

Read Hostetter's ad this week. Brick for sale at Morton's yard. Irwin is showing a full line of New Goods. Give him a call. Mrs. Catherine Reiser is visiting her sons Jacob and George in this place. Irwin is showing all the latest novelties in Brooches, Gold Rings, Neck Chains, Lockets, Bracelets, etc. Don't forget to look for the star shower that is scheduled for Thursday night and Friday night of this week.

No use to pay more than 10c a bottle for Pills when you can get Peerless Pills for that much, and just as many.

In order to give our readers one day's later news, we have changed our publication day from Wednesday to Thursday.

Teachers and all lovers of Books will find a very large assortment at Irwin's. Prices from 10 cents up.

Mr. and Mrs. Howard Shimer spent a few days this week with their uncle and aunt Mr. and Mrs. Elliott Ray at Big Cove Tannery.

When you want to buy that Gold or Silver Watch "Ladies or Gents," you will find the best goods at Irwin's. From two dollars to thirty.

All merchants guarantee Peerless Horse & Cattle Powder to be PURE. The price is 10c for a full pound pack and you will be convinced of its superior merits if you once try it.

Mr. David Montgomery presented us with a beet, Tuesday, that beats all. It weighs 54 pounds, and measures 24 inches in circumference and 8 inches in diameter. Who can beat it?

If we were to charge you three times its regular price we could not make you a better condition powder for your stock than we give you in Heckerman's Peerless Horse & Cattle powder for 10c a pound pack.

The Wells Valley M. E. church will be reopened on Sunday, December first. Arrangements are being made for services on Friday and Saturday nights preceding. A definite program will be announced later. All cordially invited.

Arrangements have been made by the pastors of the McConnellsburg churches for holding a union service on Thanksgiving day. The Rev. A. G. Wolf will preach the sermon, and the service will be held in the Lutheran church at 10:30 a. m.

Michael Bard was in town Monday, and purchased from Albert Stoner one of those Detroit Jewel Ranges that he is selling this fall. Well, they are beauties—much better than those the peddlers sold at $69, and Stoner doesn't ask much more than half that money for them.

An Irishman was once engaged in the intellectual occupation of eating raw eggs and reading a newspaper. By some mischance he contrived to bolt a live chicken. The poor bird chirped as it went down his throat, and he very politely observed: "Be the powers, me friend, ye spoke a little too late."

Warthin and Harris finished their cider making season at Webster Mills last week, having turned out 20,000 gallons of the juice in about a month's running. We suspect Harry Duffy had something to do in getting the boys there, for if another one of Hunter Patterson's cornfields had gotten in his race, he would have run his mill with cider.

Contractor N. B. Henry is building a big bank barn for Daniel Gilbert on his farm east of town. Mr. Henry put his force of men on it about two weeks ago. Monday it was "raised." About sixty men participated and at the noon time hour, left the barn and deliberately "razed" a sumptuous dinner that Mrs. O. B. Dunlap had prepared. It will be completed in good time to house the stock.

The Board of Trade of Waynesboro has issued a neat pamphlet descriptive of the industries of Waynesboro—the busiest little city in Southern Pennsylvania—and its many advantages as a home for manufacturers and for workmen. The little book is full of statistics and will prove interesting reading for everyone. A copy will be forwarded free to any one sending his address to the Board of Trade, Waynesboro, Penna.

AN OLD BIBLE.

George W. Dishong of Ayr township handed us last Saturday, an old bible that accidentally fell into his possession a few years ago. It was printed in Philadelphia 98 years ago, and was at one time the property of Joseph Hynson Calder and Wm. A. Calder. Who the Calders are we do not know; but the family record, which has no doubt been lost to the family, is in a good state of preservation. We publish a few of the entries:

Jos. H. Calder was born May 18, 1776.

Eliza Calder was born January 4, 1779.

William Alexander Calder, son of Jos. and Eliza Calder was born December 13, 1803.

James Calder died of a wound in his shoulder in the engagement between the Iris and the Trumbull, Captain Nicholson, September 6, 1781.

Alexander Calder and Mary Hynson were married August 11, 1782.

Just in this connection, we are led to call attention to the matter of family records. It is only when we attempt to trace back our ancestry that we find of what value family records would be, and how hard it is to get information from them.

In addition to recording the name of the child born, the place of birth, and the name of the parents should be entered as well.

The entry of a death should always state place, as well as time of death. It would not require much time to note the cause of death, and any other items that might, in time, become of much interest.

It is the duty of heads of families to preserve in some substantial form the family history; and this should be handed down along the line of posterity. How many families there are whose ancestry is a blank. We owe it to the future historian and genealogist that we keep correctly a record of the present and pass it along.

Reliable and Gentle.

"A pill's a pill," says the saw. But there are pills and pills. You want a pill which is certain, thorough and gentle. Mustn't gripe. DeWitt's Little Early Risers fill the bill. Purely vegetable. Do not force but assist the bowels to act. Strengthen and invigorate. Small and easy to take.

Plum Run.

