presented their teacher, Mr. Blair

Truax, a five dollar set of "Hall Caine's Works," as a Christmas present.

We are in receipt of a letter containing a dollar bill renewing the subscription of Mr. Leonard

Heidt of Whatcom, Whatcom county Wash. Mr. Heidt seems to be prosperous and contented in his new home.

The prevention of consumption is entirely a question of commencing the proper treatment in time. Nothing is so well adapted to ward off fatal lung troubles as Foley's Honey and Tar. All cially trainmen who are usually similarly afflicted. All dealers.

The Mechanicsburg Daily Journal has this to say about the daughter of John W. Stevens a former resident of this county:

"Mr. Stevens, proprietor of Stevens' Cash Store, feels much elated over a Christmas gift he received today, and he has a perfect right to feel proud of it. It is a handsome drawing of a horse's head, by his daughter, Miss L.

V. G. Stevens, who is aged about

McDonald-Hockersmith.

Quietly and calmly, without the ringing of bells, or commotions generally attending wedding ceremonies, Miss L. Jennie

Hockersmith, of Shippensburg, and Mr. J. Curtis MacDonaid, of Philadelphia, were united in marriage. The ceremony took place at seven o'clock on Christmas morning at the M. E. parsonage, in Chambersburg and was performed by the Rev. Dr. W. P.

Eveland, the bride's former pastor. The bridal party left on the 1:25 p. m. train for Philadelphia, where they expect to make their future home. The bride is the daughter of Mr. J. L. Hockersmith, one of Shippensburg's leading grocery merchants, a young lady of charming disposition and business qualifications who has hosts of friends in the town and vicinity. The groom is a traveling salesman for one of Philadelphia's wholesale houses.

Schenck-Foster.

At noon, December 24, 1901, at the home of Mr. John Schenck, near Euid, Pa., Mr. Charles L.

Schenck and Miss Rebecca June

Foster, of Six-mile Run, Pa., were united in marriage by Rev. W. J.

Sheaffer. Mr. R. W. Wertz, of

Bedford, and Miss Welfthy Foster acted as attendants.

A large company of guests were present who brought many valuable and useful presents.

A sumptuous and elegant dinner was served to all present.

The day was one of sunshine and shadow, so may their lives be filled with sunshine in a larger measure than shadow. All wish for them a pleasant journey through life.

Children Poisoned.

Many children are poisoned and made nervous and weak, if not killed outright, by mothers giving them cough syrups containing opiates. Foley's Honey and Tar is a safe and certain remedy for coughs, croup and lung troubles, and is the only prominent cough medicine that contains no opiates or other poisons.

All dealers.

Children Especially Liable.

Burns, bruises and cuts are extremely painful and if neglected often result in blood poisoning.

Children are especially liable to such mishaps because not so careful. As a remedy DeWitt's

Witch Hazel Salve is unequalled.

Draws out the fire, stops the pain, soon heals the wound. Beware of counterfeits. Sure cure for piles. "DeWitt's Witch Hazel

Salve cured my baby of eczema after two physicians gave her up" writes James Mock, N. Webster, Ind. "The sores were so bad she soiled two to five dresses a day."
