VOLUME 3.

The Fulton County News.

The Teachers' Standard.

S. B. Todd, a former Pittsburg- pull. er recently contributed an article Schools," and is as follows:

more, be more, and suffer more than any other breadwinner. She must know everything in heaven above, the earth beneath, and the water under the earth. knowing them, but woe be to her if she knows them not.

"She must teach the three 'r's' the additions.

"She must teach physiology Buck Valley. with all the skill of a physician, but without his opportunity of hiding mistakes.

"She must teach civies with all the learning of a lawyer, but without his library.

"She must teach virtue and hood. godliness, with all the zeal of the minister, but without his Bible or his sectarian bias.

"Under the title of 'Nature Lessons' she must teach the man, but unlike her sister, in the out a text book.

"She must teach music, drawing, penmanship and physical culture with the ability of a specialist, but must give the super | tion. visor all the credit for success at

"She must give direct instruct ion in morals and manners or the school will go to the demnition bow-wows.

"She must teach the effect of a cohol and narcotics or the women of the W. C. T. U. will have conniption fits.

"She must spend from eight or ten hours a day in the unwholesome atmosphere of a poorly ventilated schoolroom, and one or two hours more in selecting material and copying it on the board, to be again copied by children, thus exhausting her vitality and ruining the eyesight and penmanship of her pupils to please the fool fancy of some saphead superintendent who thinks he is carrying out an original scheme. "She must govern wild and wicked children even when parents fail. She must be as wise as Solomon, patient as Job' strong and enduring as Caesar, large crowd. and tender as Maecenas. She than the Almighty for the Ala model of propriety in all things, day evening. for are not the eyes of the whole know the usage of the world and of society, but must stand aloof from both. She must have humility, confidence, infinite tact, count of the teacher being absent. perfect health, common sense in abundance, a modicum of wit, a wickedness. She must endure family on the Ridge. the foul air, the nerve-racking of the schoolroom. She must submit to the thoughtless criticisms of the ignorant, the unjust abuse of disappointed parents, the blandishments of those who would help their children by patronizing attentions to the teacher, self-seeking politicians. "She must spend hours upon hours making reports, compiling statistics, striking balances and averages, and tabulating foolish answers to silly questions with Hancock. the machine-like expertness of a trained accountant to make more formidable and less readable the superintendent's report, and impress a confiding and gullible public with the complicated machinery necessary-to a system of public schools.

and the domineering dictation of in poverty or on the charity of Paylor spent last Thursday with her friends if she falls ill, offends Mrs. John Souders of Back Run.

the powers that be or loses her who do not marry her."

Licking Creek.

She received no special credit for persons have to haul water quite a distance, for domestic use.

Miss Irene Hockensmith and her mother, Mrs. Stilwell Deshas in the olden times, but, mark ong, and Miss Lizzie Mellott, barger. In the evening an en-

William Hockensmith, Riley Truax, and Charley Mellott returned from Franklin county last Wednesday.

Joe Rivlet, of Johnstown, is visiting friends in this neighbor-

Mrs. Caleb Hockensmith, who had been visiting friends in G. B. Mellott, who showed by his Johnstown, has returned home.

Mr. Caleb Hockensmith moved Rev. Pittenger's goods from elements of all science known to Adams county to a house near Watson Schooley's, where Rev. Bard and S. R. Martin, who said high schools, she must do it with Pittenger and wife will make their home.

Joseph Deshong, who has been ill for some time, is now confined intermission, Dr. Omwake gave a to his bed and in a critical condi-

Roy Sipe and family are spending a couple days at Simon Deshong's this week.

George Harris spent one night last week with Joe Lake.

William Mellott and family moved to Riddlesburg Tuesday.

Mrs. Agnes Deshong, of Hustontown, is spending a couple days with her father-in-law, Mr. Joseph Deshong.

days with Mrs. Catharine Hockensmith last week.

Samuel McElhaney and his friend Miss Lucy Mellott, Harry Strait and Winnie Metzler, James Deshong and Mary Daniels, attended church at the Christian church last Sunday evening.

Miss Ella Kline is visiting her sister, Mrs. Bert Hann.

Big Cove Tannery.

Our hunters are almost clearing the woods of game.

