February 6th is the Date.

The date decided upon for the annual entertainment given by the Stony Batter Club of the Mercersburg Academy is February 6th. This year they will give a Minstrel Show. Brubaker's Hall has been engaged for the occasion and the boys are hard at work, preparing the program, which promises to be the best ever rendered in the history of the school. A large attendance is expected and preparations are being made to accommodate all who may attend. The tickets will be placed on sale at Krebs's Drug Store, Mercersburg, on the morning of Thursday, January 30th.

Blown To Atoms.

The subscription list of the Fulton County News is growing at a very gratifying rate. But there is room for more names. If you have a friend away from the county, send him a copy, or send us his address and we will send him one. We want that every family in the county shall get the NEWS, and that every native of this county who is away, shall be on our list. It is a very rare thing for any one who once becomes a subscriber to the News to order it discontinued.

At 7 o'clock p. m., New Year's day, January 1, 1902, Albert Stoner wound an 8-day clock, put it in his "show window" and put by it a big card which stated that anyone purchasing not less than 25 cents worth of goods at his store, would be entitled to a guess at the time of the clock's stopping, and that the one guessing the nearest to that time should have the clock free. The clock run on and on past the eight days and did not stop until it had covered 18 days, 6 hours, and 54 minutes. The clock was given to Mr. C. T. W. Rider, he having guessed within 6 minutes of the time.

McKibbin.

What has become of our correspondent? Has she lost her pen?

Mr. and Mrs. Milton Hill visited Mrs. Hill's parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Lake last Sunday.

Our friend Anderson Mellott talks of making sale and going to Johnstown. We are sorry to lose Andy and his wife, for they are excellent neighbors.

Misses Queen and Grace Lake spent Saturday evening and Sunday with their cousin, Miss Jess Correll.

Our school teacher Miss Blanche Peck, spent from Friday until Sunday with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Peck at Gem. She is trying to secure a school library, and we hope she will be successful.

Mrs. Lara E. Funk and sister Miss Eva Bedford called on Miss Emma Truax Sunday.

The protracted meeting will begin at Pleasant Grove next Sunday evening.

Our hustling neighbor, Mr. Thomas Mellott went hustling up the road the other day, looking much pleased. We don't know the cause of his pleasure unless, it was the arrival of that little "cook" last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Anderson Mellott visited Mr. W. H. Mellott's Sunday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. John L. Spade have moved into a part of Mr. Amos Palmer's house and Mr. Spade has gone to Johnstown where he expects to get employment and if successful Mrs. Spade will go in the spring.

The hollow between Mr. Nathan Palmer and Mr. Miller Truax's is reported to be haunted. We wonder what the cause of this spook is? Do you know, Roy?

Children Especially Liable.

Burns, bruises and cuts are extremely painful and if neglected often result in blood poisoning. Children are especially liable to such mishaps because not so careful. As a remedy DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve is unequalled. Draws out the fire, stops the pain, soon heals the wound. Beware of counterfeits. Sure cure for piles. "DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve cured my baby of eczema after two physicians gave her up" writes James Mock, N. Webster, Ind. "The sores were so bad she soiled two to five dresses a day."

Spring House Valley.

Our landlord J. W. Mellott has his hands full of business running two saw mills on one farm. You can see him one hour at the upper mill and the next at the lower one; and when night comes he has to ask for Peter, the old mule, to take him home. He has a track made from the bench of the mountain so that one mule will bring any number from one to twenty logs down to the mill at one time. Mr. Mellott lost a valuable horse recently.

George Heinbaugh and family visited his parents Sunday.

Anna Everts visited her son Amos Seville from Wednesday until Monday.

Jennie Seville is on the sick list as is, also, her father.

John Hendershot spent last Sunday at Sam Mellott's.

A. W. Johnston traded horses last week with James Seville.

Tillie Sowers has gone to Chambersburg.

Carrie Bivens was visiting her sister Mrs. Daniel Clevenger last week.

A. W. Johnston and Sam Mellott, each expects to build a new house this coming summer.

Norman Johnston has returned home again.

John Seville was aroused one night last week between three and four o'clock and found his house afire. Had the fire not been discovered as soon as it was the house would have been totally destroyed.

Pattersons Run.

Miss Cora Sipes, of Foltz, Franklin county, was visiting in the home of her father, V. R. Sipes, on Sunday last.

Misses Lillie and Bessie Wilson of Knobsville were visiting in the home of their uncle Johnson Wilson on Sunday last.

Mr. A. L. Deshong, our popular postmaster and merchant at Harrisonville, is now whistling! "A charge to keep, I have. It is a girl."

There was quite a number of our sports and lady friends attended the protracted meeting at the Christian church last Sunday night.

The celebrated Pattersons Run Symphony Orchestra is having a very busy season. This organization is only two months old, but it is an organization that our people should be proud of.

The Oak Glen Band of near this place is advancing fast under the skilled instruction of the celebrated cornetist, Charlie Foutz, of Marion. They recently sent for five pieces of new music. Parties desiring music should write the boys, for their charges are very reasonable.

There was quite a number of respectable young folks gathered at the home of David Strait last Friday night in surprise. Twelve couples were present; some of whom were from Franklin county, and some from Knobsville. They spent a very enjoyable evening, and in the small hours of the morning, took their departure.

Don't Live Together.

Constipation and health never go together. DeWitt's Little Early Risers promote easy action of the bowels without distress. "I have been troubled with constiveness nine years," says J. O. Greene, Depauw, Ind. "I have tried many remedies but Little Early Risers give best results."
