Rev. S. C. Alexander, D. D., one of the oldest and most scholarly ministers in the Presbytery at Carlisle, died at his home in Middletown last Saturday morning of heart disease. He was pastor for thirteen years of the Upper Path Valley church, and while there organized the Dry Run Academy. Fire in Wells.
Last Sunday morning the dwelling of John Schenck in Wells Valley was totally destroyed by fire, together with nearly all of its contents.

Mrs. Schenck had gone away on Saturday and consequently was not at home when the fire occurred.

The family arose Sunday morning, built a fire in the cook stove, and were proceeding as usual to prepare breakfast when the cracking of flames arrested their attention, and they made the discovery that the whole of the upper story and roof were burning furiously. Without much help a few things were saved from the lower story; but the loss means nearly everything in the way of household goods, clothing, and stores of winter provision the family had.

Wise—Oliver.

A quiet but pretty home wedding took place Wednesday evening, September 19, 1901, at the residence of Frank Foust, at Richmond, Pa., when his niece, Mattie J. Oliver, and George Wise, both of Burnt Cabins, were united in the holy bonds of wedlock by Rev. H. White Seifert, the bride's pastor. Immediately after the ceremony the happy couple and friends were ushered into the beautiful dining room of Mr. Foust, where a table was laid with all the delicacies of the season, and where all enjoyed a pleasant hour. On Thursday evening the happy couple returned to the bride's home, where Frank J. Oliver, the new father-in-law, had prepared an elaborate spread in honor of the newly married couple, and at which time they were recipients of many good wishes from their numerous friends.

New Grenada.

Our people witnessed one of the best played and most hotly contested games of the season at New Grenada last Saturday afternoon. The New Grenada team was up against the Broadtop City team—a stiff proposition for sure. Our boys knew what they had to face and started into the game with a determination to win another great battle.

The game was called at 2 p. m., and both teams did such good playing, and were so evenly matched, that it was hard to guess on the result. Up to the 4th inning the score stood 1—1. Then the locals scored 2 runs, and the score stood 1—3 until the sixth, when the visitors made 2 runs, again tying the score and making it 3—3. The last, and winning run, was made in the seventh inning by the home team.

New Grenada—4.
Broadtop City—3.