The preaching at Laurel Ridge last Sunday, was attended by a

The Salvationists will be in our must be more even tempered vicinity from Thursday of this week until Monday of next week. mighty was "wroth with the They will hold religious services wicked" when He punished them, at J. L. Richards' Saturday at but alas for the teacher who 7.30 P. M.; Sunday, at 10.30 A. loses her temper! She must be M., and 2.30. P. M. and also Sun-

Misses Alice Shives and Netta community upon her? She must Lynch spent Friday at Himmel Harris's.

There was no school at this place Friday afternoon on ac-

John McQuade and mother of Altoona spent from Friday until world of wisdom, and a little Monday with Jacob Clouser's

William Bivens was a pleasent caller at George Lynch's Saturday evening.

A. C. Lauver has purchased Rev. Chambers's farm near here and expects to begin tilling the soil next spring.

Franklin county.

Mr. and Mrs W. M. Paylor pent Saturday and Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Powel Bivens near

Wm. Hull, of McConnellsburg, spent Sunday evening near here. Connellsburg.

Miss Ora Souders is spending some time with her grandpa- the Presbyterian choir! Well, be rents in Tod.

County Institute.

The annual teachers' institute Question" was taken up and dis- that condition until his death. cussed by B. C. Lamberson, B. The people of this vicinity are N. Palmer, Frank Henry, G. E. spent a few days last week in tertainment was given by Lybarger which was greatly appre-

TUESDAY FORENOON. Devotional exercise by Dr. What is it? (b) Where and how izen of Mercersburg. About sevshown? (c) How secured and im- en years ago Mr. Lackhove beproved? and value in school work, and life work, was discussed by would be left. The question was Funk of the Cooper House, and also discussed by Miss Stella of J. Frank Sheely of the Repubthat in some cases it was harder for the teacher to govern himself than to govern the school. After talk on Mental Development of a Child. Dr. Eckels, of Shippensburg occupied the next period.

TUESDAY AFTERNOON. After music by Prof. Gresh the "Library" question was again taken up and discussed by Prof. Ready, who named a list of books for a library, and by G. E. Clouser, B. N. Palmer and others. During the discussion it was suggested by a number of teachers that Supt. Chesnut would give a Mrs. Sallie Mellott spent a few list of books that he thinks would be suitable for a school library. After intermission Dr. Lybarger occupied the next period with an interesting and instructive talk on "How to Teach". Dr. Lybarger said, it would be better to place no books, except picture books, in the hands of children but too soon for the farmers. until they were, at least, ten Mrs. John A. Henry is visi years of age. Singing. Dr. Eckels then gave a talk on "Individ-

WEDNESDAY FORENOON. The session opened with devotional evercises conducted by Prof. Ready. Singing by Prof. Gresh. Question-"Oral Spelling: How? How Much? To Whom? and Value"-was taken up and discussed by J. P. Keefer, E. B. Cline, Prof. Ready and others. Mr. Ready says the reason we don't have the spellers that we once had is because we once Wednesday. had nothing to study except the "three r's;" but now we have too many branches, to put much time on spelling. Prof. Chesnut urged the teachers to put great stress on the teaching of spelling. The teachers agreed that it was best spelling oral. Mr. Chandler now Friday. gave a well directed talk on the "School Library." After intermission Dr. Eckels gave a talk. and was followed by Dr. Omwake. this season.

Wednesday afternoon, found a large audience in the court room at Pitcairn for some time, is home and the addresses, while along to see his father and mother, Mr. the same lines as the previous session, were instructive.

On account of delay in reaching Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Mellott here, the Wesleyan Quartette spent a few days with the family spent Friday and Saturday in were not able to begin their en- of A. W. Brown. tertainment until 9, o'clock; but e best recital ever listened to in McConnellsburg While one of the leading characters is a Farmer near Ireland lucky boy that time. with an attractive Rose, True's again, Harry. Mr. Fox spent Sunday in Mc. dale they could sing to beat the band, (McConnellsburg band.) Indeed, we heard the assertion made that they could even beat tainments institute week, and

Death of Mercersburg Hotel Man.

