We were misinformed as to the high school having an entertainment Friday afternoon, and requested to state that there is nothing further than their ordinary literary work.

Sunday there was summer heat in the Lackawanna valley and a blizzard around the Alleghany. Pennsylvania is a large state and can accommodate all sorts of weather at the same time.

The old saying of "a stitch in time saves nine" holds very true in reference to your stock and horses. If you feed small doses of "Peerless Horse & Cattle Powder" regularly you will know it was 10c a pack well invested.

Mrs. H. S. Wishart, of Harrisville, favored the News office with her presence a few minutes Wednesday. Mrs. Wishart says as soon as she can get the Doctor to thinking favorably of the project, they will move to Johnstown.

Such a low price as 10c for a pound package of "Peerless Horse & Cattle Powder" would be impossible were it not for its enormous sale. Ask your merchant about it—examine and taste it, for this will prove to you its quality—feed it and you will know its merits. Remember—a pound pack for 10c.

You are a little mistaken; that is not a pumpkin you see in our office window, although you might be pardoned for thinking so. It is a California Navel orange, and we received it a day or two ago by mail from our friend J. Orville Harris, of Oroville, California. It is a beauty and no mistake, and weighs sixteen ounces, and measures thirteen inches in circumference. We confess we have always been too stupid to understand why it should have the name it bears, until Mr. Harris told us to look at the blossom end.

Coughs, Colds, and Constipation.
Few people realize when taking cough medicines other than Foley's Honey and Tar, that they contain opiates which are constipating besides being unsafe, particularly for children. Foley's Honey and Tar contains no opiates, is safe and sure and will not constipate. All dealers.

"Where did you get your Shirt Waist?"
"Why, at Wiener's, of course. They have the loveliest shirt waist goods I ever laid my eyes on."
"Wouldn't one be cute for a Christmas present?"

We are informed that Oliver Mellott who went to Pittsburgh two weeks ago has secured employment as a street car conductor. Also Corder Snyder, another of Belfast's young men is employed in the Smoky City.

It is ordered that all applications for licenses for the sale of vinous, spiritous, malt, or brewed liquors, wholesale or retail, for the year 1902, will be heard on Tuesday, the 14th day of January, 1902, at 10 o'clock a. m., at which time all persons applying for or making objections to applications, will be heard by evidence, petition, remonstrance or counsel. There must be no communication at any time with the Judges personally upon the subject, by letter or any other private way.

The petition, verified by affidavit of applicant, shall be in conformity with the requirements of the acts of Assembly. The Court shall in all cases refuse the application whenever, in the opinion of the Court, having due regard to the number and character of the petitioners for and against the application, such license is not necessary for the accommodation of the public and entertainment of strangers and travelers, or that the applicant is not a fit person to whom such license should be granted.
