Mrs. Maggie Morrow of Allegheny is in a somewhat critical condition, the result of an attack of chronic pneumonia. Her sisters, Mrs. Keziah Johnston and Mrs. A. W. Johnston of the Cove are with her.

On Wednesday, while Frank Fletcher, son of Shannon Fletcher, was out hunting, his gun was accidentally discharged, the contents striking him in the head and inflicting a serious but not fatal wound.—Bedford Gazette.

Poole's Horse and Cattle Powder is guaranteed to contain the very purest and best drugs obtainable, and mixed in exactly the right proportions in order to secure the best results. The price remains 10c for a full pound package.

John Haun of Salvia brought us an apple last Saturday which was one of two he picked from one of his trees, that weighed two and a half pounds. It was a pound apple, but the name ought to be changed to two pounds if they keep getting that size.

Mr. and Mrs. Silas Holly of Whips Cove desire through the News to express their appreciation of the many acts of kindness, and words of sympathy during the sore trial through which they have been recently called to pass—namely, the death of their son.

On last Saturday evening a large number of friends and relatives assembled at the home of Rev. John H. Barney, in Clearville, where a party was given in honor of the 50th birthday anniversary of Mrs. Barney. A most enjoyable time was spent by all who attended.—Everett Republican.

Sheep dogs have been getting in their work recently in Belfast and Licking Creek townships. Many Swope had seven sheep killed a few nights ago: Anthony Mellott, two; Ephraim Mellott, three or four; Ed Mellott about the same number, and John Bard about a half dozen. One of Mr. Bard's boys succeeded in killing one of the dogs, and could have dropped the other if he had had a double barrel instead of a single barreled gun.

We welcome Mr. E. G. Criswell of Pittsburg into the editorial ring, he having been recently elected to the chair of Assistant Editor of the P. E. church paper, and he will also be General Secretary of the "Brotherhood of St. Andrews," an association of fourteen thousand men leagued together for social and religious advancement. We congratulate him on an increase of salary, more congenial employment, and wider sphere of usefulness.

Great Luck of an Editor.
"For two years all efforts to cure Eczema in the palms of my hands failed," writes Editor H. N. Lester, of Syracuse, Kan., "then I was wholly cured by Bucklen's Arnica Salve." It's the world's best for Eruptions, Sores and all skin diseases. Only 25c at W. S. Dickson's.

Death of Miss Gengenbach.
Through a letter to Miss Bess Trout from Dr. I. S. Garthwaite, we learn of the death of Miss Lydia Gengenbach at Denver, Colorado. The young lady was a summer visitor at Webster Mills in ninety-seven, and soon after was obliged to seek health for broken lungs in the climate of Colorado. There she was joined about a year ago by her brother Dr. Frank P. Gengenbach, of Philadelphia, who gave her all the attention that medical skill or brotherly affection could suggest. Her remains were brought to Philadelphia for burial.
Dr. Gengenbach is now the last of his line—all of his brothers and sisters having heard the call of the Master to enter the Heavenly rest.
The kind sympathy of many friends is extended to him in this hour of bereavement and loss.

MRS. ELIZA ALEXANDER.

We were shocked to hear of the death of Mrs. Alexander at her home near Webster Mills on Friday evening, November 4. Her age was 75 years and 1 month. Interment at the Union cemetery on Sabbath afternoon. Mrs. Alexander whose maiden name was Eliza Bivens, was born in Fulton county, and was married to Mr. Andrew Alexander, deceased, of Ayr township. She is survived by four children—Mrs. Amanda Unger of Franklin county and Mrs. Annie Peck, James, and Miss Jane, of this county.

Although not strong physically for many years, there was no evidence, up to the moment of death, that she was not as well as usual. A few moments after leaving her daughter in the kitchen, she was found sitting on the couch in the sitting room, dead. Through the tender mercy of her God she had been saved what we most dread—long nights and days of suffering and weary waiting.

Mrs. Alexander was a faithful member of the Presbyterian church for 47 years, and gave evidence of this in being seen so frequently at service after having made the journey from her home, six miles distant, on horseback every extreme of weather.

Of such it is written: She that overcometh shall inherit all things. To the family, in which death has entered three times during the past year, we offer our tenderest sympathy.

Modern Surgery Surpassed.
"While suffering from a bad case of piles I consulted a physician who advised me to try a box of DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve," says G. F. Carter, Atlanta, Ga. "I procured a box and was entirely cured. DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve is a splendid cure for piles, giving relief instantly, and I heartily recommend it to all sufferers." Surgery is unnecessary to cure piles. DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve will cure any case. Cuts, burns, bruises and all other wounds are also quickly cured by it. Beware of counterfeits.

Akersville.
The people of this community are busy husking corn. C. R. Akers spent Saturday in Everett.

Piper Barton was the guest of Clarence Akers, Sunday.
Mrs. Irene Truax and Charles Truax were guests of Dr. E. D. Akers Sunday.

A company of hunters succeeded in killing a fine deer on Saturday.
Lewis Harris and Calvin Walters of Wells Valley attended the local institute at this place Friday evening.

The teachers of Brush Creek held their second local institute at this place Friday evening. A large crowd was in attendance, and all report a good time. The following questions were discussed: "How Do You Teach Reading in All Grades?" "Importance of and How do You Teach Spelling?" "Diacritical Marks, and Definitions?" "Duties of Pupils, Patrons, and Teachers?" The teachers present were Miss Anna Deshong, Miss Cora Clevenger, D. C. Hart, John McKibbin, Chas. Lodge, and Ernest Walters.

Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Jackson were visiting among friends in Bedford county Saturday and Sunday.
Protracted meeting begins at this place next Sunday evening. Aquilla Lodge is helping Oliver Holly husk corn this week.
Mrs. George Schenck, who has been seriously sick with typhoid fever, is slowly recovering.