As the result of a second stroke "I knock on the pupil who and of Fulton county, opened in the of paralysis George Lackhove, the to a Wisconsin paper, which has noys her, on the superintendent Court House at McConnellsburg, well known hotel keeper at Merattracted considerable attention who overworks her, on the pa- November 18, 1901, at 1:30 P. M. cersburg, died Sunday afternoon article referred to is "Treatment her, on the alleged funny man which were conducted by Prof. friends, who believed that he was school board that underpays her, of Dublin was elected vice pres- second stroke affected his entire

Mr. Lackhove was suddenly stricken with paralysis about waiting patiently for rain. Many Clouser, M. M. Horton and oth- three weeks ago at his home and ers. The question was dropped his condition for a time was crituntil some future time. Short ical, but he soon began to imintroductory talks were given by prove. Sunday he was able to Drs. Eckels, Omwake, and Ly- sit up and a number of his friends conversing with his family that Angeles says: he fell a victim to a second stroke.

Mr. Lackhove was born and reared in Mercersburg and was West. Question - Dicipline: (a) hove, at one time a prominent cithotel in Mercersburg, and was widely known as an obliging and lican office, both of this place.

Plenty Of Arm Motion. Have our readers ever stopped to consider how often a printer moves his arm during an ordinary day's work? We know some of was a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. you have not, so we'll tell you. Silas Holly, who only four weeks An ordinary day's work for a previous, followed to the grave a 15 years. printer is about 10,000 ems of noble son aged 21 years. The type, or, in plainer words, the sympathy of a large circle of compositor picks up, including friends go out to these parents ence;" and the readiness and abilspaces, 18,000 pieces of type. Besides the type, he picks up a flicted. Besides her parents, lead to put between each line of she is survived by her husband, type, making a total of about 600 and baby boy, and a sister, Marleads he handles in a day. This tha Elizabeth, wife of William makes a total of 19,600 pieces handled, or 37,000 motions of the right arm for a days work. Do you doubt it is tiresome? If so, try it and tell us how it feels. Surprising it is but few printers suffer of paralysis.

Clear Ridge.

Cold weather has come at last,

friends in Huntingdon and Altoona for a short time.

J. W. Mowers took a load of time has come.

Joseph Shoop, wife and son, who formerly lived in this town, rents. but who now reside at Dry Run. were in our town at N. B. Henry's last Thursday.

Taylor township's assessor, E O. Kesselring, was in our town on John Gillis lost a fine horse i short time ago.

Dan'l Henry left this place Tues day to try the unknown country. Mrs. Hannah Walker spent last Thursday at R. E. Brown's.

Harry Ramsey and his brother to have the greater part of the Joseph were in our town last

Mrs. James Fields was in our town Friday. Successful hunters are scarce

Harry Ramsey who has been and Mrs. Taylor Ramsey. Harry has been working at the transfer. Elvie J. Brown, of Orbisonia, Harry E. Huston, last Wedneswhen they did begin, they made day shouldered his gun and startup well for lost time, and gave ed out for game, and in a short time returned with a 15-pound turkey on his back. Harry was a Miss Ella Irwin of McConnellsburg is with the T. W. Huston family for a brief time.

Mr. John Mellott and wife of ents in Tod.

Elmer Seiders spent Sunday rather have two than four enter his brother in law S. H. Bedford of this place.

Miss Lillian Fleming and two brothers were calling on Samuel Fraker's family.

The Star Shower.

The star shower, or fall of leon-November 16, 1935. A few per- might be proud. sons are living who remember marked in this city just before being 54 of the former to 29 of daylight. The display was at one the latter. Taylor with 8 schools, a son of the late Leonard Lack. time brilliant but there was a and Tod with 5, employ all male Booty of Bedford. steady fall of the brilliants after teachers. Bethel has the largest 1 o'clock. One watcher counted proportion of female teachers, tinsburg, Pa., spent Sunday last 385 between 4 and 5 o'clock, while there being 5, to 2 males. Twencame proprietor of the McAfee the total number seen in this city ty-six of the eighty-three teach- Palmer in Everett. is estimated at 1000. Some of ers are teaching their first term. the meteors were very beautiful. In contrast with this, is M. M. talk that if discipline was taken successful hotel keeper. He was One hundred meteors were count. Horton, of Wells, whose work out of a school that very little a brother-in-law of Landlord ed between 4.00 and 4.20 o'clock.'

> Ella Jane Dingley. At her home in Brush Creek of H. R. J. H. Dingley, died of 26th consecutive year in his home diphtheria. aged 18 years, 8 months, and 18 days. Mrs. Ding-Robinson.

