was a sister of Mrs. Hattie L. Tritle, formerly a resident of this place, but now of Philadelphia.

At Greensburg, Pa., a count was made recently for one day of the number of men who went into six saloons of the town and of those who went into six churches with result as follows: 1561 men entered the six saloons and 470 men entered six of the largest churches. Twelve churches were watched and 757 men entered the twelve making an average of 93 men to the church, while the saloons average was 290 men. The average to the four leading churches was 78. In either case some men may have entered more than once. This straw tells which way the beer runs.

Special Excursions to Buffalo for Pan-American Exposition.

The Cumberland Valley Railroad in connection with the Pennsylvania R. R. has arranged for a series of special seven day excursions to Buffalo, N. For detailed information inquire of local ticket agents.

The Saint Thomas boys who played our folks last Thursday deported themselves in a way that showed that they were every one gentlemen. While there was considerable looseness in the count, they yielded the field to our team. As some of their members were leaving the field they were set upon by a crowd of street Arabs and taunted and jeered and insulted in every way possible for such kids to conceive. Why are not our visitors protected? We may go away from home and have it "put on us" some time, and the defeat, in itself, will be quite enough.

A Poor Millionaire
