"I had long suffered from indigestion," writes G. A. LeDeis, Cedar City, Mo. "Like others I tried many preparations but never found anything that did me good until I took Kodol Dyspepsia Cure. One bottle cured me. A friend who had suffered similarly I put on the use of Kodol Dyspepsia Cure. He is gaining fast and will soon be able to work. Before he used Kodol Dyspepsia Cure indigestion had made him a total wreck. Trout's drug store.

A Warm Essay.

In a little country school not far from Princeton, literary exercises are regularly indulged in every Friday afternoon during the term. A twelve-year-old boy read an original essay on "The Newspaper." This latter-day youthful Solomon treats his subject thus:

"Newspapers are sheets of paper on which stuff to read is printed. The men look over the paper to see if their names is in it, and the women use it to put on shelves and such. I don't know how newspapers came into the world. I don't think God does. The Bible says nothing about editors, and I never heard of one being in heaven. I guess the editors is the missing link them fellers talk about. The first editor I ever heard of was the fellow who wrote up the flood. He has been here ever since.

"Some editors belong to church and some try to raise whiskers. All of them raise hell in their neighborhood, and all of them are liars; at least all I know, and I only know one. Editors never die. At least I never saw a dead one. Sometimes the paper dies and then people feel glad, but some one starts it up again. Editors never went to school, because editors never got licked. Our paper is a mighty poor one, but we take it so ma can use it on our pantry shelves. Our editor don't amount to much, but paw says he had a poor chance when he was a boy. He goes without underclothes in winter, wears no socks and has a wife to support him. Paw hasn't paid his subscription in five years, and don't intend to."

A Plendish Attack.

An attack was lately made on C. F. Collier of Cherokee, Iowa, that nearly proved fatal. It came through his kidneys. His back got so lame he could not stoop without great pain, nor sit in a chair except propped by cushions. No remedy helped him until he tried Electric Bitters which effected such a wonderful change that he writes he feels like a new man. This marvelous medicine cures backache and kidney trouble, purifies the blood and builds up your health. Only 50c at W. S. Dickson's Drug Store.

A Circuit Court Judge at Sheboygan, Wisconsin, awarded Mrs. Boushra, of Adell, $500 in a curious suit. Peter Hugent was the defendant. He promised Mrs. Boushra $1 for every kiss she gave him. Failing to collect, she instituted suit. She asked the Court for $3,000 damages, asserting that she had given that many kisses in accordance with the contract.

C. M. Phelps, Forestdale, Vt., says his child was completely cured of a bad case of eczema by the use of DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve. Beware of all counterfeits. It instantly relieves piles. Trout's drug store.

A receipt for the drink habit, says an exchange, is to eat tomatoes sprinkled with salt, consuming as much as possible. Let the eating of tomatoes and salt be continued for several days, and the tomato eater will find liquor offensive, ungrateful to the stomach, so much so that it will not retain it.

Mothers everywhere praise One Minute Cough Cure for the sufferings it has relieved and the lives of their little ones it has saved. Strikes at the root of the trouble and draws out the inflammation. Th children's favorite Cough Cure. Trout's drug store.

Your Column.

"To show our appreciation of the way in which the Fulton County News is being adopted into the homes of the people of this county, we have set apart this column for the FREE use of our subscribers, for advertising purposes, subject to the following conditions:

1. It is free only to those who are paid-up subscribers.

2. Only personal property can be advertised.

3. Notices must not exceed 30 words.

4. All "real" notice is excluded.

5. Not free to merchants, or any one to advertise goods sold under a mercantile license.

The primary object of this column is to afford farmers, and folk who are not in public business, an opportunity to bring to public attention products or stocks they may have to sell, or may want to buy.

Now, this space is yours; if you want to buy a horse, if you want hired help, if you want to borrow money, if you want to sell a pig, a turkey, some hay, a goose, or if you want to advertise for a wife—this column is yours.

The News is read widely by eight thousand people, and is the best advertising medium in the county.

Here's some space; who wants to use it!

The Porter's Lucky Day.

"We were traveling from El Paso to the coast," said advance man of a theatrical combination, "and the porter had tucked us snugly in our berths, when we were awakened to the consciousness that our train was held up."

The robbers marched us out of the car and made us deliver. Fortunately not one of us had more than a few dollars in cash. But the man who held up the car porter gave a yelp of delight: "See what I've found! Put 'em back! Start the train!"

"In the careless porter's vest pocket he had discovered a roll of bills as big as the pocket would hold. It looked as if there must have been several hundred dollars. We all knew of the profitable rapaciousness of the Pullman car porter, but never dreamed that his accumulations were so large. Yes the friendly human spark of forgiveness and sympathy was in our hearts for the poor fellow losing so much at one fell swoop. We were gathered in the smoking compartment and had a consolation purse under advisement for the ducky, when he came along himself:

"Mah Lawd, dat was the luckiest spierience I done ever had," he said, chuckling all over.

"Lucky!"

We were astonished. A poor servant robbed of hundreds chuckling with glee.

"Deed, yes, gem'men. Dey never look but jis' in only one of my pockets."

The post office department has decided to place the late McKinley head on the new issue of postal cards, which will appear shortly after December 1 next.