Girl Tramp in Boy's Clothing.

Having cut off her beautiful long black hair, Miss Mary Bennie, of Pittsbug, 17 years old, was discovered a few nights ago in the disguise of a boy tramp in the Conemaugh lockup, where she had obtained lodging. She confessed to the police her real identty and said she had arranged to make herself appear as a boy tramp and run away for the nov elty, believing there would be buckwheat flour to Franklin coun- much fun in it. The girl had ty one day last week. We are been wandering over the country glad sausage and buckwheat cake for more than a week and had walked eighty miles. She was returned to her distracted pa-

West View.

Our farmers are very busy husking corn.

Miss Alice Myers of Maryland is spending a few days with Mrs.

Jacob Weaver. Our school children are rejoicing in a week's holiday.

Some of our young folks attended the institute at Boardyard last Friday night.

Misses Nancy Weaver, Madaline Sencil, and Anna Weaver spent Saturday night at Abner Weaver's.

Miss Mamie Lashley spent Saturday forenoon with M. Alte

Our teacher, Miss Janet M. Shives, deserves much praise for the excellent work she is doing in our school this winter.

of Pittsburg returned home last Saturday.

F. N. Alderton of Great Cacapon, W. Va., and Miss Etta Lash- charge of that which ey of near Hancock, took dinner brought. with Mrs. Mary Lake on Sabbath. Ed Charlton spent Sunday with Dr. Davie B. Chesnut.

spent Sunday evening with the family of Mr. Jacob Weaver. Miss Lizzie Weaver spent Sunday with Miss Anna Weaver. The oyster supper at Warfordsburg Saturday evening was largely attended. Harvey Ranck called at Mr. Abner Weaver's Saturday even Miss Laura Eader spent Satur day and Sunday at her home.

Institute Notes.

The attendance of teachers at ids, which was billed for last the institute this week, and the Thursday and Friday night, came interest they manifest in the off in fine shape. Owing to the work in hand is commendable, inamong school directors and teacher rent who ignorantly criticizes her, with 82 out of the 83 teachers presabout 1:30 o'clock. His death cloudy weather, it was not obserded. It is a pleasure for the ers all over the country. The on the paragrapher who satirizes ent. After devotional exercises, was a great surprise to his many vable here; but in many parts of McConnellsburg people to have Friday. the country, the spectacle was with them, a week each year, the of the Teachers in Public who makes sport of her, on the G. W. Ready, of Wells, E. E. Kell on a fair way to recovery. The fine. As this phenomenon occurs custodians of the educational inat intervals of thirty-four years terests of the county; and the "She must know more' do and the thousands of single fools ident. After singing, conducted left side and he lapsed into un. and one day, it is not in the range genteel appearance of the teachby Prof. Gresh, the "Library consciousness and remained in of human probability that many ers, and their courteous orderly persons now living will witness bearing, show them to be a body the next one, which will occur of people of which any county

Of the eighty-three teachers in the display of November 13, 1833, the county, eighty-two are presand, of course, more, who saw it ent-Miss Bottonfield of Union November 14, 1867. The condi- being absent-and her absence is, tions were very favorable in Cali- doubtless, not voluntary on her

There are almost twice as many "The fall of leonids was quite male teachers as females, there covers a period of 44 years, and Mr. Ready, of the same township has had a like long experience-part of the time as presitownship, on Monday, November | dent of a college. R. R. Sipe, of 11, 1901, Mrs. Ella Dingley, wife Licking Creek, is teaching his township; L. H. Wible, of McConnellsburg, has been teaching 19 years; E. E. Kell, of Dublin, 16 years, and W. G. Wink of Taylor,

A portion of the time each day is spent in a "teachers' conferwho have been thus so sorely af- ity with which the teachers discuss the various practical sub. months, is visiting his parents at jects relative to their work, is this place. very gratifying.

The instructors are able, and their work much appreciated by all who hear them.

Wells Valley.

Mr. Nathan Trail and son John spent a few days with J. W. Gibson last week.

Bruce W. Spangler, who has had employment in Pittsburg for some time, is visiting his parents Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Spangler, and brother Harry of this place.