Samuel L. Simpson, teacher of Board Yard school, will have his first local institute Friday, November 15.

Miss Anna M. Carbaugh is spending some time with friends at Big Cove Tannery.

Miss Dessie Hewett, accompanied by Mr. Alex. Cavendar, spent last Sunday with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Hewett, Miss Rebecca Hewett left Tuesday to attend the wedding of her youngest sister, Haddessah, of Piney Grove, Md.

Cito.

There was quite a fire on the mountain near here Monday morning.

Charlie Reed is home from Huntingdon county.

Our school teacher Blair Truax and our postmaster John C. Seiders, were at Hagerstown and Williamsport Saturday.

Last Sunday morning a good turnout listened attentively to a good sermon delivered by Rev. H. W. Newman, of this place, to the children, taking for his text, "Consider the lilies how they grow," illustrating it with a flower. Mr. Newman is an eloquent speaker and his sermon was certainly appreciated by both young and old.—Ridgeway Advocate.

Li Hung Chang, the illustrious Chinese statesman, is dead. He was a crafty man and had to be watched sharply by his own government, as well as by all the other powers of the earth, but he was so far above all others of the celestial empire in affairs of state that his loss at this critical juncture in the history of that government is an extraordinarily serious one.

Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Duffy of Webster Mills went up to Tobie Glazier's Tuesday evening to participate in the wedding anniversary festivities. Upon arriving at Mr. Glazier's Mr. Duffy hitched his horse to a post. Sometime later in the evening the horse became loose from the post, and with the new falling top buggy to which he was hitched, walked through the wagonshed in which the wagon ladders were suspended. There was room for the horse to pass under the ladders, but when the top came up it was completely demolished.

THE TEACHERS' COLUMN.

Reports of Schools, Local Institutes, and Such School News as Teachers May Furnish.

Daniels' school, Licking Creek township, second month—Miss Margaret Daniels, teacher. Mellott, Ora Deshong, Belle Mellott, Daisy Mellott, Gertrude Mellott, Myrtle Mellott, Blanche Deshong, Mary Mellott, George Daniels, Jacob Hann, Jacob Deshong, Clyde Hann, and Vernon Deshong.

Witter's school—John Deavor, teacher—Second month. Number enrolled, 41; per cent. of attendance, 88; attended every day—Alice Cutchall, Lenore Hann, Estella Gracey, Gladys Gracey, Edna Shaw, Mary Shaw, Raymond Gracey, Leon Awkerman, John Awkerman, Freeman Awkerman, Harry Awkerman, Ernest Berkstresser and Floyd Miller.

The first local institute in Belfast township was held at Morton's Point Friday evening, November 8. The meeting was called to order after electing Mr. William Wink chairman. The questions for discussion were as follows:

"Chart Class—how taught, how kept employed, and how much should be accomplished the first year?"

"Little things and their importance."

"Attention, grading, and class management."

"Advanced History—how taught?"

"Can the compulsory school law be enforced?"

The questions were ably discussed.

Teachers present were—B. N. Palmer, Levi P. Morton, Albert Mellott, Cleveland Fohner, Unger Mellott, Bessie Morton, Cora Funk, Anna Deshong, Orpah Snyder and Blanche O. Peck.

The discussions were interspersed by singing and a number of well delivered recitations, that were rendered by the pupils of the school in such a manner as to show well the excellent work that is being done by their teacher, Levi P. Morton.

BLANCHE O. PECK, Secretary.

Modern Surgery Surpassed.

"While suffering from a bad case of piles I consulted a physician who advised me to try a box of DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve," says G. F. Carter, Atlanta, Ga. "I procured a box and was entirely cured. DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve is a splendid cure for piles, giving relief instantly, and I heartily recommend it to all sufferers." Surgery is unnecessary to cure piles. DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve will cure any case. Cuts, burns, bruises and all other wounds are also quickly cured by it. Beware of counterfeits.

Sale Register.

Friday, November 15.—Captain Geo. W. Skinner will sell at his residence at Big Cove Tannery, 3 Head of Horses, 38 Head of Cattle, a lot of Farming Implements, and a lot of good Household and Kitchen Furniture. Having sold his farm, everything will positively be sold. A number of his cattle are full bred Poll Angus and entitled to be registered. As the sale will be a very large one, it will begin at 9 o'clock.

Wednesday, November 20.—Aaron P. Garland, having decided to quit farming, will sell at his residence on the Lewis Bard farm 1½ miles north of Needmore, Live Stock, Farming Implements, &c., &c. Sale to begin at ten o'clock.

Saturday, November 23.—E. H. Richards, administrator, will sell on the premises in Ayr township the real estate of the late John Cunningham, deceased.

Great Luck of an Editor.

"For two years all efforts to cure Eczema in the palms of my hands failed," writes Editor H. N. Lester, of Syracuse, Kan., "then I was wholly cured by Bucklen's Arnica Salve." It's the world's best for Eruptions, Sores and all skin diseases. Only 25c at W. S. Dickson's.

Just as Roosevelt issued his thanksgiving proclamation France sent a war fleet after Turkey.
