George Egolf, son of County Commissioner A. H. Egolf, was seriously wounded last Thursday night by his brother-in-law, George Smith, near Schellsburg, Bedford county. Benjamin, the 15-year-old son of Benjamin Evans of Bedford, went up stairs last Sunday morning for some article of clothing. To get it, he found it necessary to remove a loaded shotgun lying on a store box. Taking hold of the gun near the muzzle and drawing it toward him, the hammer was caught on the edge of the box and the gun was discharged. The load entered under the boy's chin, and literally blew his face off, causing death almost instantly. The family came to Bedford from Virginia last spring, and the father is a miner working at Broadtop.

An exchange prints the following which is applicable in every community. "Don't ship a big box of clothing and provisions 1000 miles away, when there is a little boy freezing just around the corner. It is right to send help away, but take care of the destitute at your own doors before going further away. Don't hesitate about giving a Presbyterian coat or a Methodist pair pants to a Catholic. Give the clothing to the needy, regardless of the faith of his parents or relatives, and you will have done an act that is commendable in the eyes of the Almighty."