Miss E. Maude Baumgardner of Juniata College, spent a few days with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Baumgardner some time ago.

B. Moody Stewart of our Valley has received employment in town, and attended the institute. the Westinghouse, Pittsburg.

William Bivens for some time.re-Creek valley last week.

Harry M. Truax of this place expects to move his family to Altoona, where he has secured a position.

Mrs. Minerva Cunningham is spending this week in Huutingdon lia, Missouri. visiting her son Frank, who is attending Juniata College.

Mr. James Gibson of Sandy Run, accompanied by two of his Altoona friends, spent a few days family of T. O. Bradley one day hunting with his brother John of during the past week.-Mercersthis place.

Mr. Jere Sprowl, who has been quite ill for more than a year, was visited a few evenings since by a Chester county, are visiting Mr. number of his neighbors and Cope's mother-in-law Mrs. Rachel friends who brought with them a Hart and other friends in Brush Mr. and Mrs. David Truxel goodly amount of the substantilas Creek township. of life; and when taking their departure, therefrom informed friend Jere that he should take

A fine deer captured on Sideling Hill was taken to Wells Tannery last Saturday evening, killed Harry Hill and Miss Nora Shaw by Mr. Wm. Sprowl, who was accompanied by a number of his friends from South Fork.

Mr. S. K. Edwards has moved his family from their home near Pine Grove of our valley to Hope

Miriam Edwards, last

Personal.

Hon, W. S. Alexander spent a day or two in Chambersburg last

Lemuel Garland and Lewis Bard of Belfast were in town last

Mr. E. A. Horton of Wells Valley called a few minutes while in town Monday. Joseph E. Mellott of Belfast pent a few hours at McConnellsburg last Saturday. Mr. and Mrs. Howard Shimer and their little son Clair, left for their home at McKees Rocks last Saturday. Jonn F. Hess and Andrew Souders both of Thompson township, called at the News office while in town Monday. Mr. Samson Mellott of this place spent a week or two visiting his brother-in-law Mr. J. W. Mr. Robert H. Sipes of Mar-

with his cousin Mr. W. Scott Mr. and Mrs. Delmer McEwen of Mercersburg have been visitng Mrs. McEwen's brother, D. E. Little of this place for several Walter Leedom, of Bristol, Pa., spent last week with the family of John Nesbit in the Cove. Mr. Leedom bagged a nice bunch of Mrs. Anna Hann and son O. E. Hann, who had been visiting friends at Clearfield, returned to their home at Saluvia, last Satur-Geo. A. Ott, who has been employed in a large tailoring establishment at Altoona for several Miss Emily V. Greathead returned to her home in this place last Saturday, after a very pleasant visit of several weeks among Maryland friends. Mrs. Carrie Coeps after spending a few days with her cousins Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Hamil of this place, left for her home at Bushnell, Ill., last Saturday. Mrs. Captain Skinner and her daughter Mamie returned to their home in Chambersburg last Saturday after spending a few days on this side of the mountain. Cloyd and Harry Edwards of Wells Valley came down Tuesday and spent a day or two with the family of Sheriff Sipes west of Ernest Greathead left Monday Miss Bessie Mellott, who has noon to accept a position in the been in the home of Mr. and Mrs. job printing department of the "Daily Leader" at Gloversville, N. turned to her home in Brush Y. Ernest is an artistic job print-

Miss Mary McCloskey who was recently called home on the account of her father's illness, has returned to her work in the George H. Smith college, at Seda-Miss Ellawea Johnston, Fulton county, and sister, Mrs. Mary McCutchen, O., were visiting the durg Journal. Jonathan Cope and son Percy and friend Leon Garret, all of Mrs. Effamy Mann, of Needmore, Fulton county, has been visiting her brother, E. N. Palmer of this place, the past two weeks. Mr. Palmer, in company with his sister, spent a few days this week with their brother, Joseph Palmer, at Mt. Union, Huntington county, Pa., -Everett Press.

Mr. and Mrs. James Helman of Roxbury Franklin county came over to this county last Saturday, and Mr. Helman returned Sunvell, where he has secured work. day leaving Mrs. Helman to spend W. L. Moseby expects to raise a week among her relatives. On new barn in the near future. The first Taffy Pulling of the eason was held at the home of very sick. Later word show that he was getting better, or her visit would have been a short one.